Grace M. E. Church, the new and beautiful structure of the old Front Street congregation, was formally dedicated vesterday forenoon to the worship of Almighty God. As might large congregation there variously estimated at between 1,200 and 1,400 souls. Bishop John C. Keener was present and preached the dedicatory sermon and there were also on the pulpit stand Rev. W. S. Creasy. D. Da Pastor of Grace Church; Rev. R. C. Beaman, Pastor of Fifth Street Church; Rev. H. B. Anderson, Pastor of Bladen Street Church, and Rev. J. C. Thomas, W. N. C. Conf'e. Bishop Keener preached a beautiful and eloquent sermon, taken trom the 27th chapter of Genesis and describing Jacob's dream. The music wys rendered by a large choir with Mr. H. M. Bowden as leader, and some thirty odd vocalists, the ac companiments being two cornets, a piano and the organ. The officers of the church were seated just in front of the pulpit.

At the close of the sermon the portation. Bishop read the dedicatory services and Mr. W. M. Poisson, for the official board, responded, reading the prescribed parts of the Discipline and formally tendering the church. A collection was then taken up as a thank offering and the congregation was dismissed, with the benediction. As they filed out of the church the choir sang several of Prof. Excell's most beautiful hymns.

In the afternoon, at 3 o'clock, there was a communion service which was also very largely attended.
