

THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. XIV. WILMINGTON, N. C., WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 22, 1890. NO 265.

The Orleans Princes, one of whom is the son of the Comte de Paris, now travelling in this country, are the richest princes in the world. They will inherit in about three months 160,000,000 francs through the death of the Duke de Montpensier, of Seville, Spain.

Handkerchiefs under the new tariff, "which previously sold for 15 cents would be sold at 20 cents; those sold at 35 cents at 33 cents. The two or three manufacturers who had instigated this increase had already given notice that all prices would be advanced."

About all the campaign orators, without distinction of party, are orating about this glorious country, with its 65,000,000 of people. This is a distinct snub to Mr. Porter's census, which counts us considerably under 44,000,000. The idea seems to be that Porter doesn't count.

It is proposed that the Sunday schools of American erect a building in connection with the World's Fair in which there may by such an exhibit as will illustrate the Sunday school institute, lasting an hour or more each day, and extending through sixty or ninety days.

The Congressional days of Mr. James Phelan, Representative from the 10th Tennessee district, are numbered. He is to be turned out of his seat promptly on the meeting of Congress in December, and earlier than that if the President should decide to have an extra session of Congress.

Mr. Edward Atkinson recently directed attention to the statement that since 1875 the area under cultivation in the Argentine Republic has increased from 825,000 to 5,899,000 acres, the greatest part of which is devoted to wheat, and that not more than one out of every hundred tillable acres is in use.

The New York Tribune said some time ago that "it is presumed the new census will increase the representation of States which are surely Republican and diminish the representation of some which elect only Democrats." The returns appear to indicate that the Tribune was behind the scenes and knew what it was talking about.

There seems to be ground for expecting that, at the very least, the Republican candidates for Congress in the 1st and 2d Minnesota districts will be hard pressed by the opposition candidates on election day. In each of these districts a combination has been formed between the Farmers' Alliance and the Democratic party. The Democratic candidates will receive the support of both organizations in the 1st district, and in the other the Farmers' Alliance man will have all the backing that the Democrats can give him.

If the workingman wants to indulge in pairs of gloves this winter he will find another example of the kind of protection the Republican Congress has given him. The duties on all sorts of leather gloves have been raised—especially the lower grades. The average advance in the price of kid gloves will be $3 a dozen. The finer glove is affected only slightly, but the 75 cents and $1 article receive the full benefit of the tax. It will cost about 25 cents more.

Look out for counterfeits! See that you get the genuine Salvation Oil! Do not let the dealer sell you some "just as good," but insist upon getting the genuine with the Bull's Head trade mark on the wrapper.

My Friends—A Word With You.

Do you know that every man who desires to vote at this election must register anew? Even if you have registered and voted before, you must register again under the new election law to vote this year.

Do you want the Republicans to carry the election and have your neighbors arrested and put in jail as in 1868-9? If not, register and vote the Democratic ticket.

Do you wish the negro to get control of your country and State? If not, register and vote for the Democratic nominees.

Do you not know that every negro in the State will register and vote? Then so must every white man.

Do you want negro Yankee soldiers with drawn bayonets to meet you at the polls and dictate to you how to vote? If not, be sure your name is on the registration books, and do not fail to vote the straight Democratic ticket.

You can't register after Oct. 24th—so register at once. Don't say you have not time—take time—your happiness depends upon it; the good name and prosperity of your State depend on it; honest government and white man's control depend on it. Don't wait. Delay may cost the defeat of the party.

ED. CHAMBERS SMITH,
Chm'n. Dem. State Ex. Com.

Wide Awake for November.

A man of truly heroic make was Dr. Samuel Gridley Howe, whose life-story is told by his daughter in the November Wide Awake; the article takes its title, "A Modern Hero," from Whittier's noble poem of which Dr. Howe was the subject; it is accompanied by a portrait of this great champion of the blind and of all distressed souls, painted in his young manhood. "Golden Margaret," an episode of the civil war, is the initial story of the number; further on appears a Southern dialect tale of great strength, "Lucey Perver." A Western story, "How Tom Jumped a Mine," is from the pen of M. E. S. Stickney. Miss Risley Seward gives Part II of a true ancestral war-romance, "A Story of 1712," with Commodore Perry for one of its heroes. Mrs. Fremont contributes the last of her series, "The Will and the Way Stories." An excellent school tale is "Herbert Bender's Translations." "Boy of Blue of Grand Pre," is one of the most interesting of the Canadian series. "Crinoids," "Thanksgiving at the White House," "A Mother Goose Plum Pudding," and several poems, together with the "Men and Things" pages of anecdote, conclude a good number. Wide Awake is $2.40 a year. D. Lothrop Company, Publishers, Boston.

For scrofula, Salt rheum, etc., Take Hood's Sarsaparilla.

The Presbyterian Synod.

The 77th annual Synod of the Presbyterian Church of North Carolina met in the First Presbyterian Church in this city last night.

After preliminary devotional exercises Rev. J. M. Wharey, retiring Moderator, preached a fine sermon from the text, "I have glorified Thee on the earth; I have finished the work which Thou gavest me to do." John, 17th chapter, 4th verse.

After prayer by the Moderator the report of the Committee on Enrollment was received and the organization of the Synod effected by the election of the following officers: Moderator—Rev. Alex. Sprunt. Clerks—Rev. A. R. Shaw and Elder H. M. Dixon.

The session of the First Presbyterian Church, through Rev. Dr. Primrose, in the absence of the pastor, presented an address of welcome to the delegates and visitors.

Elder A. M. McPheeters suggested that religious services be held at least once a day.

Dr. Hill moved that the last hour of each morning session be devoted to public religious exercises, which was concurred in.

Rev. W. S. P. Bryan stated that the Synod at Charlotte set aside Thursday of this session for the consideration of Foreign Missions.

It was moved and carried that the standing order placing the Communion on the evening of this day be suspended. It was then moved and ordered that this service be held Wednesday evening.

Friday was set apart for reports on Evangelistic Labor.

The hours of meeting were fixed as follows: Meet at 9:30 a. m.; take recess at 12 m. for divine service; meet at 3:30 and 8 p. m., and adjourn at pleasure.

The Synod met at 9:30 o'clock this morning and proceeded to business. At 12 o'clock a very fine sermon was preached by Rev. H. G. Mill, of Maxton. At 1 o'clock the congregation was dismissed and the Synod resumed its labors at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon.
