CONCERT—Germania Cornet Band.
C. W. YATES—Noted men on the Solid South.

Mr. Warren G. Elliott and his family are at Morehead.

Half-holiday to-morrow—the first we have had in two weeks.

Dr. J. B. Lewis, of Raleigh, is in the city on a professional visit.

Hon. Alfred Rowland, Representative from this district, was in the city yesterday.

Fifty first-class hands wanted to make Pants, by the day or piece. Apply at 122 Market street.

The wholesalers here are looking for a big business next Fall. It will open up lively in August.

A canoe race is one of the attractions at the Hammocks to-morrow. The contestants will be boys.

What about soft-shell crabs? They seem unusually scarce this season. Is the crab breed losing its grip?

The declining powers of old age may be wonderfully recuperated and sustained by the daily use of Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Green corn has sold as low as 10 cents a dozen this week yet the best commands 15 cents, or "two for a quarter."

Rubber Hose, Lawn Mowers and Rakes of the latest and most improved makes are sold by the N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

Fish of all kinds are biting freely in the Sounds now. Parties who go down (or is it up?) toward Topsail report fine sport.

Keep dry and you will keep healthy. Umbrellas, rubber coats, &c., at I. Shrier's, S. E. corner Front and Princess streets.

I am Manufacturer's Agent for Barbed and all kinds of Wire, Combination Wire and Iron Fences. Orders solicited. James I. Metts.

The girls here have not discarded white dresses for street wear, the fashion edicts to the contrary, notwithstanding. Thanks, ma chérie.

We are sorry to hear that Capt. T. W. Whisnant, Superintendent of the Carolina Central Railroad, is quite sick at his home in Charlotte.

Grapes are selling here now at 50 cents a basket, each basket holding about half a peck. This is "an infant industry which needs protection."

Canteloupes are in the flush of the season now—yet in the face of the fact that the crop is good and the supply large the prices continue high.

The hill streets in this city are hard on both man and beast this hot, dry weather. Sawdust is cheap, gentlemen of the jury, and it is better than sand.

There was a splendid rain in this section last night, the cloud coming from the North. It seems to have been pretty general along the line of the W. & W. R. R.

Nor. barque Staut, Jensen, cleared to-day for Hamburg with 4,345 barrels resin and 700 casks spirits, valued at $20,120, shipped by Messrs. Paterson, Downing & Co.

With "Regal" Paint on your house and "Plastico" on your walls, your house will be beautiful and your family happy. Sold by the N. Jacobi Hdw. Co., factory agents.

A large party of white excursionists is expected here this evening over the C. F. & Y. V. R. R. They will remain here until Saturday afternoon when they will leave for their homes.

New Push and Pull Blind Hinges. Looks the blind when opened or closed. Saves labor and cost of putting on inside fastenings, which are not needed with these hinges. Carpenters, it will pay you to examine and use same. N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

Mr. J. A. Brown, of the Island Beach Hotel, at the Hammocks (by the way, why doesn't he call it the Hammocks House?) says that pig fish are finer and fatter and juicier than has been known in years. He has probably served up as many as 20,000 this season and we hope that he may write it 100,000 before October.

Another german at Island Beach Hotel to-morrow night. Prof. Miller's excellent band will render the music.

An excursion train will run from Charlotte to this city over the C. C. R. R. on the 22nd. The party will remain here long enough to take in the encampment.

Col. F. A. Olds, Quartermaster General of the Army of North Carolina, is at Wrightsville with a detail of men making arrangements for the encampment week after next.

Progress.
It is very important in this age of vast material progress that a remedy be pleasing to the taste and to the eye, easily taken, acceptable to the stomach and healthy in its nature and effects. Possessing these qualities, Syrup of Figs is the one perfect laxative and most gentle diuretic known.

Industrial Manufacturing Company.
At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Industrial Manufacturing Company, held last night, officers were elected for the ensuing year as follows:
President—John D. Bellamy, Jr.
Vice President—H. P. West.
Secretary and Treasurer and General Manager—E. F. Johnson.

The Judicial Convention.
At the Convention of this, the Sixth Judicial District, held yesterday afternoon at Kinston, Hon. E. T. Boykin, of Sampson county, was nominated for Judge and Mr. O. H. Allen, of Duplin, was nominated for Solicitor. Both nominations were by acclamation and are a handsome endorsement of the zeal, fidelity and ability with which they have always filled these offices.

"Mouse Trap Play."
Some of the young folks had a pleasant little entertainment last night in the dining room of the hotel at Carolina Beach. It was entitled the "Mouse Trap Play" and it is needless to say that the house was crowded. The participants were Misses Bessie Ford, Gertrude Jenkins, May O'Connor, Lillie Southerland, Deanie Southerland, Lillie Bell Newbury and Master Frank Jenkins. They propose another entertainment for to-morrow night.

Music for the Million.
The Germania Cornet Band will give one of their delightful concerts at Carolina Beach to-morrow evening. There will be also some splendid vocal music on that occasion, several accomplished young ladies from this city taking part in the entertainment. The programme for the Band Concert is as follows:
1. Dashing Beauty, quickstep, Kellor.
2. Forepaugh's Aggregation, overture, Southwell.
3. Pleasant Dreams, serenade, Ripley.
4. Tyro Quickstep, Herndon.
5. Knight Waltzes, Knight.
6. Gladiator March, Sausa.
7. Lotta's Lullaby, Rollinson.
8. Rescue Quickstep.

The boat leaves at 5 o'clock and the fare for the round trip on that boat is 25 cents.

The Rain and the Temperature.
The rainfall here last night was .64 of an inch and the maximum velocity of the wind was 24 miles an hour from the Northeast. There was a decided fall in the temperature and some found blankets comfortable this morning. The minimum temperature during the night was 60. At 8 a. m. the thermometer here recorded 74 degrees, while at 1 p. m. it was 84, ten degrees higher. At Norfolk, Nashville, Knoxville and Cairo the record was 70 degrees; at Boston and Pittsburg it was 60; at Atlantic City 62; at Washington 62; at Lynchburg 66; at Charlotte 76; at Augusta and Savannah 80, and at Atlanta, Charleston, Memphis, New Orleans and Galveston 78. The heaviest rainfall reported for the 24 hours ending at 8 a. m. was 1.38 at Charleston, our record here being the third. Norfolk had .38 and there was probably more or less rain all down the coast from that city to Charleston.

Mucklen's Avoca Salve.
The Best Salve in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Tetter, Chapped Hands, Chilblains, Corns, and all Skin Eruptions, and positively cures Piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box.

Forecasts.
For North Carolina, continued cool and fair weather, except showers near the coast. Local forecasts, from 8 a. m. to-day, for Wilmington and vicinity, fair weather and stationary temperature.

That Yallergerator.
It seems that the alligator that poked his nose out of the water at the foot of Dock street yesterday morning was one which has been kept for some time past in a box on the Sylvan Grove but which escaped early yesterday morning and got overboard. Capt. Harper says that he was not looking for him but for Mr. Hans A. Kure, who was one of the owners. He was not well, his last feed, which was a yaller dog, having disagreed with his stomach, which preferred pickaninies. He therefore wanted to be Kured, or falling that to get some Hans to tow him across the river to his native lair in the classic precincts of Alligator creek.

The Congressional Contest.
The Charlotte News has some figures from various parts of the district relative to the Congressional contest in this district. It says that Cabarrus is solid for Alexander, that Stanley will give him three-fourths of her vote, that Columbus is practically solid (40 to 1) and that even Robeson will be divided. Richmond may perhaps be added to this list as Mr. J. T. LeGrand has withdrawn in favor of Capt. Alexander. The figures from Columbus are correct, much to our surprise, we must confess, as a gentleman who was here yesterday from Whiteville reported that the county is practically solid for Alexander. We doubt, however, the information from Robeson. The township conventions were held there on Tuesday but no reliable news has yet been received, other than that Lumberton township is solid for Rowland. It is rumored that Alexander has carried one or more townships but this rumor has not been confirmed. As for New Hanover we feel sure that a large majority of the vote will be cast for Rowland.

Want to Withdraw.
There seems to be some trouble in the ranks of the Hornets' Nest Riflemen of Charlotte. The News of that city says that they are considering a movement to withdraw from the State Guard and will very likely apply to the Governor for that privilege. The trouble arose over the August encampment. The second encampment is to be held at Wrightsville on August 5th to 12th, inclusive, and some members of the Hornets' Nest Riflemen cannot get away at that time. The Criminal Court falls due at Charlotte then, and this will detain the captain, T. R. Robertson, who is clerk of the court. Several members will be detained as witnesses, while other members, who are clerks, could get off in July, but not in August. The Hornets' Nest wanted to join the first encampment of the first and third regiments, which takes place on July 22nd to 29th, but there are some objections to this. In case they do not attend the August encampment, disbandment is the penalty.

A meeting of the company was held Tuesday night and the general sentiment was that Gov. Fowle be petitioned to detach the Hornets' Nest Riflemen from the State Guard and let it retain its organization as a company under an individual charter.

Wide Awake for July.
The July Wide Awake gives the young people the fun and the sentiment of the month; base ball and Independence celebrations and patriotic reminiscences abound from beginning to end. The frontispiece illustrates "The Little Fifer," a true story by Helen M. Winslow of a little lad of '76, who was missing from his home in Shirley, Mass., and turned up in Washington's camp, where his father found him at last. Mrs. Clara Doty Bates has a true story, too, a capital one, of "Grandfather's Musket," "What's in a Name?" chronicles the trials of a little school girl; "The Freeman's Fourth at the Capitol" describes the first Fourth at Washington after the Emancipation. "An Old Flag" is the famous "starry flag" of Paul Jones and his war ship, the Bon Homme Richard, now owned in the family of one of Jones' lieutenants, at Cottage City.

Mass. "Indian Base-Ball Players" is by one of the Indians graduating from Hampton. "Craps" is a spirited New Orleans story. "Two Wills," will command attention. "How Rebecca Harding Went to School," shows that all "schooling" is not got in the school-room. The extravaganza of "The Quest of the Whipping Boy," continues to be amusing; the Acadian Folk-Lore series is kept up with spirit. "Business Openings for Young Women," relates to a comparatively new "opening," that of "guides," an excellent and entirely practical occupation. But perhaps nothing in the number will be read with more interest than the July section of "The New Senior at Andover;" it concerns the practice of "hazing," and is strongly written. Wide Awake is $2.40 a year. D. Lothrop Co., Publishers, Boston, Mass.

The State's Bonded Debt.
It will be a matter of interest to our people generally to know that by limitation of the Act providing for the funding of the general bonded debt of the State expired July 1st, The State Chronicle says that of the $12,627,000 of old bonds, recognized in the Act, all but about $1,600,000 has been funded with new 4 per bonds, which amount to a little over $3,000,000. It is not known by whom the outstanding bonds are held. The result of the funding is due the general information to bondholders given by the State treasurer through the public press and by circulars; and failure to fund by owners of bonds yet outstanding is due to their own neglect or ignorance of the Act. The Legislature has therefore renewed the funding law from time to time, but it is not certain what the next Legislature will do with reference to a future extension of the law. The State is to be congratulated on the present condition of its public debt. Its 4 per cent bonds now sell for about par, and its 6 per cent bonds are in demand at 126.
