George Wilson's Minstrels.

There is to be a good thing at the Opera House on Saturday night in the shape of George Wilson's Minstrel Troupe. It is said to be a good thing and as our people are partial to entertainments of this character it will probably draw well. There is nothing, we are told, in the entertainment that is in the least Last evening it was warm enough degree offensive and the ladies to sit in the house without a fire; at therefore turn out to see the troups the same the wind blew at a lively wherever they appear. The Services and the Reception.

Bishop and Mrs. Watson arrived thanksgiving services were held, as announced, in St. John's Church. The service was beautiful and inpressive. The sermon was preached by Rev. J. C. Huske, Rector Emeri tus of St. John's Church, at Fayetteville. Pr. Huske spoke of the du lief, until I gave Salvation Oil atrial ties of a bishop to his people and of a people to their hishop and then warmly welcomed Dr. Watson back to the city. He also read the following resolutions, which were adopted at a meeting of the Standing Committee of the Diocese, held last

Resolved, That we, the members of the Standing Committee, do tender to the Rt. Rev. A. A. Watson D. D., the honored and beloved Bishop of our Diocese, our most have resumed his seat in Congress glad to know that he met with much hearty congratulations upon the safe return of himself and wife from their journey abroad; with devout thanks to our Heavenly Father for His merciful protection of them, and with humble prayers that renewed health and strength will be given him for the continuance of his work in his Diocese, for the glory of-God and the good of His Holy Church. Resolved, That this committee gratefully accepts the invitation of John's Parish to attend in a body the reception to be given by them to Bishop Watson on the 4th inst., and that the President be requested to present to the Bishop on that occasion the foregoing resolution, accompanied by an address of welcome back to his Diocese, on behalf of this committee and of the church people of his see city.

The music was very fine, and was rendered by a double quartette. It was only church music, it is true, consisting of the simple service of the prayer book and the hymnal, but it was grand and beautiful in the extreme in its magnificent vocal-
