THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. XIV. WILMINGTON, N. C., TUESDAY, OCTOBER 28, 1890. NO 270.

And now the price of false teeth has advanced 32 1/2 per cent.

Gov. Hill has returned from Ohio.
He has no doubt of McKinley's defeat.

Cholera is raging in Japan. There have been more than a thousand cases there in less than a month.

Collars will be advanced 25 per cent. next month. Vote for protection and maybe they will be advanced 50 per cent in December.

Norway ice has proved a failure in this country. Nobody seems to want it. A cargo was sold in New York a few days ago at less than the freight charges.

The Farmers' Alliance is a youngster but it is a remarkably vigorous and spirited one. There are bodies in thirty-five States, with a membership of two million.

It is said that apathy with some and over-confidence on the part of others may defeat the Democrats in Virginia next week. Mahone is doing all he can to help them by sowing discord in the Republican ranks.

The New Yorkers are now studying the registration returns. The anti-Tammanyites claim that the increase is largely in their favor. The Tammany people deny this and say that they indicate a majority for them of at least 20,000.

If these newspapers would only let poor old Fraud Hayes rest in his political grave. But they won't.
Life remarks that "relatively speaking, Harrison is a success" and the New York Herald responds with the advice to "let poor Hayes alone."

The Chicago Inter-Ocean remarks that the McKinley bill has been a law three weeks and that "prices have touched bottom," where to the New York Star smilingly responds that they have "touched bottom; the bottom of the poor man's pocket."

According to a New York Star special, the Republicans in New Jersey concede much to the Democrats.
There will be four Democratic Congressmen, a gain of one, and the House is surely Democratic. For the Senate there is a stiff fight going on.

Gen. Nathan Goff is announced for a speech at Wheeling, West Virginia, on the evening of October 21.
To make the occasion more interesting the Democrats have requested a division of time for Ex-Governor E. Willis Wilson, who is anxious to discuss the political issues of the day with Gen. Goff. So far the challenge for joint debate has not been accepted.

Haskell's appeal to the colored vote in South Carolina is said to have hurt him severely by alienating many white voters. Tillman declares that the Congressional districts must all be carried; that they are far more important than his own election as Governor. The Republican State Committee has advised the members of that party to vote for Haskell.

Ex-Governor—and next Governor —Pattison, of Pennsylvania, has been charged by some Republican papers with malfeasance while Governor of the State. And what does he do? Allow these charges to be made and not replied to, like Quay and Delamater? Not much. He has promptly instituted suit for slander and he is going to hurl the lies back in the teeth of the men who made the charges. The thing has been sprung just at this time with the hope that the charges cannot be repeated before election day.

"I wonder what Dr. Smith is looking so glum about?" "Why I can tell you, he says his trade is almost ruined, that he'll hardly have a patient in the winter months after a while, all on account of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup."

Female Weakness Positive Cure Free.
To the Editor:—Please inform your readers that I have a positive remedy for the thousand and one ills which arise from deranged female organs. I shall be glad to send two bottles of my remedy FREE to any lady if they will send their Express and P. O. address. Yours respectfully, Dr. J. B. MARCHESI, 183 Genesee St., Utica, N. Y.

Rev. Mr. Peschau baptized three children at St. Paul's E. L. Church on Sunday last and also received two persons into the church—one at the English service and one at the Danish service.

A christening party was given by Mr. John Mayland to a number of his friends at his residence on Dock street, between Sixth and Seventh, yesterday afternoon. The child, a boy, was baptized by Mr. Peschau on Sunday.

The Royal Pleasure Club is making arrangements for a grand anniversary ball and banquet on the evening of Thanksgiving Day, which is Thursday, November 27th. Professor Miller's orchestra has been engaged for the occasion.

The market continues well supplied with fresh meats. A gentleman who is a judge in such matters, tells us that the display made by Mr. Garrell last Saturday, which was made up entirely of native meats, was the finest he has ever seen in North Carolina.

And Now for Newbern.

The present outlook is for a direct connection by rail with Newbern next Summer, or at the latest, next Fall. About 45 miles of track has been laid on the W., O. & E. C. R. R. and Jacksonville is only a few miles distant. The surveyors are now in the field for a continuation of the line from Jacksonville to Newbern.
They were within ten miles of the latter place on Saturday last and the survey will be completed tomorrow. As soon as the reports are in the route will be decided upon and the dirt throwers will be put to work.

Children Enjoy

The pleasant flavor, gentle action and soothing effects of Syrup of Figs, when in need of a laxative and if the father or mother be constipated the most gratifying results follow its use, so that it is the best family remedy known and every family should have a bottle.

The Carolina Central.

The adjourned meeting of the stockholders of the Carolina Central Railroad was held at the Old Dominion Steamship Co's office, in New York, on the 23d inst. The old Board of Directors was reelected and the old officers also. No other items of business relative to the meeting have yet transpired.

Friday, Oct. 31.

day, Nov. 1.
Burgaw, Pender county, Monday, Nov. 3.

Still Onward and Upward.

The price of flour, "the staff of life", is still high and tending still farther upward. There is a big wheat crop and we can see no other reason in the world for the advance, beyond the effects of the McKinley tariff in advancing the price of everything necessary to sustain life. The poor man who votes for the Republican party next week, with all of these facts staring him in the face, is a—well, we won't speak what he is. He'll find that out for himself by-and-by.

dress the people on the issues of the campaign at the following times and places:

at the places mentioned below on the dates given:
Shallotte, Oct. 25th.

Concord, Nov. 1st.

The Chiefs to Meet.

A meeting of the Chiefs of the various Fire Departments in the State is to be held at Greensboro on Wednesday, Nov. 12th. As the Greensboro Patriot says, the object of such a meeting can easily be seen to be of immense benefit not only to the men themselves, but it will be felt throughout the State and by every town sending a representative to the conference; not only at a time of fire, where the benefit of an exchange of ideas will assert itself, but in the safety felt by the community in general wherever a community exists which possesses a fire Chief with interest enough in his duties as Chief to take advantage of every opportunity to better acquaint himself with his duties and prepare himself for the hour when he must shrink from no duty, but be ready for an emergency; be capable of not only meeting it but to successfully overcome it when met.

The Lame Walk.

Pitiful indeed is the condition of those who are confined to their beds or chairs unable to walk. How grateful all such must feel when they recover from their helplesness. B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm) has made more than one lame person happy.

Mrs. Emma Griffiths, Union, Tenn., writes: "My little boy had scrofula so bad his knees were drawn up and his knees stiff, and he could not walk. He derived no benefit from medicines until I tried B. B. B. After using it a short time only, he can walk and has no pain. I shall continue its use."

Mirtle M. Tanner, Boonville, Ind., writes: "I had blood poison from birth. Knots on my limbs were as large as hen's eggs. Doctors said I would be a cripple, but B. B. B. has cured me sound and well. I shall ever praise the day the men who invented Blood Balm were born."

His Farewell Sermon.

Rev. C. L. Arnold preached his farewell sermon to the congregation of St. Paul's Episcopal Church on Sunday last. His last service here will be at the joint severance to be held on Saturday next, All Saints Day. He will leave here Saturday afternoon for his new charge of St.
Stephen's parish, Goldsboro, where he will preach on Sunday next.

Mr. Arnold came to Wilmington just three years ago and took charge of St. Paul's on the first Sunday in November of that year. The congregation then worshipped in the old structure but within six months after his arrival he preached from the pulpit of the new church. His labors here have resounded to great good to the parish and to the church in general in this city and section. When he took charge of St. Paul's there were between 60 and 70 communicants, whereas by the last report there were 126—nearly double the first number. But the best endorsement of Mr. Arnold's work in this city is found in the last report of the Bishop wherein he says:

At a later hour consecrated the new edifice of St. Paul's, Wilmington.
This new and attractive structure replacing the older one, which for so many years had served the purpose of the congregation, is due to the zeal and activity of the present Rector, Rev. Charles L. Arnold.
Mr. Arnold took charge of the Parish at a period of great depression in its history. By his ability and zeal he has infused new life and activity into the congregation—has brought about a marked improvement in its finances and spiritual life, and when such a result seemed hopeless, he succeeded in erecting around the walls of the old temple the more comely ones of the new.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold will both leave many warm personal friends and admirers here whose prayers for their happiness and prosperity and for the success of Mr. Arnold's labors for truth and righteousness will follow them to their new home.

PLEASE NOTICE
We will be glad to receive communications from our friends on any and all subjects general interest, but The name of the writer must always be inserted to the Editor.
Communications must be written on only one side of the paper.
Personalities must be avoided.
And it is especially and particularly understood that the Editor does not always endorse the views of correspondents unless so stated in the editorial columns.

The Ellsers.

Effie Ellsler will be greeted with a large house to night, which is as it should be. Her engagement here is a very short one—for two nights only—and on both occasions there will be large and fashionable audiences. She plays to-night in "Miss Manning" and to-morrow night in "The Governess." Her father, the veteran actor, Mr. John Ellsler, is with her and she is supported by an excellent company. The box sheet for to-morrow night will open at Mr. Yates' to-morrow morning.

In writing this of Miss Ellsler we are reminded of the fact that Mr.
John Ellsler played here for the first time forty years ago, in company with Joe Jefferson, the name of the firm then being Jefferson & Ellsler.

And we are reminded also of another fact and that is that when Mr. and Miss Ellsler were with us last October we published a communication written by a gentleman in this city, an excellent dramatic critic, who had known Mr. Ellsler for many years, and it may not be out of place to reproduce here at least a part of the article. The gentleman says in his communication: "There may exist some doubt in the minds of our theatre patrons concerning the position occupied by the Ellsers, father and daughter, in their profession. John Ellsler, as actor, author, tutor and manager, has done as much for the American stage as any living man has done.
A large number of the favored actors and actresses of to-day owe what they are to the kindly consideration, encouragement and training received at his hands. The old Academy of Music at Cleveland, O., was the refuge and home of many struggling young men and women who are to-day 'bright stars.' Clara Morris owes her fame to Effie Ells-ler's father, and the same fatherly care has made his daughter what she is to-day, a splendid actress, as was her mother before her. I have repeatedly seen the entire Ellsler family, father, mother and five children, including 'the baby,' on the stage at one time as the support of Jefferson, Adams, Owens and Con-dock. The modest, unassuming little lady of fourteen summers, dressed in calico frock and white apron, trudging along to school, book bag in hand, was the same who has repeatedly delighted critical Cleveland audiences with her rendition of Fanchon. She was loved by her school-fellows and they were proud of knowing her. They called her 'little Effie.' Since then she has grown and played everything, from light comedy to heavy tragedy, with all the celebrities of the land. For her Hazel Kirke was written and for two long years, night after night, she played the part to crowded houses at the Madison Square Theatre in New York city. By honoring this father and daughter I am sure the patrons of the drama in Wilmington will do honor to themselves."
