Pastoral Relation Dissolved. The Presbytery of Wilmington met here yesterday and granted letters of dismission to Dr. Primrose, at his request. The relation between St. Andrew's Church and Dr. Primrose is to be dissolved on the 31st inst. Rev. W. McC. Miller will preach in that church on the second Sunday in January and declare the pulpit vacant. Mr. Miller was elected Agent of Foreign Missions. As has been stated by us Dr. Primrose will go to Europe for Evangelist work in that Synod, in response to the call extended him.

On a Tour of Inspection. Yesterday's Goldsboro Argus says that quite a party of distinguished gentlemen connected with public affairs of our State among whom were Mr. Warren G. Elliott, President of the Atlantic Coast Line, Mr. E. Chambers Smith, Chairman of the State Democratic Executive Committee and member of the Board of Internal Improvements, Col. F. A. Olds and Gen. W. G. Lewis, passed down the A. & N. C. R. R. to Morehead City on Wednesday, in Mr. Elliott's private car, where they will embark on a trip of inspection of the Harlow Creek canal.

At the Opera House. There was a good audience at the Opera House last night and a fine entertainment. The play of "The Mountain Pink" has been previously produced here and always to fine audiences. Last night's performance may justly be classed as the most successful of the season, thus far. To-night "The Galley Slave," which is also a good thing, will be presented and we trust that there will be a large audience present to see it. A matinee will be given to-morrow afternoon when the very amusing farce of Joshua Whitcomb (one of the best things we know of) will be presented. The engagement here closes with the performance to-morrow night.

Third of the Series. Bishop Haid lectured last night on "The Duties of Christians to God and His Church" and in the opinion of many who heard it it was one of the Bishop's most masterly efforts. The theme for to-night will be "Duties of Christians to the Civil Government." The church will be open at the usual hour and ushers will be in attendance to seat the people.

Peterson's Magazine. Peterson for January, with its finer paper, wider pages, and profuse illustrations shows what a charming holiday gift a year's subscription to this admirable periodical will prove. The steel engraving, "Her Feeble Steps," is a picture worth framing, and "The First Dancing Lesson" is very pretty. The two large fashion sheets display the newest walking, skating and other out-door costumes. "Scenes in Norway" is a most interesting paper, well illustrated. "In the Woods" is a new novelet which promises well. "A Man's Wish" will stand unsurpassed among the new year's stories. "Jean of Severs" is one of Minna Irving's most stirring lyrics. "The Hen's Revolt," by Emma L. Thomas, will delight the children with its rhymed fun and its series of delicious pictures. "The Care of Young Girls," by the Newport Hospital Superintendent, ought to be read by every mother. These are but a few of the number's attractions. Peterson is evidently determined to make its anniversary year a triumph. No family should be without it. Terms $2.00 a year, with large reductions to clubs. Address Peterson's Magazine, Philadelphia.

Real good 50 cent shirts, reinforced back and front, at Naumburg's.

How's Your Liver?

Is the Oriental salutation, knowing that good health cannot exist without a healthy Liver. When the Liver is torpid the Bowels are sluggish and constipated, the food lies in the stomach undigested, poisoning the blood; frequent headache ensues; a feeling of lassitude; despondency and nervousness indicate how the whole system is deranged. Simmons' Liver Regulator has been the means of restoring more people to health and happiness by giving them a healthy Liver than any agency known on earth. It acts with extraordinary power and efficiency. NEVER BEEN DISAPPOINTED. A general family remedy for dyspepsia, Torpid Liver, Constipation, etc. I hardly use anything else, and have never been disappointed in the correct production. It is the simplest, a perfect cure for all diseases of the Stomach and Bowels. W. J. McELOY, M.D.

John Werner.

THERE IS BUT ONE, AND HE HOLDS forth at No. 29 Market street. A good shave for 10 cents, a Shampoo for 20 cents, or a Hair Cut for 20 cents. Four of the best Barbers in the State. Clean towels, sharp razors and prompt attendance. JOHN WERNER, The German Barber, 29 Market street.

Belford's Magazine. The December number of Belford's Magazine has been some days at hand and it has been read, almost every line of it. Its appearance is always hailed with pleasure and we look from one issue with longing for the next. The number is rich. It is a holiday issue with lots of pretty little "falelets" suited to the season but with enough of solid matter to preserve the centre of the intellectual gravity. Gen. Longstreet, C. S. A., goes for Lord Wolsey on the Gettysburg question and Gen. Trumbull, U. S. A., refutes his foolish critique on Shiloh. "The Colossal Power of the United States in the 29th Century" is a thoughtful, earnest paper, and "The Fight Between the Merrimac and the Monitor," written by a Confederate officer who saw the fight, throws much light on this oft-vexed matter. There are various other papers of profound interest in the issue, as well as those of which we have hinted or spoken, and the departments are full of good matter. The editorial, as usual, is especially good. Belford & Co., New York, at $3.50 a year.

For the Sailors. A very pleasant entertainment was given at Luther Memorial Building last night for the benefit of the seafaring men in port. It was gotten up and conducted by Rev. F. W. E. Peschau, and the programme was wisely varied, the selections, good and consisted of recitations and vocal and instrumental music. There were a goodly number of ladies and gentlemen belonging to the city present, and we were glad to see a large number of hard-looking strangers in the audience whose bronzed and weather-beaten features gave evidence of many a hard-fought struggle with the turbulent waves of the ocean in its anger. It was pleasant also to notice that they appeared to appreciate the kindly hearts that prompted and carried into execution the plan for affording them such a cheerful and inexpensive entertainment which they heartily enjoyed and generously applauded. Those who furnished the music did exceedingly well, both vocally and instrumentally. It was a delightful occasion in which both musicians and listeners were mutually made glad.
