STATE NEWS.

Charlotte News: Passengers who came in on the delayed Washington train yesterday afternoon brought news of a terrible dynamite explosion in Rowan county, near Salisbury. The explosion occurred at the camp of W. H. Fortune & Son, contractors on the Yadkin railroad. A hole had been drilled in a large section of rock into which charges of dynamite were being placed and exploded in order to make an aperture sufficiently large to hold enough powder to blast it. After these charges had been exploded and while Sam Pemberton and Will McGree were putting in another one the dynamite exploded prematurely. McGree was killed instantly, his head being blown off as was also one of his hands. Pemberton had his face and breast horribly mutilated and was seriously hurt.

Kind Words of Cheer.
When a proprietor knows he has a grand and good remedy for the many ills that flesh and blood are heir to, it pleases him exceedingly to receive such evidences of appreciation as follows:

W. F. Miles, Milesville, N. C., writes: "I have used Botanic Blood Balm and find it to be all that it is recommended to be."
D. C. Blanton, Thomasville, Ga., writes: "I have used Botanic Blood Balm in my family as a tonic and blood purifier with highest satisfactory results."
F. O. Hoffman, editor Times, Rocky Mount, Va., writes: "I am pleased to say that Botanic Blood Balm is the best appetizer and tonic for delicate people I ever saw. It acted like a charm in my case."
F. H. Hickey, 1208 Main street, Lynchburg, Va., writes: "I was broke out all over with sores, and my hair was falling out. After using a few bottles of Botanic Blood Balm my hair quit falling out and all the sores got well."
Julia E. Johnson, Stafford's P. O., S. C., writes: "I had suffered 13 years with eczema and was at times confined to my bed. The itching was terrible. My son-in-law got me one-half dozen bottles of Botanic Blood Balm, which entirely cured me and I ask you to publish this for the benefit of others suffering in like manner."

August A. Klages, 810 St. Charles street, Baltimore, Maryland, writes: "From my youth I suffered from a poisonous taint in my blood. My face and body was continually affected with eruptions and sores. I am now 42 years of age and had been treated both in Germany and America, but no remedy overcame the trouble until I used Botanic Blood Balm. I have used about twenty bottles, and now my skin is clear, smooth and healthy, and I consider the poison permanently driven from my blood. I indorse it as the best blood remedy."

A new Shakespeare—the Shakespeare of EDWIN A. ARNEY—will be presented in HARPER'S MAGAZINE for 1890, with comments by ANDREW LANG. HARPER'S MAGAZINE has also made special arrangements with ALPHONSE DAUDET, the greatest of living French novelists, for the exclusive publication, in serial form, of a humorous story, to be entitled "The Colonists of Tarascon: the Last Adventures of the Famous Tartarin." The story will be translated by HENRY JAMES, and illustrated by HESS and MYRACH.
W. D. HOWELLS will contribute a novelette in three parts, and LAPCADIO HEARN a novelette in two parts, entitled "Youma," handsomely illustrated.
In illustrated papers, touching subjects of current interest, and in its short stories, poems, and timely articles, the MAGAZINE will maintain its well-known standard.
