Personal.
Mr. J. H. Evans, a typo who was at one time employed in this office, gave us a pleasant call this forenoon. He has been located at Marion, S. C., for several years and is now foreman of the typographical department of the See Dee Index, in that city.

Criminal Court.
This tribunal convened after its recess of yesterday, at 10 o'clock this morning and the following cases were heard during the morning hour:

State vs. Oscar Stapps, assault and battery with a deadly weapon. Submitted. Judgment not yet pronounced.

State vs. Richard Cooper, assault and battery, submitted. Judgment not yet pronounced.

In the case of State vs. John Boyd, for larceny and found guilty on the 21st inst., the sentence of the court was three years in the State Penitentiary.

The Difference.
We received a letter this morning written on the 18th inst., in the central part of New Hampshire, which said:

"This is a lovely day, clear and cool. We have a fire to take the chill off the rooms as we had several rainy days in succession. The fields are a lovely green and the maple trees are nearly in full foliage, but the cherries are later and show only a tinge of green. Peaches, plums and cherries are in full bloom."

Here, on that day the thermometer indicated 84 degrees, all the trees were in full foliage and peach, plum and cherry blossoms were things of the far away past.

Y. M. C. Association.

Off to the Springs.
Col. E. D. Hall will leave here on to-night's train for Cleveland Springs for the benefit of his health. He has been a very sick man and we rejoice to chronicle his convalescence, and sincerely hope that his visit to this noted health resort will speedily restore him to perfect health and strength.

Dismasted.
Don't be exercised or alarmed at the idea that we are going to chronicle some dire disaster at sea, for we only intend to tell our readers that the good, staunch and popular steamer Passport has had her masts taken out. She came off the marine railway last night and was put on the line from here to Southport this morning, but looked rather oddly minus her masts.

Matrimonial.
Mr. S. Behrends, of the furniture house of Behrends & Monroe, and Miss Etta Thompson, were united in marriage at 8 o'clock this morning at the house of the bride's parents, on Campbell, between Fourth and Fifth streets. The newly married couple, after receiving the congratulations of their friends, took the 9 a. m. train on the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad for a bridal tour to the North. They have our hearty felicitations with the hope that their venture on the matrimonial sea may prove mutually pleasant and prosperous.

Building and Loan Association.
A meeting of local members of the "Old Dominion Building and Loan Association," of Richmond, Va., was held last evening at the office of Mr. DuB. Cutlar, Jr. It was called by Col. J. A. Potter, superintendent of agencies, and a branch was established with the following well known business men as officers: President, Dr. J. H. Durham; Vice President, Maj. T. D. Love; Local Attorney, DuB. Cutlar, Jr., and Messrs. H. VonLahn, J. D. Nutt, J. F. Woolvin, J. S. Allen, J. H. Kinsey, W. H. Alderman, DuB. Poisson, R. C. Orrell, Dan Quinlivan, A. A. Brown, J. A. Bonitz, C. H. Stemmerman, C. Burruss and others as stockholders, and Mr. J. McR. Cowan as local agent.

There's the Dinner Bell!
What a clattering and a chattering as the children answer the dinner bell and rush into the dining room. Oh! the gratification a good appetite affords as our noon day's meal is set before us. But this vacant chair, what does it mean? "Oh, that is Uncle Charley's seat. Guess he don't feel like eating, he's got dyspepsia, you know." Dyspepsia! horrors! Deliver us from dyspepsia! What's the use of being plagued with such an ailment anyway? What's the use having a stomach so irritated and sore that even one bite of food gives it distress? Why not heal the soreness and allay the irritation and strengthen its muscular processes, by using Hotanic Blood Balm. Will it cure? It certainly will. Many, many a former dyspeptic owes his enjoyment of life to B. B. B. Give it a trial.

S. J. Chandler, Richmond, Va., writes: "No one can afford to be without B. B. B. who wishes an appetite. I could scarcely eat a single biscuit for breakfast, but since taking B. B. B. I clean the whole table, so to speak."

The Forty-Third Anniversary.

The Wilmington Hook and Ladder Company, No. 1, celebrated its 43d anniversary by a banquet at the City Hall last night, and about one hundred members of the company and invited guests—partook of an excellent supper prepared for the occasion under the supervision of Mr. P. E. Kiley.

The address of welcome was delivered by Mr. DuBrutz Cutlar, Jr., and after the banquet Col. Roger Moore, who is called "the father of the company," presented Mr. Harry Webb the "badge of honor" for fidelity and promptness during the past year.

Short congratulatory speeches were made by Mayor pro tem George Morton, Assistant Chief, J. M. Cazaux, M. Rathjen, M. T. Davis, S. H. Fishblate, Capt. J. H. Daniel and others, at the conclusion of which the Foreman of the company, Mr. H. L. Fennell, requested the members to turn out this morning and unite with other companies of the department in receiving the Light Infantry on their return from Charlotte and escort them to their armory.

The banquet was a success in every particular; the menu was excellent, the speeches were happy, timely and appropriate efforts and all present were pleased.

Ladies' Memorial Association.
The regular annual meeting of the Ladies' Memorial Association was held yesterday afternoon. There was a full attendance and much interest manifested. The meeting being duly called to order, the report of the Treasurer was read, after which the Secretary read the President's report, and then the members proceeded to business.

A resolution was offered and adopted to the effect that inasmuch as many who attended the services on Memorial Day, and were anxious to hear the address, were debarred the pleasure of enjoying it because of the disturbing element within the grounds of restless children, playing around the mound, thus endangering the decorations, and thoughtless young men and girls talking and laughing together, it was resolved that hereafter a repetition of the same shall not occur; that a committee of marshals, four at least, shall be appointed by the chief marshal of the day, to enforce and maintain order during the services, having full power to refuse admittance into the lot all except those who have borne the march, or who shall wear the badge of the Association; and no small children shall be allowed within the enclosure, unless wearing badges, or who are under the care of parents or teachers.

Resolved, That a committee be appointed to confer with the President of the Children's Memorial Association requesting that officer to use his influence towards merging that Association into the Ladies', with reduced entrance fee. The Children's Association having been organized with a view to this end.

Resolved also, That whereas in the coming year the 10th of May falls on Sunday, the services, being entirely of a religious character, be not postponed, as on a former occasion, but be held as usual; that a clergyman be invited to address the people in a manner suitable for Sunday. Also, that the regular annual Historical Address be delivered by an orator not yet selected for the occasion; that said oration shall be delivered in the Opera House on some evening as early as possible after Memorial Day. Proceeds of address to be donated to the Medallion Fund, to be erected in memory of our Chief-tain and President.

After these resolutions and some other business of minor importance, the following election of officers took place:

President—Miss Hettie James.
Vice President—Mrs. John J. Hedrick.

Treasurer—Mrs. Kate DeR. Meares.
Secretary—Miss E. Kate Burr.

HURRAH FOR HURRA!

The Light Infantry Victorious—Officers of the Regular Army Award Them the First Prize of Two Hundred Dollars in the Contest at Charlotte—The Corps Heartily Congratulated.

We are heartily rejoiced at the success of the Wilmington Light Infantry in the competitive drill at Charlotte yesterday. The competing companies were the Wilmington Light Infantry; the Governor's Guards of Raleigh, Monroe Light Infantry and Hornet's Nest Riflemen of Charlotte, and the judges were Lieuts. J. B. Hughes and Stewart Cramer, of the United States Army and B. H. Bronson, of the U. S. Signal Corps. The drill took place at 9 a. m. yesterday at the base ball grounds, and was witnessed by a large concourse of deeply interested spectators. The programme of the drill was as follows:

Present company to judges. Dismiss company. Formation of company by 1st Sergeant. Inspection of company by Captain. Manual of arms, including stack, omitting reverse and rest on arms. Firings—load. Direct firing with blank cartridges. Right oblique fire. Fire kneeling. Retreat 20 paces and fire kneeling.

MOVEMENTS
March in line. Halt and align company. Advancing to the front. Change direction to the right. Change direction to the left. Marching in line, form column of fours to right. Form column of twos. Form column of files. Move by left flank. Form column of fours to left. Form line to front and continue to march. Form column of fours to right. On right into line. Form column of platoons to right. Advance by platoons. Change direction to right. Change direction to left. Oblique column of platoons and resume direct march. Face column of platoons to rear and march to rear. Face column of platoons to front and march to front. Form line to left and continue to march. Advancing by right of platoons. Form line to front. Report to judges.

There were three prizes to be competed for—one of $200, one of $100, and one of $25—and there was a hot contest to see which company should win the first. The judges were thoroughly competent and entirely disinterested men of experience, and the award of prizes was made strictly upon excellence in military tactics, and were as follows: First prize, $200, Wilmington Light Infantry; second prize, $100 Hornet's Nest Riflemen, of Charlotte; third prize, $25, Monroe Light Infantry.

The news of the victory won by "our boys" reached here early last evening, causing a great rejoicing among the many friends of the company, and we hear of one venerable and gallant soldier who has seen severe service in the field, and who yet takes great pride in, and is an active member of the company, who threw his hat in the air and jumped on it when it fell to the ground.

Active preparations were made for their reception, on their return to the city this morning, and upon their arrival at the depot here they were met by the white fire companies and a procession was formed, headed by a platoon of police under Capt. R. M. Capps, and the Kinston Cornet Band, colored, who were engaged for the occasion, followed by the Atlantic Engine Company, each man carrying a new broom on his shoulder, and hose reel, Howard Relief, with engine and hose reel, Hook and Ladder with truck, with carriages containing city officials, and friends of the company bringing up the rear. Everybody was happy and the gallant soldiers marched up Market street with a soldierly step and military bearing which would have reflected credit upon the most experienced veterans in the land. Arriving at the City Hall, three volleys were fired in honor of their triumph, with remarkable precision, after which the company marched into the armory, deposited their arms and were dismissed.

We heartily congratulate the company on its complete success. They worked for it, deserved it, and won it gloriously, and can do the same again, if opportunity should offer. Vive la Light Infantry.
