Is the Chaplain Doing His Duty?
 A story is going the rounds now which would indicate every opportunity for Sabbath school missionary work among the members of the house. The other day Candler and Grimes, of Georgia, got into an argument in regard to early religious training. Grimes claimed that the religious precepts taught in youth were never forgotten, and that the catechism and verses of scripture then committed to memory could be repeated years after.

"I'll tell you what I'll do, Grimes," said Candler. "I'll bet you $10 even that there isn't a man in this house can repeat the ten commandments without making a mistake."
 "I'll just go you," said Grimes. "Settle your men," and the money was put up.
 Mr. Candler said he would select Representative Breckinridge, of Kentucky, and Representative Wilson, of West Virginia, both blue stocking Presbyterians. Mr. Breckinridge was called in first and the bet stated. The silver tongued orator of Kentucky studied a moment and then said: "Gentlemen, I can't repeat the Ten Commandments without a mistake." Mr. Wilson was then applied to, but the college professor was also compelled to admit that his memory was defective on that subject. He got even with Candler, however, by saying: "I am willing to bet $10 that I could have repeated any nursery rhyme, and Candler would not have been able to tell the difference between it and the Ten Commandments."—Pittsburg Commercial Gazette.

Boring for Honey.
 A successful boring for honey has been made in north Tennessee. For many years swarms of bees have been noticed by boatmen at Fox Bluff, on the Cumberland river, near Franklin, Ky. The bluff is 170 feet high, and the river's channel runs directly under it. The bees have been observed about a big fissure near the center of the bluff, and the opening could not be reached from above or below without great danger of being stung to death. As the bees had never been robbed, it was thought a large amount of honey was stored in the cliff. Recently a well borer named Starks visited the bluff and was at once impressed with the idea that he could reach the wonderful honey storehouse with his drill. After some coaxing he persuaded a number of farmers to undergo the expense, and a three inch hole was bored from the top of the bluff. At a depth of eighty-five feet the drill struck the honey. According to a dispatch barrels and tubs by the score were filled and carried off to neighboring farms, and the syndicate has sent to Louisville for more receptacles.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Three Presidents' Sons.
 By a rather singular coincidence, as the son of President Garfield departed from a banking institution the son of another president entered it. Neither of the young men knew the other by sight, and neither of them was aware that they were near enough to exchange greetings had they been acquainted. The other son of a president was U. S. Grant, who is leading a very quiet and retired life in this city. He is almost diffident and shy in his dealings with men, but he grows very greatly to resemble his father. Another ex-president's son lives in New York, although he spends much of his time in Europe. This is young Alan Arthur, whose tastes are social and whose acquirements are those of a refined and cultured man of the world, rather than in the direction of political tastes such as distinguished his father.—New York Cor. Philadelphia Press.

A New Japanese Order.
 A new order has just been instituted by the mikado of Japan to commemorate the 2,555th anniversary of the coronation of Jimmu Tenno, the semi-mythical first sovereign of Japan. This order is to be called the order of the Golden Falcon, and is for military merit only. Divided into seven classes, the insignia for the first four are to be of gold, and for the three others of silver. A straight two edged sword with a jeweled hilt forms the axis of the design, and perched on the hilt thereof is a falcon with extended wings.—Cor. Chicago News.

Speculation Even in Farming.
 Some persons are of the opinion that there is more or less speculation in every business transaction. A Long Island farmer, the other day, carried his peas to the Gansevoort market in this city. He got just twenty cents a bushel for them. He had paid forty cents a bushel to farm hands for the bare cost of picking them. Had this farmer arrived four days sooner he would have got $1.25 a bushel. When he arrived the market was well supplied by other farmers.—Epoch.

Parental Caution.
 Giddy Daughter—Got his conge, papa. He's only a plumber, and it was a dreadfully mild winter, you know.
 W. P.—Good heavens! Rash girl, you must win him back. He has just engaged in the ice business.—Pittsburg Bulletin.

She Seemed to Mean It.
 A young lady went to the Museum of Fine Arts the other day for the first time, and in walking through the Grecian room she uttered this cry of the heart: "Oh, how I envy these statues their life!"—Boston Transcript.

Searen, a Parisian, who made millions out of the Panama canal, has gone to Egypt in the interest of the project to convert the desert of Sahara into an inland sea, and if the public isn't alert he may make millions out of this scheme also.

Only a Word
 A word—and the skies grow darker;
 A word—and the clouds roll high;
 A word—and the soul lies stricken,
 And hurt hearts grieve and sigh.

A word—and the skies would brighten;
 A word—and the clouds would fly;
 A word—and the soul find healing,
 And hurt hearts cease to sigh.

Oh, word, ere too late, be spoken!
 Let the threshold of silence be crossed,
 Ere the thread of thy fate be broken
 And thy chance forever be lost!
 —Mark F. Griswold.

Epoch.
 The transition from long, lingering and painful sickness to robust health marks an epoch in the life of the individual. Such a remarkable event is treasured in the memory and the agency whereby the good health has been attained is gratefully blessed. Hence it is that so much is heard in praise of Electric Bitters. So many feel they owe their restoration to health to the use of the Great Alterative and Tonic. If you are troubled with any disease of Kidneys, Liver, or Stomach of long or short standing you will surely find relief by the use of Electric Bitters. Sold at 50c. and $1 per bottle at Robt. R. Bellamy's wholesale and retail drug store.

JULY JUMBLES.
 "You still write to Harvey Le Beau!"
 "No; but I had to write this time, as my engagement was naturally a surprise to him. This being promised to two men at once is awful awkward."

No more we'll stand beside the bar
 And take a festive drink;
 But by the soda water fount
 We'll take it with a wink.

Tommy—I bought this dog to make money out of him. Sister's Beau—How is that? Tommy—I expect that you will give me a dime for tying him up every time you come to see my sister. He's awful savage.

"I will meet," quoth the lover,
 "Meet you when 'pale Cynthia' shines."
 But, alas! he met her father
 With a pair of number nines.

"I see that a soda water trust is talked of," remarked a Pittsburger to his best girl, as they quaffed the sweet atmosphere. "Ah," she replied; "then if they would only trust us for an ice-cream-ty, how nice it would be."

"Just as good."

Say some dealers who try to sell a substitute preparation when a customer calls for Hood's Sarsaparilla. Do not allow any such false statements as this to induce you to buy what you do not want. Remember that the only reason for making it is that a few cents more profit will be made on the substitute. Insist upon having the best medicine—Hood's Sarsaparilla. It is Peculiar to Itself.

Porter—Ten cents for carrying baggage. Traveller—But I didn't have any baggage. Porter—That's your lookout. The rules says, Collect ten cents for carrying baggage and I want it.

Consumption Surely Cured.
 TO THE EDITOR—Please inform your readers that I have a positive remedy for the above named disease. By its timely use thousands of hopeless cases have been permanently cured. I shall be glad to send two bottles of my remedy FREE to any of your readers who have consumption if they will send me their express and post office address. Respectfully, T. A. SLOCUM, M.C., 181 Pearl St., New York.

'Tis now the festive druggist's clerk
 Courts some old man's fair daughter,
 And tries her maiden heart to win
 With lemon soda water.

Advice to Mothers.
 MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for teething or other causes. Twenty five cents a bottle. July 6 dead wlv
