A tree in Clay County, Fla., measures 46 feet in circumference, and from the ground to the first limb is 110 feet. So far as can be ascertained the tree is perfectly sound.

According to the New York Herald the Republican National Congressional Committee are ready to admit that the next House will be Democratic, despite all they can do.

It is said that Manhattan Beach will be abandoned as a summer resort, last winter's storms having caused $2,000,000 damage to the hotel and railroad property. Austin Corbin is the heaviest stockholder.

The Pope created a great sensation during his reception of the Italian pilgrims in St. Peter's by informing some Neapolitans that he earnestly hoped that their Archbishop, Cardinal San Felice, would be his successor.

Since the death of Senator Beck there are three aliens, or foreign born members of the Senate. Senator Pasco, of Florida, was born in England, Senator McMillan, of Michigan, in Canada, and Senator Jones, of Nevada, in London.

The climate of China is said to be growing not only colder, but dryer.
Animals and plants accustomed to hot, moist regions are gradually retreating southward. Two thousand years ago the bamboo flourished in the forests of North China but it can no longer be found there.

Miss Winnie Davis will receive a novel bridal present from Atlanta.
Major Sidney Root is having an old-fashioned country gourd rimmed and braced with silver, and will forward it to be used as a wall ornament or a drinking cup. Major Root regards a gourd as a fitting emblem of the "Old South."

If Slimy Shepard is so seriously alarmed at the ghost of the Confederate flag what would the fellow have felt could he ever have come face to face with one in the years between '61 and '65? But that is impossible. The late war was not fought on either side by cattle of the Elliott F. Shepard breed.

English florists have concluded that it does not pay, after all, to run after new varieties of flowers. They have returned to the old favorites.
This season they are giving their best attention to the daisy, the pansy, the rose, the honeysuckle, the columbine, the larkspur, the hollyhock, Canterbury bells, sweet peas, heliotrope and the dahlia.

M. Rolland, an eminent French engineer, recently read a paper before the Academy of Science, in which he insists on the necessity of constructing a railway across the Sabara. The standpoint from which he regards the project is the part which France will have to make up her mind she is going to play in the economic conquest of the interior of Africa.

Well, "Treason's Day of Joy" was passed and still this great country exists de facto as well as de jure.
There wasn't a "treasonable" utterance made at Richmond yesterday, the liars and the fools and the black-guards and the Shepards to the contrary notwithstanding, and the stock market hasn't fluctuated a single point in consequence thereof.
People don't talk much about "secession" and "rebellion" and "treason" now-a-days, and the poor, maudlin, melancholy fools who indulge in such things are promptly laughed down and told to take the route for the nearest lunatic asylum.

Wednesday's New York Mail and Express has some terribly black head lines in an article narrating the preparations then, making in Richmond for unveiling the Lee Statue.
It is full of evil, malice, hatred and unchristianity, all of the way through. But the poor old senile, slimy Shepard, the liar, the fool and the poltroon, was born that way and can't help himself. It was old Commodore Vanderbilt, the grandfather, and not the father of the woman who married this slimy serpent, who made the remark: "There are more kinds of a damned fool in Shepard than any man I ever saw" and we all know that old Cornelius carried a long head.

The Fayetteville Observer says:
"Of the total amount of naval stores received by all the railroads and steamboat lines at Wilmington on Friday, 23rd inst., the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railway carried in 24 per cent. of the spirits of turpentine, 26 per cent. of the rosin and 67 per cent. of the tar."

The Fayetteville Observer says:
"The Wilmington Light Infantry have almost as many congratulations (?) in Fayetteville as in their own city at their triumph in Charlotte last week—the winning of the $200 prize. It would require a good many fingers of a good many hands to count the friends of that fine corps up this way."

Weakness!
How many suffer from weakness!
And what a distressful ailment it is.
Always praying for strength and yet feeling oneself growing weaker and weaker. There is great virtue in B B B (Botanic Blood Balm) as a strengthening as well as a healing medicine. Try it as a tonic and see how much better you will feel. It will improve both appetite and digestion. It is an excellent remedy to use while convalescing. If aids a natural and rapid recovery. In cases where an invalid has remained long in bed and bed sores or other ulcers break out, this remedy will afford quick relief.
W. M. Cheshire, Atlanta, Ga., writes: "I had a long spell of typhoid fever, which at last seemed to settle in my right leg, which swelled up enormously. An ulcer also appeared which discharged a cupful of matter a day. I then gave B B B a trial and it cured me."

The Boys all Back.
returned to the city this morning with full ranks, flags flying and not even a drummer boy missing. They marched down Front street and up Market to Third and then to the Armory where they were disbanded to seek some much needed rest.

Tourists.
Whether on pleasure bent or business, should take on every trip a bottle of Syrup of Figs, as it acts most pleasantly and effectually on the kidneys, liver and bowels, preventing fevers, headaches and other forms of sickness. For sale in 50c and $1.00 bottles by all leading druggists.

Maj. Stedman Cannot Go.
The Winston Daily says: Several days ago the Daily suggested that the committee invite that prince of orators, Maj. Chas. M.
Stedman, of Wilmington, to deliver the Fourth of July address in Winston this year. Maj. Stedman having seen the article writes to a friend in this city expressing his regret at not being able to be present. He says: "I am always glad to visit Winston and greatly regret that I cannot be with you in July."

Decoration Day.
The usual Decoration Day services were held this afternoon at the National Cemetery. The procession formed in front of the City Hall, under the direction of Mr. Fred B.
Rice, Chief Marshal, and his assistants, and moved out Market street to the Cemetery, where the usual services were conducted and where an address was delivered by Rev. G.
S. Rollins, pastor of the Congregational Church. The graves were decorated under the auspices of Jos. C.
Abbott Post No 15, G. A. R.

Releasing the Felice Prisoner.
will be interested in learning, as they do from the Munchausen Mail and Express, of New York, that
will march in with solid ammunition," whatever that may mean.
But this "solid ammunition" business was an utterly useless precaution. That doughty parlor knight and newspaper warrior, the valiant "Col." (self-styled) Elliott F. Shepard, was not on hand and so there was not an unfriendly face to be encountered anywhere and therefore no enemy to engage. It is a big secret, but the thing is over and done with now, and so we will let he cat out of the bag. They did go armed with "solid ammunition." Each man, in addition to his musket, carried a ten-inch dynamite shell in his West pants pocket and snugly concealed in each knapsack was a ten-inch columbiad.
It was well that "Col." Shepard did not go to Richmond yesterday.

Onslow Railroad Bonds.
Messrs. Bates, Chadbourne and French, Trustees of the Wilmington bonds voted to the W. O. & E. C. R.
R., have resolved to deliver $25,000 of those bonds to that railroad on the 7th day of June, proximo; and have in the following letter to the Mayor and Board of Aldermen notified the city of their purpose to so deliver unless restrained by due legal process from such delivery: WILMINGTON, N. C., May 27, 1890.
To the Honorable, the Mayor and Board of Aldermen of the City of Wilmington:

GENTLEMEN.—The undersigned, trustees under the tripartite agreement between the City of Wilmington, the Wilmington, Onslow and East Carolina Railroad Company, and ourselves as trustees, in reference to the delivery of the bonds voted to the said railroad, by the people of Wilmington, respectfully inform you that, in accordance with the terms of said agreement, the said railroad company has presented to us the certificate of a reputable engineer that 10 miles of said railroad have been completed, and has demanded the delivery of bonds to the amount of $25,000. At the request of Mayor Fowler, we have not yet delivered the bonds, but think it scarcely fair for us to continue to hold them unless furnished with good and substantial reasons, legal or otherwise, for adopting this course; and, unless such reasons can be supplied us at an early date, shall consider ourselves free from any moral or legal obligation to hold the bonds longer.
And we hereby notify you that it is our intention to make delivery of $25,000 of the par value of said bonds on Saturday, the 7th day of June, proximo, to the said Company, unless some legal steps are taken by you to prevent such delivery.

[Signed] ISAAC BATES,
WM. A. FRENCH,
GEO. CHADBOURN.

At a special meeting of the Board of Aldermen, Nov. 16th, 1889, Mayor Fowler called Alderman Hicks to the chair and taking the floor, stated that the Wilmington, Onslow & East Carolina Railroad Co. had forfeited their right to the subscription voted by the city by reason of the company's failure to commence work on the road within the time specified in the charter, and offered the following resolution, which was adopted without opposition:

Resolved, That the Mayor be requested to notify Messrs. George Chadbourne, W. A. French and Isaac Bates not to deliver to the Wilmington, Onslow & East Carolina Railroad Company the bonds of the city of Wilmington now in their hands under agreement of 14th day of May, 1888, or any of said bonds; that the right of said company to said bonds will be contested, and in case of any such delivery they will be held personally responsible.

The attorneys for the W. O. & E.
C. R. R. Co. are Hon. A. M. Waddell and Hon. Chas. M. Stedman, and for the city, Hon. George Davis and Mr. DuB. Cutlar. The city will contest the delivery on the grounds stated above.
