SYRUP OF FIGS

ONE ENJOYS
the method and results when of Figs is taken; it is pleasant to the taste, and acts promptly on the kidneys, and bowels, cleanses the system, dispels colds, headaches and cures habitual constipation. Syrup of Figs is the most pleasant and truly beneficial preparation of its kind ever produced. It is pleasant to the taste and actively beneficial in its action. Prepared only from the most pure and agreeable substances, it has made it the most reliably known.

There were 2,650 farm mortgages foreclosed in Kansas during the first six months of this year and they represent an indebtedness of over $2,300,000. The farmers of Kansas are naturally wondering where their profits come in under our scheme of protection.

Women are coming to the front in business life. There are nearly 15, 000 of them engaged as commercial travelers in the United States. The demand for women to do clerical and office work increases all the while, and they are better paid for their work now than ever before.

"Without protection," said Secretary Blaine, in his Waterville speech, "the United States would have been poor, indeed, after the ravages of the war from 1861 to 1865." "The best answer to this gratuitous assumption," says the Philadelphia Record, "is the fact of the country's prosperity during nearly fifteen years of free trade, which preceded the war of 1861. It was the abundant resources accumulated in that period of free trade prosperity which enabled both sections of the country to carry on a wasteful war for four years."

The only State that has been absolutely uniform in its Congressional representation is Rhode Island. It had two members under the first census and the same number ever since. It is bound to remain in the same category another ten years. Its population in 1880 was 276,531, and it is now 328,000. There is a variation which precludes change, whatever basis of representation may be adopted. Delaware has always had just one, except that under the third census it had two. These are the only constant quantities in the entire category.

Here is a story about Secretary Blaine and the now famous cottage at Mosquito Point, Cape May, the truth of which is vouched for by a gentleman to whom Mr. Curtis related the incident. One evening, during Mr. Blaine's visit to the President, he and William E. Curtis, the special agent of the State Department, were walking on the beach.
Suddenly Mr. Blaine stopped, looked at the cottage a few moments, and exclaimed, with a peculiar smile on his face: "Curtis, if ever anybody gives me a cottage like that I'll either decline it or go down myself."

That tired feeling now so often heard of, is entirely overcome by Hood's Sarsaparilla, which gives mental and bodily strength.

THE DAILY REVIEW

VOL. XIV.

WILMINGTON, N. C., MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 8, 1890.

NO 227.

Death has an odd way of picking out its victims. A traveller went quietly to bed in a Pennsylvania town last Monday night, and before morning a locomotive, off the track, ran into the house and killed him as he slept.

The latest reports from Saratoga are to the effect that Dr. Hoge is making satisfactory progress towards recovery and it is hoped that he will soon be able to return to Wilmington.

The woods around the city are just beautiful now. In fact, they are "gloriously resplendent" with millions of beautiful flowers and grasses. "Go call them while you may."

Rev. Chas. T. Coerr, Rector of St.
Mark's Church, returned to the city on Saturday night from an extended visit to friends in the North and East, looking, we are pleased to note, greatly improved in health.

Mr. Martin T. Davis, in ad. published in this issue, offers for rent a number of dwelling houses, among them one on Mulberry street, between Fifth and Sixth, with 9 rooms and all modern conveniences.

The tax books for the collection of State and county taxes for the year 1890 have been placed in the Sheriff's hands. Prompt payment is required as all property on which the taxes are unpaid will be levied upon December 1st, and sold in January.

The regular Republicans ridicule the idea of a bolters' ticket. Some say that there was no meeting the other night and others that if there was one it didn't amount to a row of pins. It isn't our funeral and we are therefore not specially interested.

penters, it will pay you to examine

Saturday's Goldsboro Dispatch says: Mr. C. N. Brewer, of Wilmington, unfortunately lost his pocket book on the train this morning. He and his wife fortunately had tickets through to Newbern or he might have been seriously inconvenienced.

We have it now. A Pump that is always primed, never requiring a tub of water to start it. It is the bright invention of a North Carolina genius and is pronounced by all to be the best pump on the market.
See it and you will have no other.
N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

Yesterday was like Saturday, almost insufferably warm for the season, but during the early morning hours to-day the wind got around to the North and a more pleasant condition of affairs is the result. We are booked for cooler weather during the balance of the week.

Ten more lots at Carolina Beach have been sold recently and on these cottages are to be erected by the first of next June. The purchasers are parties from Wilson, Fayetteville and South Carolina. An electric light plant will soon be needed. The water works are already there.

Another of those delightful, old-fashioned banks parties will be given at the Carolina Yacht Club House, on Wrightsville Beach, tomorrow night. There will be music, dancing and refreshments. The train will leave here at 8 o'clock and will leave the beach on the return at midnight.

Last Grand Excursion.

The Grand Masonic Excursion to be given on Friday next, for the benefit of the Oxford Orphan Asylum, will be the last of the season as the Grove will go "out of commission" in a few days thereafter. It promises to be a memorable affair and therefore everybody should go.
There will be music and refreshments on board and it is probable that the Arion Quartette Club will entertain the occasion with some of their best selections. The managers, Messrs. Jas. W. Monroe, J. M. For-shoe and C. C. Brown, will spare no pains to make it a delightful occasion to all who may attend.

For North Carolina, fair weather and stationary temperature, followed on Tuesday by rain and cooler weather.

Local forecasts from 8 a. m. today, for Wilmington and vicinity, fair to-day, followed by rain to-morrow and cooler weather.

The Meeting at Masonboro.

The series of meetings in the Baptist Church at Masonboro closed yesterday afternoon, having been kept up throughout the entire week.
The result has been highly gratifying. There was a large attendance at the services yesterday morning and thirteen persons were baptized by the pastor, Rev. H. M. Croom, and formally received into the church.

The Mild September.

The Summer is dead, it is true, but the two most delightful months of the year on the coast are at hand now. This is the most pleasant as well as the healthiest season of the year. We are subject to no extremes of either heat or cold but nature is in an equable mood. The days are (or ought to be) pleasantly warm and the nights just cool enough for refreshing sleep. It is the best season of the year, also, for invalids, as well as for those in robust health.

Weekly Weather Crop Bulletin.

The weather during the week ending Saturday last has been very favorable for farm operations nearly everywhere. The early part of the week was cloudy with occasional showers, the precipitation being below the average except in the northeastern portion of the State, where it was in excess. The latter part of the week has been quite warm with plenty of sunshine. Cotton is generally opening well and picking is progressing rapidly. The tobacco crop seems to be a very good one; the week was very favorable for making good cures, and farmers have been unusually successful. Land is being prepared for winter oats and wheat and some have already commenced to sow. A few reports indicate some danger to cotton from rust and shedding.

Death of Dr. Saunders.

We regret very much to learn of the death of Dr. R. B. Saunders, brother to Col. Wm. L. Saunders, Secretary of State, and a gentleman well known to many in this city.
He died at his residence in Durham on Saturday evening after a long illness, in the 57th year of his age.
Dr. Saunders was connected with the Raleigh Observer when it was under the control of Col. Saunders and the late Mr. Peter M. Hale. His contributions on agriculture formed one of the most excellent features of that paper. He was a learned and skilful pharmacist and a practical chemist. His health failed a year ago and he has since then been a great sufferer. He was a gallant, noble gentleman, true to every honorable and manly instant. Life's fitful fever is over and he sleeps well.

District and County Conventions.

The Democratic Senatorial Convention for the Thirteenth district met at Elizabethtown, Bladen county, on Saturday last. Mr. C. C. Lyon was chairman and Mr. R. S. White secretary. Mr. R. P. Allen, merchant and farmer, was nominated for the State Senate by acclamation.
The county convention was also held Saturday, and it was one of the largest and most enthusiastic ever assembled. Mr. I. N. Kelly was chairman and Messrs. A. M.
McNeill and K. B. Council were secretaries. The nominees are as follows:

Clerk of Court—G. F. McIvin.
Sheriff—W. S. Clark.
Register of Deeds—W. J. McKay.
Treasurer—J. M. Benson.
Surveyor—A. A. Troy.
Coroner—J. A. Register.
Dr. M. McI. Tatum, an Alliance man, was nominated for the Legislature.

Senator Vance was enthusiastically endorsed and instructed for. Perfect harmony prevailed.

A Very Bad Fall.

A little lad, four years of age, by the name of Eddie Paul, son of Mr.
Paul, fell yesterday afternoon from his parents' residence, in the Wessell building, on Second street, near Market, and sustained some very severe injuries. He fell from the second story of the building to the pavement below, a distance of 13 feet, and dislocated his shoulder and fractured his skull. For a while it was feared that the child could not recover but we are glad to be able to state that it is somewhat better to-day.
