The partisan Associated Press sent out a badly garbled report of the Radical row in the House on Wednesday. The half was not told. It was one of the most disgraceful scenes ever represented on the floor of that chamber. It was aptly caused by the discussion of the hog's lard bill and the hogs certainly came to the rescue of the lard. Reed, of course, came to Cannon's rescue and with no more regard for decency than he generally exhibits, let the dirty fellow down exceedingly easy.
It was manifestly a foul, partisan ruling, one made in defiance of all of the dictates of decency and common parliamentary usage. Cannon's language was so filthy, even with a gallery full of ladies, that the New York Herald, which is generally not over-sensitive, declined to pollute its columns with it. The Herald editorially calls upon Cannon to withdraw from public life and says: "This is the only reparation the member can make. He can no longer have a useful position in any public station, nor should he be permitted in the society of gentlemen. With a bully in the Speaker's chair, insensible to any considerations but party success, and black-guards on the floor, it is about time that the House adjourned and went home. It would be a relief to an angry and disgusted country."

Gen. John M. Palmer, Democratic nominee for United States Senator in Illinois, has declined to engage in joint debate with Congressman Wm.
E. Mason, of Chicago. Gen. Palmer says he will gladly engage in debate with any Republican who may be put forward by his party for the Senatorship.

Philadelphia came out much better the past year in the business of furnishing gas than is usually the case. Out of total receipts of $3,- 658,000, a net balance of over $1,000,- 000 remains, the city besides getting its gas free and some $200,000 having been expended in a new plant.

An English firm has purchased the right to slaughter and pack 300,000 hogs a year in Serbia.

Merit wins, as the marvelous success of Hood's Sarsaparilla shows.
It possesses true medicinal merit.

very pretty sand clam, which is softer and more succulent than the mud clams with which we have been so long acquainted.

The disagreeable weather to-day, with the wind and rain of last night is due to a cyclone disturbance in the Southwest. We may have more of it to-morrow and Sunday.

John T. Kennedy, the absconding postoffice clerk, who was arrested in New Orleans, arrived here last evening and is now confined in the county jail, where he will await his trial.

Schr Phebe, Medero, cleared to-

The bills are up for the first theatrical event of the season. McCarty's Mishaps is the piece and it will be presented here next Thursday night.
It was here last season and it was a good thing and drew well.

Mr. Wm. McSweeney, engineer on the W. & W. R. R., who has been on a visit to relatives in "the land o' cakes", returned to the city last night, looking well and hearty and ready for a long run or a short haul at any hour of the day or night.

Notwithstanding the disagreeable weather there was a good crowd on the Grove this morning as she steamed out from her dock on the excursion given by Cherokee Tribe No. 9, I. O.
R. M. Many will go down this afternoon if the rain will only hold up.

New Push and Pull Blind Hinges.

closed. Saves labor and cost of putting on inside fastenings, which are not needed with these hinges. Carpenters, it will pay you to examine

We have it now. A Pump that is always primed, never requiring a tub of water to start it. It is the bright invention of a North Carolina genius and is pronounced by all to be the best pump on the market.
See it and you will have no other.
N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

The heavy rains we had here last night extended well up the line of the W. & W. R. R. They were very severe at Burgaw where some washouts occurred and it is probable that some of the small streams will get pretty full. No damage to the crops seems to be apprehended, however.

Attention is invited to the card of Messrs. I. T. & G. F. Alderman, as published in this issue. This is a well known produce and commission house and one which has made scores of staunch friends by square dealing and prompt returns. They will reach out this Fall and expect to embrace a much larger extent of territory than ever before.

A Close Call.

William Boone, colored, who lives in the southern part of the city, stepped from the train on the Ocean View R. R. last night, just at the drawer in the trestle. He thought he would step on the platform, but he didn't, and the first thing he knew he was floundering in the water. The tide was running out pretty fast at the time and carried him to a sand bar north of the drawer, where he was rescued in an exhausted condition. He was taken on board of the Seacoast train and a number of gentlemen worked faithfully on him all of the way to the city, finally succeeding in restoring him to consciousness. But it was a near shave.

A Safe Remedy.

When a person is sick they wish more than aught else a restoration of health. They are willing to take even nauseous medicine in order to get well. With many, however, a first consideration is whether the medicine is perfectly safe. Will it or will it not leave any evil after-effects? Now, there is one remedy known to be certainly safe. It is a botanical discovery, and it is called Botanic Blood Balm, or B B B. It will not harm the most delicate constitution, nor will a discontinuance cause a craving for its further use.
It is a sure antidote for poison in the blood. The blood becomes poisoned in various ways. Constipation, urinary difficulties and other causes of effete matter remaining in the system will cause blood impurity, or blood poison, as many call it. Symptoms of blood poison should not be neglected. B B B should be taken at once. It will cure promptly, and is not bad to take, nor will it leave any evil after-effects.

J. D. Watkins, Blakely, Ga., writes:
"Old sores covered my entire person and itched intensely night and day.
For several months I could not work at all. I commenced the use of Botanic Blood Balm and began to grow better the first week, and am now sound and well, free from sores and itching and at work again."

Forecasts.

For North Carolina, threatening weather and rain, cooler in the southeast and stationary temperature in the northwest portion.

Local forecasts from 8 a. m. today, for Wilmington and vicinity, showers and slightly cooler weather.

To Dispel Colds,

Headaches and Fevers, to cleanse the system effectually, yet gently, when costive or bilious, or when the blood is impure or sluggish, to permanently cure habitual constipation, to awaken the kidneys and liver to a healthy activity, without irritating or weakening them, use Syrup of Figs.

They'll Get One Leg Out.

Glowing reports of the crops continue to reach us. In Duplin county and especially near Wallace, they are represented as particularly fine.
The official report for North Carolina is now 99 for corn and 102 for cotton and it is probable that she will lead all of her Southern sisters, if not all of the States in the Union, in these two products. Our people ought to be happy this year. It bids fair to be a jubilee year for the farmers. Corn, flour and all breadstuffs have advanced while meat is at about the same prices. They will sell corn and wheat and buy some meat and they ought, therefore, to harvest a little money this year and get at least one leg out of the slough of despond and debt.

"Room Boys, Room by the Light of the Moon."

There was some pretty moonlight last night when the clouds had rolled by, and it is hoped that there will be lots more of it to-night. The best chance of taking it in will be either at Carolina Beach, where an extensive display of fireworks is to take place, or on Wrightsville Beach, where an old fox is to be let loose among the sand dunes and is expected to furnish some rare sport.
At all events it can be said, in the language of the mortal bard:
"Room boys, room by the light of the moon
Why can't every man enjoy his own room?
Enjoy his own room by the light of the moon—
Why cannot every man enjoy his own room?"

More Than 20 Feet.

It is in evidence that there is now more than a clear 20 feet of water on the Cape Fear bar, with 18 feet from the city to the bar. The Southport Leader tells us that the Swedish barque Naomi passed out last Sunday drawing 19 feet and 3 inches, without touching, and on a tide which lacked an hour of being full.
This is equivalent to her passing out drawing exactly 20 feet on a full tide. This is easily estimated as the rise of tide is 4 1/2 feet. The Naomi went down to Southport drawing 17 1/2 feet and the balance of her cargo was lightened to her there. Her draught, when loaded, was the largest which has ever yet passed out of the Cape Fear river.

The Naomi cleared for Wolgast, Ger., on the 19th inst., by Messrs. J.
T. Riley & Co., with 417,620 feet lumber.

We Rise to Explain.

While dredging in the river yesterday in front of the Champion Compress docks, Capt. Edgar Williams brought to the surface parts of an old wreck embedded in the mud. It is evidently quite an ancient affair as very little iron seems to have been used in its construction. There is considerable speculation as to how it got there and what it was but we think that the explanation is easy.
Not far from the spot where it was discovered there was formerly a shoal which stood midway in the river between what was then the wharf of the W. & W. R. R. passenger depot and the Point Peter side of the river. In recent years the wharf had been extended out to the shoals.
To these shoals in the ante-bellum days wrecked vessels were occasionally towed and scuttled and abandoned there. It is not at all unlikely, if indeed, it is not probable, that one of these wrecks became gradually shifted from its position by the force of the tide and of freshets and finally became permanently embedded in the mud in the spot where it was found yesterday. We remember, when a boy, to have seen a dismantled wreck (we think the vessel had been burned) on the shoals we have alluded to.

One of the Real Old Kind.

A genuine old fashioned "banks party" was giving at the Carolina Yacht Club House last night, on Wrightsville Beach, "by the light of the moon." It was one of the real old kind. The hosts were the members of the Carolina Yacht Club and the affair was under the management of Messrs. Norwood Giles and J. McRee Cowan. There was a large attendance of fair ladies and gallant gentlemen, dancing and refreshments. Prof. Miller's band furnished the music. In all, it was voted one of the most delightful affairs on record.
