Messrs. Smith & Boatwright to day paid over to the heirs of the late Dr. Thos. B. Carr, through Mr. W. H. Carr, $1,000 in payment of a policy held by Dr. Carr in the old North State Life Insurance Co. The policy was paid by the Virginia Life Insurance Co., who bought out the North State some years ago and of which Messrs. Smith & Boatwright are the agents in this city.

Democratic Ratly.

There will be a meeting Friday evening, the 19th inst., at 8 o'clock in the city court room. All Demo-crats of New Hanover county are invited to be present. Business of importance is to come up for action. A Central Democratic Club is to be organized for the coming election; also delegates to represent this county in the grand rally to come off in Raleigh on the 24th and 25th insts., will be elected to represent this Democratic Club.

Later on in the sea son, when the sun does'nt rise until 7 o'cock, 4 o'clock will be more than two hours before day. At the present time we understand that some of the butchers are at the market house as early as two o'clock, preparing for the day's work.

The Sam Jones' Meetings.

The Committee on Transportation for the Rev. Sam Jones' meetings, to commence in Wilmington on the 25th inst., have made arrangements for reduced rate round trip tickets, from September 24th to October 6th. good to return until October 7th, on the Wilmington and Weldon road as far up as Rocky Mount; on the Wilmington, Columbia and Augusta road to Florence, and on the Carolina Central to Charlotte. It is expected that similar arrangements will be made with the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley road, and an effort will be made, also, to have reduced rate tickets put on sale at Raleigh.

A Rousing Rally Expected

Capt. W. P. Oldham, chairman of the County Democratic Executive Committee, has received a letter from the State Executive Committee at Raleigh which states that everything now indicates that the Club Convention to be held in Raleigh on the 24th and 25th inst. is going to be the grandest political rally ever held in North Carolina. The committee has information to the effect that Charlotte, Winston, Durham, 'Ashe ville and other towns are going to bring large delegations, in addition to the regular delegation, and march in procession with colors flying, bands playing, &c.

The committee saggests to Capt. Oldham that an effort be made to have the Democrats in Wilmington join in this big demonstration. A large delegation seems to be expected from this city. The railroads will ticket.

Sam Jones in Lynchburg. Rev. Sam Jones is having a rousing time in Lynchburg.

The Advance says that the city is filled with strangers, and that the immense building was literally thronged to its utmost capacity at the services Sunday afternoon and evening, the crowd present on each occasion being estimated at fully 6,000 persons.

In his sermon Sunday afternoon Mr. Jones referred very touchingly to the elopement of his daughter, bringing tears to many eyes. He also made a strong and eloquent appeal for probibition.

The Church and the Chimes.

The chimes for Fifth Street M. E Church have been put in position and to-morrow, for the first time, they will ring out their calls to prayer. They embrace nine sweetly toned bells, representing nine octaves, and any tune can be played upon them that is desired. Prof. A. Lutz, of Baltimore, a competent chimes performer, will be here a week or more to give instructions as to playing them. Several persons have already signified their intention to take lessons, and it is proposed to have the chimes played at each service and at the prayer meet ings during the week.

Asleep in Oakdale. The remains of the late Mr. H. C. Prempert were laid tenderly away to rest this afternoon beneath the quiet shades of that beautiful city of the dead, Oakdale Cemetery. The funeral procession started from the THE BOOKS FOR REGISTRATION WILL streets, and the services took place at St. Paul's E. L. Church, the impressive service for the dead having been pronounced by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Peschau. A long line of sorrowing friends accompanied the remains to their last resting place. The escort consisted of the Masonic lodges, the Knights Templar appearing in full uniform, and the Knights of Pythias. The pall-bearers were Messrs. John Neimeyer, Richard A. Warren, Martin T. Davis, Hans A. Kure, R. J. Jones and A.S. Heide.

Another Big Bouse.

Another very large audience greeted the Marionettes at the Opera House last night. As usual, the performance was first class, and was greatly enjoyed by the audience, including many who had been present on one of the previous evenings. The birds, the musical glasses, Boyd's excellent representation of a young lady debulante, Madam Strong's Fala Morgana, George Liable, the diminutive comedian, and the pictures in the air all came in for rounds of applause. One of the very best things was the off-hand draw ings. A good hit was made in these last night when Mayor Fowler's portrait was presented with underneath it 20 or 30. Presents were awarded in profusion; a $35 bedroom set was awarded to Robt. Reardon, No. 11 Third street, and a $7 plush album to M. Moore. The principal present to-night will be a cow and a calf.

A Valuable Property.

The large and elegant Summer residence of Hon. Chas. M. Stedman. at Wrightsville Sound, was sold yesterday by Messrs. Cronly & Morris, real estate brokers, to Capt. J. S. Allen, Col. Thos. W. Strange and Mr. W. M. Cumming. It is understood that the price paid was $7,500. There are 39 acres in the tract and a delightful and commodious Summer residence, with all the necessary outbuildings. It is one of the most beantiful and attractive places on the coast, the house covering a hill "Oh. they're all well except moth- and a beautiful green lawn sloping er, she's about the same.
