STATE NEWS.

Henderson Gold Leaf: A horrible accident occurred in Warrenton late last Thursday evening, resulting in the death of the twelve-year-old son of Mr. Joseph Rodwell. The boy was there attending school and in some way was run over by the train and instantly killed.

Sanford Express: A. V. Dockery it will be remembered was busy before the election giving his opinion against the force bill. He never lost an oppertunity to condemn it, but now it is rumored here that he is asking his Republican friends in this county and elsewhere to make up a fund for the purpose of paying his expenses at Washington as a lobby ist for the force bill.

Charlotte News: A Charlotte man who remained all night at the home of Mr. Joseph Burdell, at Lewis' Turnout, tells us, that Mr. Burdell has 500 bundles of fodder that have been stored in his barn for 19 years. Each successive year they have been covered with new fodder and have never yet been reached. North Carolina granite and North Carolina granite workers have just secured a big victory. The contract for the Noble monument at Anniston, Ala., was given out on the first of Nevember, and it was awarded to I. W. Durham & Co., of Charlotte, over competition from a dozen large cities. North Carolina granite was adopted over granite from a dozen States. The monument is to cost $5,500.

Raleigh News and Observer: The community was shocked yesterday morning to hear of the sudden death at the Aldine House, in Philadel phia, of Mr. B. F. Moore, which oc curred yesterday morning. Some two weeks ago he had accompanied one of his sisters, on account of her health, to that city. Mr Moore was the eldest son of the late B. F. Moore, Esq., one of the most distinguished lawyers of his generation. Parties who spent circus day in Greensboro bring the report of a big racket which took place there on that day. A policeman arrested a negro near the Benbow House for being in a state of inebriety and obstreperousness, and when he was marching off with his man the irate wife of the prisoner charged on the policeman with a piece of fence rail and broke it over his head; nearly knocking him senseless. The police wan turned and struck her with his club, whereupon the negro man pounced on the policeman from the rear. Several other negroes joined in and the crowd of white men standing around, numbering fifteen or twenty, went to the policeman's rescue. Sticks were used and a general melee followed in which several craniums were badly whacked. The negroes were finally subdued, however, and run into the guard house.

The Deaf Hear.

That sounds miraculous, and yet one may become temporarily deaf on account of blood poison settling in the ear, and then find quick relief by using B B B (Botanic Blood Balm.) John W. Weeks, Decatur, Ga.,

writes: "Six months ago I had a pain in my ear and in a few days it discharged matter. Then I grew deaf and could not hear at all. I began the use of B B B and the running of my ear soon ceased and I now hear, while my health is much improved and I feel full of gratitude to God and to the proprietors of so good a remedy.

S. M. Ellis, Atlanta, Ga., writes: "B B B cured me of most stubborn eczema. I had doctored it without success for twelve years."

W. H. Davis, San Marcos, Texas, writes: "I am rapidly recovering from blood poison by the use of B.

Harper's Weekly. ILLUSTRATED.

HARPER'S WERKLY has a well-established lace as the leading illustrated newspaper in America. The fairness of its editorial comments on current politics has earned for it the respect and confidence of all impartial readers, and the variety and excellence of its literary contents, which include serial and short stories by the best and most popular writers, fit it for the perusal of people of the widest range of tastes and pursuits. The WEEKLY supplements are of remarkable variety, interest, and value. No expense is spared to bring the highest order of artistic ability to bear upon the illustration of the changeful phases of home and foreign history. A Mexican romance, from the pen of THOMAS A JANVIER, will appear in the WEEKLY in 1890.
