The Daily Review.

MONDAY, JULY 7, 1890.

STATE NEWS.

Greensboro Patriot: There is a great deal of fine work being done on the grounds of the Steel and Iron Company. The forests are nicely cleared and the streets graded almost equal to railroad work.

Rev. P. F. W. Stamey, Presiding Elder of Trinity district, died in this place of typhoid fever at 1.30 o'clock to-day. Rev. P. F. W. Stamey was a brother of Rev. E. L. Stamey, the pastor of Centenary Church of South Greensboro. A negro man hailing from Lexington, while considerably under the influence of "bug juice," attempted to climb on top of a box car that was standing on a side track at the depot this evening; just as he reached the top of the ladder he slipped and fell. Dr. Brodnax adjusted his scalp for him. When seen some time later he was still intent on celebrating the Fourth.

Sanford Express: Duncan McLean, a young white man of 23 years old, living near Lillington, was killed by lightning Wednesday evening. Capt. W. H. Smith, of Wilmington, has sent his agent, Mr. Rackle, here to quarry brown stone for the government building at Greenville, S. C. Dr. Cyrus Thompson, of Onslow county, has entered the race for Congress in the Third District. D. H. McLean, of Barnett, is still in the ring. The circus for Clinton still grows. A prominent merchant of Jonesboro, in speaking of tobacco culture in this section, says that without exception, every farmer who commenced to raise tobacco a half dozen years ago and who has stuck to it is now in a progressive condition, has ready cash and pays as he goes. His neighbors who failed the first year at tobacco and quit are growing worse off every year.

Charlotte News: Mrs. Cynthia Strain, one of the oldest ladies of this section of the State, died at her home in Dallas last Thursday night at the age of 92 years. A negro living on the farm of Mr. Barron Pressly, in Coddle Creek, was killed yesterday by another negro named Fred Nesbit. It was a case of an unloaded pistol. Early this morning the dead body of an unknown negro was found on the Richmond & Danville track, near the county poor house, four miles north of Concord. The negro is supposed to have been killed by a train, but the coroner is to-day making an investigation. Just after the News had gone to press yesterday afternoon, a telegram came saying that Charlotte had lost the race in the firmen's contest. The Monroe company made the run of 150 yards, coupled and threw water, in 30 seconds. Charlotte's time was 35 seconds. The crowd there is said by some to have been as large as the crowd in Charlotte at the Music Festival. A few years ago, Mr. Henry Glass, a Maine Yankee, came to Mecklenburg, bought an old field in Paw Creek township, and went to farming. The neighbors thought of course that he would starve, but he has shown them what Yankee thrift will do. He had up hill work at first, but this year he sold 14 bales of cotton, (from one horse,) besides wheat, oats, potatoes and pork. During the winter he sold enough rabbits to pay the clothing bill of his family. He expects to do still better next year.

Surprising Testimony.

Many physicians who have examined into the merits of B B B (Botanic Blood Balm), have been confronted with testimony which they deemed surprising, and thus being convinced of its wonderful efficacy, have not failed to prescribe it in their practice as occasion required.

H. L. Cassidy, Kennesaw, Ga., writes: "For two years my wife was a great sufferer. Skillful physicians did her no good. Her mouth was one solid ulcer, her body was broken out in sores, and she lost a beautiful head of hair. Three bottles of B B B cured her completely, incredible as it may sound, and she is now the mother of a healthy three months old baby clear from any scrofulous taint."

ATLANTIC VIEW.

WRIGHTSVILLE, N. C.

IS NOW OPEN UNDER SAME MANAGEMENT. The Hotel and grounds are near the waters of the sound and the Atlantic Ocean and a few steps from the Depot of the Seacoast Railroad from Wilmington.

Harper's Weekly.

ILLUSTRATED.

HARPER'S WEEKLY has a well-established place as the leading illustrated newspaper in America. The fairness of its editorial comments on current politics has earned for it the respect and confidence of all impartial readers, and the variety and excellence of its literary contents, which include serial and short stories by the best and most popular writers fit it for the perusal of people of the widest range of tastes and pursuits. The WEEKLY supplements are of remarkable variety, interest, and value. No expense is spared to bring the highest order of artistic ability to bear upon the illustration of the changeful phases of home and foreign history. A Mexican romance, from the pen of THOMAS A. JANYVIER, will appear in the WEEKLY in 1890.

Scribner's Magazine

For 1890.

The publishers of SCRIBNER'S MAGAZINE aim to make it the most popular and enterprising of periodicals, while at all times preserving its high literary character. 25,000 new readers have been drawn to it during the past six months by the increased excellence of its contents (notably the Railway articles), and it closes its second year with a new impetus and an assured success. The illustrations will show some new effects, and nothing to make SCRIBNER'S MAGAZINE attractive and interesting will be neglected.

THE RAILWAY ARTICLES will be continued by several very striking papers; one especially interesting by Ex-Postmaster General Thomas L. James on "The Railway Postal Service."

MR. ROBERT LOUIS STEVENSON'S serial novel "The Master of Ballantrae," will run through the greater part of the year.

A CORRESPONDENCE and collection of manuscript memoirs relating to J. F. Millet and a famous group of modern French Painters will furnish the substance of several articles.

The brief end papers written last year by Robert Louis Stevenson, will be replaced by equally interesting contributions by different famous authors. Mr. Thomas Bailey Aldrich will write the first of them for the January number.

Many valuable LITERARY ARTICLES will appear; a paper on Walter Scott's Method of Work, illustrated from original MSS., a second "Shelt of Old Books," by Mrs. James T. Fields, and many other articles equally noteworthy.

Articles on ART SUBJECTS will be a feature. Papers are arranged to appear by Clarence Cook, E. B. Blasfield, Austin Dobson and many others.

FISHING ARTICLES describing sport in the best fishing grounds will appear. Salmon, Winnish, Bass and Tarpon are the subjects now arranged. The authors are well known sportsmen.

ILLUSTRATED ARTICLES of great variety, touching upon all manner of subjects, travel, biography, description, etc., will appear, but not of the conventional commonplace sort.

Among the most interesting in the list of scientific papers for the year will be a remarkable article by Prof. John Thronbridge, upon the most recent developments and uses of PHOTOGRAPHY.

A class of articles which has proved of special interest will be continued by a group of papers upon ELECTRICITY in its most recent applications, by eminent authorities; a remarkable paper on DEEP MINING, and other interesting papers.

Unique Illustrations.
