are very much annoyed by the action of the two Houses of Congress in the matter of setting apart days for the delivery of eulogies in his memory. The date for the eulogies in the House was postponed two or three times, and then the addresses were made on a day when very few members and comparatively no spectators were present, and now the Senate has added to the indignation of Mr. Cox's friends by post the matter in the Senate. On three different occasion he has risen in his place in the Senate and postponed the day agreed upon. According to the Congressional Record by C. I. HOOD & CO., Apothecarles, Lowell, Mass. Mr. Evarts has done this on his own responsibility, without even asking leave of the Senate. He simply arises and announces that the date has geen postponed. June 12 was the first day selected, and Mr. Evarts changed it to the 19th, then to the 26th, ond now he has further post-

By taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, which, by the remarkable cures it has accomplished, often when other medicines have failed, has proven itself to be a potent and peculiar medicine for this disease. Some of these cures are really wonderful. If you suffer from scrofula, be sure to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. "My daughter Mary was afflicted with scrofulous sore neck from the time she was 22 months old till she became six years of age. Lumps poning for the fourth time the day growing to the size of a pigeon's egg, became formed in her neck, and one of them after set for listening to the eulogies by 'a running sore for over three years.
