VOL. XIV.

WILMINGTON, N. C., FRIDAY, AUGUST 15, 1890.

NO 207.

It is a matter of tradition in Japan that fruit grows upon the bamboo when there is to be a famine in that country. This year bamboo trees are bearing fruit.

According to the statistics of illiteracy that have been gathered in Louisiana, the percentage of the colored voters who are unable to read and write is less than that of the whites.

Popular subscriptions to a monument in honor of Alexander H. Stephens are solicited in Georgia. He is to have a bronze statue representing him in later life as he appeared in Congress.

The complete enumeration gives Memphis 62,329 population. The city had 33,000 in 1880; it has added some 13,000 by annexation, therefore the actual gain is 15,329 or not quite 50 per cent.

The Pennsylvania Railroad has 115 trains arriving and the same number depart from the Broad street station, Philadelphia, on Sunday. On week days 225 trains arrive and 236 depart from this station.

The Toronto Mail kindly quiet the anxiety which has been felt to know "what Blaine is after." Blaine is to run for the Presidency in 1892, the Mail says, and proposes to run as a hayseed candidate, under the management of the Farmer's Alliance.

Emperor William, of Germany, has bought an estate near Metz, it is supposed for political reasons. He wished to show the citizens of the annexed provinces that he belonged to them, and to make it fashionable among old German families to own places in the district.

Tolstoi, the Russian novelist, says he cannot understand the popularity of Bellamy's Looking Backward. He sees nothing new in the book and considers it a very flimsy told story. He says that every idea in Looking Backward is stolen from Carl Marx's Kapital.

A planter in Alpharetta, Ga., has an acre of cotton, every stalk of which is of a deep red color, leaf, boll and bloom. This novel crop is the product of seed three years ago from two stalks of red cotton found in a cotton field. There is a fortune in this new variety if it can be perpetuated.

Seventy-nine persons in Great Britain pay tax on incomes exceeding £50,000 per annum. The total aggregate amount of incomes thus assessed exceeds £8,000,000 sterling. In Ireland there is only one taxpayer whose income exceeds £50,000. He is returned at the rate of £76,349, and he last year contributed to the imperial revenues the sum of £1,908.

The Daily Champion, of Atchison, Kansas, founded by and edited by the late Governor, John A. Martin, has come out squarely for free trade. For thirty years it has been a stalwart Republican organ, and the active defender of the protective idea. While still retaining its Republican principles, it says that the West has no use for protection. "The Western farmer," it says, "has no interest whatever in the protective tariff. His interests lie in the direction of free trade and access to all markets wherever his products may be in demand."

A genuine boomerang is the Force bill. It has the distinguished honor of splitting the Republican caucus and of pitting Senators Hoar and Quay against each other. Matt Q. wants to go home and so has introduced a resolution to vote on the Tariff bill on the 30th inst., and Hoar is opposed to a vote on anything unless he can get some guarantee from his colleagues that the Force bill is called up this session. Quay is backed by some 15 Republican Senators who don't want the Force bill to come before the Senate for action at this session, and so the matter stands. As it is, it is hard to predict the result, but the best informed men about Washington seem to think that Quay will down Hoar in the contest and that the Force bill has already been buried so deep in committee that it will not see the light at this session.

"Why, now I cannot get enough to eat," says one lady who formerly had no appetite, but took Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Canada claims to be larger by 500,000 square miles than the United States, including Alaska.

Thirteen steamships, two barques, one brig and one hundred and one schooners arrived at New York on Wednesday.

The steamship Teutonic, of the White Star line, is now dubbed "The Queen of the Atlantic." She arrived in New York on Wednesday after the most remarkable run yet made across the big pond. Her record is 5 days, 19 hours and 5 minutes, which is 13 minutes less than the best record. The City of New York left at the same time as the Teutonic and came in three hours behind her.

Capt. E. J. Pennypacker, we are pleased to hear, is reported as better to-day.

There was a slight sprinkling of rain here last night but not enough to lay the dust.

More sultry weather to-day. Wind from the Southwest and thermometer 82 at 12 o'clock.

Why don't the truckers send in some Irish potatoes? The market is almost entirely bare now.

Fifty first-class hands wanted to make Pants, by the day or piece. Apply at 122 Market street.

Music, dancing and fireworks to-night at Carolina Beach, to say nothing of a good fish supper.

Promptly at 1 o'clock to-day the doors were closed, and it was Sunday afternoon on the streets.

In this section all but the late corn has been stripped of its fodder and the crop is surely made.

Keep dry and you will keep healthy. Umbrellas, rubber coats, &c., at I. Shrier's, S. E. corner Front and Princess streets.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Herbert Smith have returned from their European tour and are now quietly domiciled at Greenville Sound.

I am Manufacturer's Agent for Barbed and all kinds of Wire, Combination Wire and Iron Fences. Orders solicited. James I. Metts.

With "Regal" Paint on your house and "Plastico" on your walls, your house will be beautiful and your family happy. Sold by the N. Jacobi Hdw. Co., factory agents.

The Rutherfordton excursionists leave for home this evening. They made many pleasant acquaintances during their short stay here and we will all be glad to see them again.

The Wilson Advance says that the Wilson Light Infantry "thoroughly enjoyed their trip to Wrightsville and the Encampment." Again we request the Goldsboro Argus to copy.

Col. E. D. Hall has been appointed, on behalf of the State of North Carolina, a commissioner to the National Prison Association to be held in Cincinnati on the 25th of September.

A great many of the excursionists who are here went down on the Passport this morning for a trip to Southport and a short run outside. The Rutherfordton band accompanied them.

Large crowds went down the river this morning. The Grove carried about 300 to Carolina Beach, on the excursion given by the ladies of Bladen Street M. E. Church, and the Passport went down to Southport, and for a run to sea, with her decks covered with people.

We have it now. A Pump that is always primed, never requiring a tub of water to start it. It is the bright invention of a North Carolina genius and is pronounced by all to be the best pump on the market. See it and you will have no other. N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

The train leaving Front Street depot over the Wilmington Seacoast Railroad at 12:50 p. m., and the Hammoaks at 1:45 p. m., is discontinued. The train leaving the Hammoaks at 8 p. m. on Sundays will leave here after at 6 p. m. Freight is now taken on the 6:45 a. m. and 2:50 p. m. trains.

The Rutherfordton excursionists took in points of interest on the Seacoast Railroad and the Ocean View Railroad yesterday. There were probably a thousand people on the beach yesterday afternoon.

New Push and Pull Blind Hinges. Locks the blind when opened or closed. Saves labor and cost of putting on inside fastenings, which are not needed with these hinges. Carpenters; it will pay you to examine and use same. N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

The alarm of fire at 6:30 o'clock last evening from box No. 21, was caused by fire in a back room on the second floor of the Wessell building, nearly opposite Front Street Market. The damage was trifling; the fire was extinguished before the Fire Department arrived.

Next Wednesday is the day for the gathering of the Knights of Pythias in this city. It will be a notable assemblage. Mr. Iredell Meares will deliver the address of welcome at Carolina Beach on behalf of the lodges in this city. Addresses will also be delivered by various parties, Rev. Dr. Creasy, of this city, and Rev. C. W. Byrd, of Fayetteville, among the number.

The Mission Services.
Yesterday's Goldsboro Argus says: "It has been a long time since a preacher has so soon made himself a popular favorite in Goldsboro as has Rev. C. L. Arnold, now conducting the mission in St. Stephens Episcopal Church. His sermons are all extemporaneous, and are earnest and eloquent. Increasing congregations are greeting him at every service, and especially are the members of St. Stephen's congregation attending the services with exemplary zeal, many of them who cannot do otherwise closing their places of business during the hours of service in order to attend. Mr. Arnold is now holding three services a day; at 11 o'clock in the morning, 5 o'clock in the afternoon, and at 8.15 in the evening. The solo and choir singing is very fine. At all services the public are welcome and are cordially invited."

Suicide of a Young Colored Man.
William Screven, generally known as "Cuffee," who has been employed as a porter in Messrs. W. H. Green & Co.'s drug store for several years past, died late last evening from the effects of laudanum, evidently taken with a suicidal intent. He left the store about half-past 2 o'clock and repaired to the kitchen in rear of Mr. O. G. Parsley's residence, on North Front street, near Mulberry, to see a colored woman by the name of Henrietta Hall. He found her in company with another woman, named Sarah Hill, and to the two he confessed that he had taken two tablespoonfuls of laudanum. They would not believe him at first but when some time after he fell asleep and breathed heavily they called in Dr. Jewett, who saw at once that the man was under a stupor. Dr. Green was also called from his drug store and an attempt was made to use the stomach pump but it was too late and despite of all efforts the man died about half-past 5 o'clock. Screven was a young man, about 30 years old, and unmarried. He came here some years ago from Sumter, S. C., and bore a good reputation. There is no known motive for the deed.

Coroner Jacobs held an inquest over the remains this morning, when the above facts were offered in evidence. The jury rendered a verdict to the effect that the deceased came to his death from an overdose of laudanum.

There are some who think that Screven did not intend to kill himself but that he took the laudanum with the view of frightening the women and getting up a sensation, believing that they would make known the fact in time to save his life, as witness his voluntary statement to them that he had taken the poison.

Ladies Who Use Face Powders.
To neutralize the injurious effect of any powder or liquid, use "LEAURELLE OIL." If the powder is used at night, apply "LEAURELLE" in day time; if during day apply it at night, or first bathe the neck and face with "LEAURELLE OIL," then apply the powder. The effect is most elegant. Keeps skin soft, smooth and pliable. $1.00 at Druggists, or prepaid by express. E. S. Wells, Jersey City, N. J.

The State Convention.
The Democratic State Convention meets in Raleigh on Wednesday next the 20th inst. The usual reduced rates will be granted on all railroads. Tickets at all points in the State will be on sale August 18th, 19th and 20th, good to return until and including the 25th.

The Ladies Delighted.
The pleasant effect and the perfect safety with which ladies may use the liquid fruit laxative, Syrup of Figs, under all conditions make it their favorite remedy. It is pleasing to the eye and to the taste, gentle, yet effectual in acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels.

Peterson's Magazine.
Peterson for September opens with a beautiful engraving "A Letter from Home," and the full page wood illustration "In the Sunset," is a poem as well as a picture. The illustrated paper "A Giant Grass and Its Uses" is very amusing, and gives much useful information in regard to bamboo, also various designs of the pretty and artistic furniture made from it. "Ransom's Aimless Journey," by James K. Reeve, is a wonderfully realistic episode and Alice Maud Ewell follows it with the first instalment of "Jackey and the Princess" which promises to be a capital novelet. "Autumn Leaves" is a seasonable paper, giving clear directions for preserving their brightness unimpaired. "Their Mutual Mistakes," by Frank Lee Benedict, will afford all the more pleasure because of the happy ending. The other stories are full of interest. "Things Worth Knowing" contains an excellent article on "Choosing Meats." The household department is overflowing with good recipes and suggestions, and the fashion and needlework designs will delight the ladies. Terms, $2 a year. Address Peterson's Magazine, Philadelphia.

Blood Diseases.
Blood diseases are terrible on account of their loathsome nature, and the fact that they wreck the constitution so completely unless the proper antidote is applied. B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm) is composed of the true antidote for blood poison. Its use never fails to give satisfaction.
Mrs. Laura Hart, Beaufort, S. C., writes: "A loathsome form of blood poison was killing me. My appetite was lost, my bones ached, and parts of my flesh seemed as if it would come off my bones. A friend brought me a bottle of B. B. B. The sores began healing at once, and when I had taken two bottles I surprised my friends at my rapid recovery."
W. A. Bryant, Moody, Tex., writes: "I had an agonizing case of Salt Rheum for four years, which medicine I took only seemed to aggravate until I found B. B. B. It cured my hand, which resembles a burnt surface. It also cured my two children of itch, which had resisted previous treatment."
