Hot Bed Sash and Glass for sale by the N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

Dr. Walter C. Murphy, of Pender county, was in the city for a short time to-day.

Mr. John D. Bellamy, the third, commissioner, will sell some valuable real estate at auction next Monday. See ad.

Visitors to our city should certainly not fail to call on the N. Jacobi Hdw. Co. for anything wanting in their line.

Use Regal Ready-mixed Paint, and have no other, if you want a good, durable article; for sale by the N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

I am Manufacturer's Agent for Barbed and all kinds of Wire, Combination Wire and Iron Fences. Orders solicited. James I. Metts.

The cold snap has caught us with but little wood in market. Stocks in dealers' hands are short and all that comes in is held at retail prices.

It is said that a full Independent Republican ticket will be announced to-morrow. Mr. D. C. Davis, we hear, is to be announced as the candidate for Sheriff.

We have in stock an immense variety of Cook Stoves, all styles and sizes. Prices away down and Stoves guaranteed to give satisfaction. N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

There was no frost last night because there was too much wind but the probabilities are that we will have frost to-night. So, look out for your tender plants.

A large line of Breach and Muzzle loading Shot Guns, Air Rifles and Pistols; all grades at lowest prices. Wood Powder and sportsmen's supplies just received. N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

Charlotte Chronicle: Mrs. Alice Everett and Norwood Giles, of Wilmington, who have been at Mr. P. D. Walker's, returned home yesterday. Miss Giles, who is sick at Mr. Walker's, is improving rapidly.

On account of the fact that the Tuesday of next week, November 4th, will be election day, the jurors and witnesses summoned to attend the U. S. District Court need not appear until the next day, Wednesday, November 5th.

Should be kept at stables and stock yards—Salvation Oil is the best friend not only of man but of dumb beast as well. For swelled joints, strained tendons, old sores, saddle galls and wounds of all kinds there is no remedy like Salvation Oil.

Messrs. Parsley & Wiggins are doing a big business out at their Hilton Steam Saw and Planing Mills. They now have running into their yard, a railway track connecting them with the C. C. R. R. and they load and unload on the premises.

The October moon fills this evening at 25 minutes past 6 o'clock. It is the hunter's moon and like its predecessor, the harvest moon, rises during the full period at a much shorter interval each night than is the habit of full moons in general.

Nine persons united with the Brooklyn Baptist Church yesterday, a result of the revival meetings now being carried on at that church, making about 40 additions to that church within the past three weeks. Dr. Pritchard also received two persons—both young men—into the membership of the First Baptist Church yesterday morning.

Effie Ellsler will have good houses here. This a settled fact already. There was a rush for reserved seats at Mr. Yates' this morning and it was not long before the diagram, looked down in the mouth—it had been so badly out, and by so many. Still, there are some good seats left but they won't remain long unsold.

For scrofula in every form Hood's Sarsaparilla is a radical, reliable remedy. It has an unequalled record of cures.

The receipts of cotton at this port to-day foot up 1,636 bales.

The box sheet for the Effie Ellsler performance is now open at Mr. Yates' book store.

See ad. of Mr. Ben Perry, notifying people of the new hack he is driving. Call on him.

"Johnny—Johnny, if you don't go in the house this minute and get your overshoes, I'll tell your mother." "Tell on then, I ain't a-caring—we've thrown away our rubbers and taken to Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, we have."

Signals Ordered Up.

The cautionary northwest signal was ordered up here last night at 9.40 o'clock. A high pressure area developed westward of us, and colder weather was predicted which came on time early this morning. The signals were also ordered up at Charleston, Morehead City and Washington.

All Sorts of Weather.

We had all sorts of weather here yesterday. The sun shone bright and the forenoon was pleasant. In the afternoon a cloud came up suddenly from the northwest; soon thereafter there was lightning and thunder and a heavy fall of hail, about as large as small marbles but unaccompanied by rain. The hail fell but for a short time and was followed by rain. This soon passed and the sun shone again. The night was cool and this morning it was very cold—the coldest, decidedly, we have had this season.

A Man's Duty to His Employees.

Rev. Robert Strange preached an eloquent sermon yesterday on a subject of great interest to every one. It was on the duty of employers to their employees, showing how the former should interest themselves in the home life as well as the business life, of those under them; the influence they can exert by example as well as precept; the interest they should feel in their condition and the attentions due them in sickness. The reverend gentleman's argument was that an employer has obligations to his employees in sickness as well as in health, and in many cases. As soon as a clerk is taken ill, mayhap from exposure or overwork in his employer's service, his salary is stopped and no interest, whatever, is manifested as to his condition. This, of course, was not the case always but it is so very often. Such a thing is unchristian, unkind, uncharitable and unjust. A man's business household has a demand upon his care and attention as well as that of his family. It was a very fine sermon and we think would do much good if published and scattered broadcast.

DON'T DIE IN THE HOUSE.

"Rough on Rats." Clears out rats, mice, roaches. ROUGH ON WORMS. Safe. Sure Cure. 25c. Rough on Toothache. Instant relief, 15c.

Forecasts.

For North Carolina, colder weather with frosts to-night, and nearly freezing temperature; in the western portion fair weather.

Local forecasts from 8 a. m. to-day, for Wilmington and vicinity, fair weather and colder and probably frost to-night.

The Voting Places.

Second Division—Building corner of Sixth and Campbell streets, recently occupied by Mr. James Lewis as a restaurant.
Third Division—Unoccupied store on the corner of Tenth and Walnut streets.
Second Ward—The Court House.
Third Ward—Giblem Lodge.
Fourth Ward—Cape Fear Engine House.
Fifth Ward, First Division—Fifth Ward Market House, corner of Fifth and Castle streets.
Second Division—Bannaker Hose Reel House, on Ninth, between Castle and Queen streets.

Mr. Grady in Pender.

The Congressional standard bearer in our neighboring district, the Third, Mr. B. F. Grady, spoke at Shaking, in Pender county, on Saturday last to a large number of solid and appreciative people and a correspondent who was present sends us the following report of the occasion. He says: "Mr. Grady won golden opinions from all, as he has done, and is doing, wherever he has spoken in his vigorous and successful canvass of the district. He is a plain, didactic, argumentative and able speaker. He invests the dry and hackneyed subjects of the tariff and internal revenue with a freshness, originality, clearness and force, which shows him to be a man of thorough investigation, and of power of thought and expression. He set forth, with much interest, the origin and purpose of legislation—its effect on domestic prices at home and abroad—showing how the farmers are robbed at both ends; when they buy as well as when they sell. He considered this as the biggest of all issues now before the country. He illustrated the injurious effects of the protective system upon the South by reference to a remark made a number of years ago, by Senator Edmunds to Senator Merrimon, when they were both in the Senate. The former said to the latter that no matter how much money there was in the country, the money of the South naturally gravitates to the North because of the operation of high tariff laws.

Mr. Grady ably discussed the internal revenue system. He showed that it was unconstitutional in its inception, because such a tax being an excise tax was in excess of the value of the articles taxed. It is unjust in its operations, and especially so as to alcoholic liquors, because in prohibition States there is no tax paid.

"In discussing the remedies he demanded the free coinage of silver, the abolition of National Banks as soon as it can be done legally, or such a change in the system as will force them to cease their unequal operations and oppressions, and the passage by Congress of an income tax. Make such men as Carnegie help support the government according to their ill gotten gains.

"Mr. Grady's speech was considered a very fine effort, and his attentive hearers were much pleased at it."
