The situation in South Carolina grows more intensely interesting as the day of election approaches. There are two tickets in the field and both are Democratic. One is a protest against the other. But the opponents of the Tillman ticket had ter though the pill was in seeing Elixir and am now a well man. Tillman nominated, yet it was the work of the regular Democratic Convention and as such should receive the unqualified support of the party. The Haskell movement is to the party, notwithstanding it has in South Carolina. it will be a bad day for the people of that State when the negro vote is divided and the old caes, which my new Catalogue for 1888 a bad day also for other States besides South Carolina. The Charleston News and Courier most admirably outlines the situation when it says that "no other Independent movement in South Carolina has been treated with so great consider. ation or has been more deeply deplored. The Haskell Independents are regarded as more dangerous than the Independents who have heretofore attempted to disrupt the Democratic party, because by their intelligence, honesty and courage they are more dangerous to the future of the party and the State, and because it will require the united efforts of all her sons "to save South Carolina in greater emergencies than the one now upon us." The choice that the Democratic voter will have to make in this contest is not simply a choice between men. The integrity of the Democratic party and the unity of the white people of South Carolina are the great issues at stake. The wise course, the pa triotic course to be pursued in this crisis is not to drive the Haskellmen out of the party forever, but to bring them back under the Democratic banner, and to teach such a lesson at the ballot box on Tuesday next as will be a warning to all who may be disposed in the future to set up their personal preferences against the will of the party." This is well said. At this time, of all others, the people of South Carolina cannot afford to endanger the supremacy, perhaps the existence, of the Democratic party in that State. There is but one ticket before them and that is the one nominated by the people and instruct all ages, classes and conditions themselves in regular convention assembled. It is undoubtedly a bitter pill to swallow but not half so bitter as to see the lower crustagain rioting in the State House at Colum-

The Philadelphia Record quotes the following from a letter of instruction sent by one of the most prominent, metal houses in the country to its selling agencies: 'An ordinary co'se plate of the cheapest value-such as cans are made out of-will pay a duty of $2.37 per box, or about 40 per cent. of the value of the plate. Is the most ancient and most caneral of all diseases. Scarcely a family is entirely free from it, while thousands everywhere are its suffering slaves. Hood's Sarsaparilla has had remarkable success in curing every form of scrofula. The most severe and painful running sores, swellings in the neck or goitre, humor in the eyes, causing partial or total blindness, yield to the powerful effects of this medicine. It thoroughly removes every impurity from the blood.

"My little daughter's life was saved, as we believe, by Hood's Sarsaparilla. Before she was six months old she had 7 running scrofula sores. One physician advised the amputation of one of her fingers, to which we refused assent. When we began giving her Hood's Sarsaparilla, a marked improvement was noticed and by a continued use of it her recovery was complete. And she is now, being seven years old, strong and healthy." B.
