LOCAL NEWS.

Gen. Grant's widow is writing a volume of memoirs of her husband.

Ex-President Cleveland is said to have a law practice of $25,000 a year. More business is offered than he can attend to.

The Watkin Tower, which will be erected in London and overtop the Eiffel Tower by 335 feet, is to have six legs instead of four. It will cost about $1,200,000.

Queen Victoria took to Aix-les-Bains a coachman, nine grooms, eight horses, a donkey, three carriages, seventy-two trunks and boxes and one son-in-law, Henry of Battenburg. Her luggage cost her for its transportation $1,095.02.

Will the next Pope be an out and out Liberal? That is the conclusion which we draw from Mr. Stead's interview with Cardinal Sarocchi, who stands an excellent chance for election after Leo Thirteenth. The Cardinal told Mr. Stead that his watchword was "Liberty as in London—Liberty as in New York."

Gen. H. V. Boynton writes to the Cincinnati Commercial Gazette that the passage of the so-called Morrill pension bill, which is almost certain, will call for every dollar of the present surplus and very likely will create a deficiency which must be met by new taxes. Tax reduction is out of the question.

The German Emperor last year conferred 5,108 decorations, including that of the Red Eagle, to 2,086 persons, the Crown Order to 1,199, and the Hohenzollern Order to 254. Fourteen new Knights of the Black Eagle were created, and fifteen persons were honored with the female Order of Louise. One person alone received the Order of Merit.

Out at Memphis they are taking hold heroically of the task of cleaning the city. The Board of Health have ordered the destruction of ninety-five rockeries in different parts of the city and the thorough fumigation of a hundred or so others. This thorough work, with equally thorough methods of street and alley cleaning, is expected to make Memphis fever-proof this summer.

The Chicago Times pithily says that during this generation there has been proposed to the country a plain tariff, a tariff for protection, a tariff with incidental protection, a tariff for revenue only with incidental protection, a tariff for revenue only and various and sundry other sorts and kinds of tariffs; but it remained for Mr. McKinney to propose a tariff for campaign assessments purely.

An official stenographer of the German Imperial Parliament has calculated the exact rapidity of speech of some of the most celebrated German statesmen. Rickert, a leader of the Free Trade Independents, he says, talks in a minute 153 words; Count Herbert Bisuarck, 144; Singer, the Socialist, 121; Bamberger, the best known bimetalist among the Independents, 129; Stumm, the coal baron, 148.

Just how the people of Rhode Island have been chiseled out of their rights in the past is shown by the statistics of the election in that State last year. In that year 43,111 votes were cast at the gubernatorial election. Of this number Davis, Democrat, received 21,289 and Ladd, Republican, 16,870. The balance of the vote was cut up among other candidates. Because of a provision which requires that a majority of the votes cast is necessary to an election the matter went to the Legislature, which was Republican, and so Ladd was made Governor over Davis, although the latter polled nearly 5,000 more votes than was cast for Ladd. But this year the Republicans have been hoisted by their own petard and Davis will be elected by a Democratic Legislature.

People will cheat. The head of a spirit cask was exhibited at the Produce Exchange to day that had a large piece of wood nailed on the inside, in such a way that it would escape the gauger's rod and yet would take up as much room as five gallons of spirits. It was exhibited by one of our naval stores dealers.

Those who braved the elements last night to attend the stereopticon entertainment at the Opera House were charmed and delighted. The scenery, representing views in Switzerland, were to the life and the description was eloquent and interesting. Yesterday Afternoon's Parade.
The Wilmington Light Infantry never appeared to better advantage than they presented on the parade yesterday afternoon. The rain did not deter them, nor did it prevent the attendance of a very large number of spectators. The company had eight fours in ranks and their evolutions were superb. Many were the exclamations of admiration from the old Confederate veterans who witnessed the display.

The Germania Cornet Band led the parade. They were out with full ranks and in full uniform and it is unnecessary to say that they discoursed beautiful music.

The Festive Drummer.
Nearly fifty traveling salesmen, representing business houses, met last night at the Purcell House and organized themselves into an association. Mr. C. C. Covington was called to the chair and Mr. J. W. McRae was made Secretary. An election for permanent officers resulted in the choice of Mr. Covington as President, Mr. E. R. Hicks, as First Vice President, Mr. J. A. Taylor as Second Vice President and Mr. J. W. Malloy as Secretary and Treasurer.

The members will all meet at the Purcell House to night, and attend the banquet in a body. On Friday or Saturday night they will meet again, when the committee on constitution and by-laws will report and the organization will be perfected.
