Kicking Horse to His Fellow Indians.
Indian Agent McLaughlin has given the Sioux to understand that he will stand no nonsense in regard to the coming of the Messiah. More than a dozen of the red men now live in the guard house for unseemly conduct, and Kicking Horse, who claims to have just returned from heaven, has been ordered to leave the reservation forever.
Kicking Horse claims to have gone to heaven through a hole in the clouds. He is cunning enough to mix Christian doctrine with his prophetic preaching to make it seem more real. The Great Spirit told Kicking Horse that his children, the Indians, had suffered long enough, and the time had arrived when they would again occupy the earth so long held by the whites, but they must not kill or molest the whites. The Great Spirit said he himself would wipe out the white race from the face of the earth. The Great Spirit told him the earth was getting full of holes, and many places were rotten.
He would gradually send a wave of earth twenty feet or more over the country. It would move slowly. The Indians must keep dancing, so as to keep on top, and when the wave passed all the whites would be buried underneath and the Indians would be on top. All the dead Indians would be restored to life again, and all the buffaloes, horses, game and all their old hunting grounds would be as they were hundreds of years ago, and the Indians would for all time in the future own and occupy this earth. All Indians who would not listen to the words of the prophet and keep dancing would be turned into fishes and occupy the rivers and streams.
He said that while talking to the Great Spirit the devil came to them. He describes the devil as being very tall, with immense knee joints and monster mouth and long teeth. He was covered all over with coarse hair. He asked for half of the people, meaning the Indians. The Great Spirit told him no. He asked again, and the Great Spirit replied, "You can have none of my chosen Indian children, but you can have all the whites."—Standing Rock (N. D.) Cor. Chicago Tribune.

The Bravest of the Battles.
The bravest battle that ever was fought, Shall I tell you where and when? On the unmap of the world you'll find it not; 'Twas fought by the mothers of men.
Nay, not with cannon or battle shot, With word or nobler pen; Nay, not with eloquent word or thought From mouth of wonderful men.
But deep in a walled-up woman's heart— Of woman that would not yield, But bravely, silently bore her part— Lo! there is the battlefield.
No marshalling troop, no bivouac song, No banner to gleam and wave! But oh, these battles, they last so long— From babyhood to the grave.
—Joachim Miller.

Remarkable Rescue.
Mrs. Michael Curtin, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement that she caught cold, which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine could cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself better from first dose. She continued its use and after taking ten bottles, found herself sound and well, now does her own housework and is as well as she ever was. Free trial bottles of this Great Discovery at R. R. Bellamy's Wholesale and Retail Drug Store, large bottles 50c. and $1.00.

NOVEMBER NONSENSE.
Many an ailment of long standing is caused by two much sitting.—Chicago Tribune.

It seems now to be very certain that William Tell did not refuse to bow to Gessler's hat. What Mr. Tell really did was to ask Mr. Gessler where he got it.—Louisville Courier Journal.
Consumption Surely Cured.
TO THE EDITOR—Please inform your readers that I have a positive remedy for the above named disease. By its timely use thousands of hopeless cases have been permanently cured. I shall be glad to send two bottles of my remedy FREE to any of your readers who have consumption if they will send me their express and post office address. Respectfully, T. A. SLOCUM, M.C., 181 Pearl St., New York.

Advice to Mothers.
Mrs. Winslow's SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle. July 6 dead & w/v

You are in a Bad Fix
But we will cure you if you will pay us. Our message is to the Weak, Nervous and Debilitated, who, by early Evil Habits, or Later Indiscretions, have trifled away their vigor of Body, Mind and Manhood, and who suffer all those effects which lead to Premature Decay, Consumption or Insanity. If this means you, send for and read our BOOK OF LIFE, written by the greatest Specialist of the day, and sent, (sealed), by addressing Dr. Parker's Medical and Surgical Institute, 153 North Spruce street, Nashville, Tenn.
