STATE NEWS.

Charlotte News: The season of heavy hog records is now open. Mr. Caleb Bost, who lives near Huntersville, killed two 14 month old pigs yesterday that weighed 540 pounds Harriss, Son & Co, cargo by E Kid each, and has two more that are der's Son. still heavier.

Raleigh News and Observer: At a preliminary meeting of the various committees of the Lodges of Odd Fellows of Richmond and Manchester, it was decided to extend to Grand Sire Busbee, of Raleigh, N. subject of Odd Fellowship, if con-sistent with his previous engagements, some time in the latter part of January or early in February

Durham Sun: A colored man on the plantation of Egbert Malone, who lives in the edge of Person county, was engaged last Wednes-day in cutting up feed for the stock. using a cutter run by horse power. at the time. The colored man got Rosin -ashore 24,923; affoat, 9,735; one of his hands caught in the knives and quicker than it takes to tell it his hand was cut off about two inches above the wrist. The dismembered hand went on through the knife and was chopped up into small pieces.

Raleigh Chronicle Tarboro special: Sad intelligence was brought to this place early this morning of the death of Thad Cherry, a lad of 15 years of age, who accidentally shot and killed himself yesterday evening while hunting at his home in this county. The particulars of the Cotton, 7,174; spirits, 968; rosin.22,-accident are most horrible to relate. 005. The little fellow, with some friends, went out rabbit hunting and in a short time a rabbit was started Thad, with both barrels of his gun sprung, made an effort to get on a log to shoot the rabbit, when both barrels were discharged. The entire loads were emptied into his head, severing it completely from Newton Enterprise: Mr. A. C. Lackey says that some years ago. Burley Ellis, of Alexander county. had an old house full of straw and a pen for hogs built around the house. One day one of the hogs disappeared and it was supposed that it had been stolen. But 77 days after its disappearance the straw was removed and the hog was found snug ly ensconced in the fireplace, on the side of the house opposite the door in which it had entered. —Wednesday afternoon Charlie Rowe, the fourteen year old son of Mr. M. M. Rowe, was out hunting, He was standing on a stump holding his gan when it slipped from his hand. Athe but-end struck the ground it was discharged, the load of shot striking his arm just above the wrist and serving the leaders and then hitting his face. All the flesh from one side of the face was shot off and the cheek bone badly shat tered.

Greensboro Workman: As stated by us on yesterday, Mr G. C. Ran dividually, and the C. C. Randle man Cotton Mill Co. has also as: signed. Mr. T. C. Worth, of this city, is assignee of the Cotton Mill Co. bas also as: Down Go the High Prices dleman has made an assignment inare about $30,000, and the umount of assets are not fully known. He informed us that he could not at present give a definite idea of the proportion of the assets to, the liabilities, yet he hoped by good management to so realize from the property as that there shall be as lit tle loss as possible to the creditors. C. C. Randleman made an indivi-dual assignment with J. S. McAlister as assignee. His liabilities are from $5,000 to $10,000. There are two preferred creditors, J. E. Ward, a clerk in the store, from whom he had borrowed money to the amount of $1,200, and a young lady for whom he was guardian, to the amount of tors are upon the same footing.

"I think she is; and we are economical, too,—have to be. My wife can make a little go further than anyone I ever knew, yet she's always surprising me with some dainty contrivance that adds to the comfort and beauty of our little home. prising me with some dainty contrivance that adds to the comfort and beauty of our little home, and she's always 'merry as a lark.' When I ask how she manages it, she always laughs and says: 'Oh! that's my secret!' But I think I've discovered her 'secret.' When we married, we both knew we should have to be very careful, but she made one condition: she would have her Magazine. And she was right! I wouldn't do without it myself for double the subscription price. We read it together, from the title-page to the last word: the stories keep our hearts young: the synopsis of important events and scientific matters keeps me pested so that I can talk understandingly of what is going on; my wife is always trying some me posted so that I can talk understandingly of what is going on; my wife is always trying some new idea from the household department; sha makes all her dresses and those for the children, and she gets all her patterns for nothing, with the Magazine; and we saved Joe when he was so sick with the croup, by doing just as directed in the Sanitarian Department. But I can't tell you half!"

"What wonderful Magazine is it?"

"Demorest's Family Magazine, and—"

"What! Why that's what Lil wanted so bad, and I told her it was an extravagance."

"Well, my friend, that's where you made a grand mistake, and one you'd better rectify as soon as you can. I'll take your 'snb.' right here, on my wife's account: she's bound to have a china tea-set in time for our tin wedding next month. My gold watch was the premium I got for getting up a club.
