Harpers' Weekly

ILLUSTRATED

The important series of papers on which HARPER'S WEEKLY has been published since its first issue in 1847, is now published in a new and improved form. The illustrations are by the most successful artists of the day, and the stories are by the most successful authors. The paper is published every week, except on Sundays and public holidays. It is sold at the rate of $1.75 per year, in advance.

1891

Harpers' Weekly

ILLUSTRATED

HARPER'S WEEKLY has never failed to justify its title as a "Journal of Civilization," and it has done so with a constant regard to enlarged possibilities of usefulness and a higher standard of artistic and literary excellence. It leaves untouched no important phase of the world's progress, and presents a record, equally trustworthy and interesting of the notable events, persons, and achievements of our time.

Special Supplements will be continued in 1891. They will be literary, scientific, art, historical, critical, topographical, or of any other kind, as may be desired, and will continue to receive the hearty commendation which has been bestowed on past issues by the press and the public. As a family journal, HARPER'S WEEKLY will, as heretofore, be read with a strict regard for the qualities that make it a safe and welcome visitor to every home.

1891 Harper's Bazar.

ILLUSTRATED.

HARPER'S BAZAR is a journal for the home, giving the latest information with regard to the Fashions, its numerous illustrations, fashion-plates, and pattern sheet, supplies are indispensable alike to the home dress-maker and the professional modist. No expense is spared in making its artistic attractiveness of the highest order. Its clever short stories, parlor plays, and thoughtful essays satisfy all tastes, and its last page is famous as a budget of wit and humor. In its weekly issues everything is included which is of interest to women. During 1890 AGNES B. OWEN wrote a series of articles on "The House Comfortable," "Jiliet Conson will treat of "Sanitary Living," and an interesting succession of papers on "Woman in Art and History," superbly illustrated, will be furnished by THEODORE CHILD. The serial stories will be written by WALTER BESANT and THOMAS HARDY.

THE REPUTATION OF OUR FERTILIZERS

THE ACME and GEM is now established, and the result of three years' use in the hands of the best farmers of this and other States will attest their value as a high grade manure. The MATTING, made from the leaves of our native pine, is conceded to be equal to any wool carpet for comfort and durability and the demand for it is daily increasing. It is not found in any other fabric. The FIBRE is extensively used for upholstering purposes, and as a filling for Mattresses is almost equal to hair, being light elastic and proof against insects.

Certificates from reliable parties using our goods can be seen at our office, or will be mailed upon publication.
