The receipts of cotton at this port to-day foot up 227 bales.

But one day more and then old ninety will bid us all good bye.

There was a heavy frost this morning, and it has been succeeded by a beautiful, pleasant day.

The Bible class, conducted by Dr. Wood, will be held as usual at the Y. M. C. A. rooms at 8 o'clock this evening.

"Will you take an ice cream this evening," asked a dupe of a dupe. "No thanks," she replied. "I'll take a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup for my cold, please."

"Rubolio" razor and knife sharpeners. Something new and we think the best one ever made. See them. N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

I am Manufacturers Agent for Barbed and all kinds of Wire, Combination Wire and Iron Fences. Orders solicited. James I. Metts

A Christmas entertainment will be given to the scholars of the First Baptist Church Sunday School at the City Hall to-morrow evening.

Guns. We have them, bought before the passage of the McKinley bill and can give you the advantage of our low purchase. N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

We want Zeb Vance in the Senate and the "Zeb Vance" stove in your kitchen. They have been tried and found to be true; therefore we recommend them to you. N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

Housekeepers should have a "Perfection" meat cutter. It has the advantages of simple construction, durability and is easily cleaned. No knives to get out of order. Sold by the N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

We are promised a right lively theatrical season in January. A number of good companies are booked for that month. The manager of the Opera House is very careful and particular as to the troops with whom he makes engagements.

All except three of the fox hunters have returned to their homes. The others went out this morning, starting from Capt. Manning's at 6 o'clock. They were accompanied by several members of the Wilmington Fox Club. It was the last hunt of the party.

There will be a Christmas Tree at St. James' Home at 3 p. m. on Wednesday, the 31st, for the Sunday School. The teachers have spared no pains to make everything attractive, and a pleasant hour is promised the friends, who are cordially invited to attend.

Mr. Thomas M. Webb, of this city has received an elegant gold medal for his heroic services last summer in rescuing Mrs. Hayes and her sister from drowning at Wrightsville Beach. The medal is awarded by the U. S. Government, under an act of Congress.

A reception will be held at the rooms of the Young Men's Christian Association on New Year's Day, from 12 o'clock m. until 10 p. m., under the auspices of the Ladies Auxiliary. All young men are invited to visit the rooms, whether members or not.

We thank Senator Vance for a copy of his excellent speech on the Election bill. Surely, if this were read by those who now favor the bill it would work a revolution in their opinions—provided, first and always, they are not interested parties and are open to conviction.

Capt. Chichester came out this trip in charge of the steamship Pawnee. Capt. Tribou was sick and too unwell to command her but came out on her for the purpose of going to the Marine Hospital here for treatment. He felt so much better on arriving in port that he has concluded to return to New York on the steamer and not go to the hospital.

So many have been cured of rheumatism by Hood's Sarsaparilla that we urge all who suffer from the disease to try this medicine.

The Schedule B tax is due on January 1st and payable on the 10th inst. See notice in this issue.

Steamship Pawnee, which arrived here to-day, brought out a beautiful naphtha yacht, for Capt. Adkins, of Southport, who is to use it as a pleasure boat.

Ger. barque Alexandria, Rieckes, cleared to-day for Stettin, Ger., with 23,804 barrels rosin, valued at $5,700, shipped by Messrs. Paterson, Downing & Co.

Nor. barque Kvik, Hansen, cleared to-day for Bowling, Scotland, with 500 casks spirits and 2,966 barrels rosin, valued at $13,429.83, shipped by Messrs. Robinson & King.

The alarm of fire this afternoon from box 15 was caused by a basket of clothes catching fire in the closet of Capt. John F. Divine's residence, on Mulberry, between Second and Third streets. Damage slight and fully insured.

The outlook is for a large attendance at the grand New Year's ball to be given at Germania Hall to-morrow night by Germania Lodge No. 4, K. of P. There will be a happy time there then in dancing the old year out and the new year in.

Gratifying to All.
The high position attained and the universal acceptance and approval of the pleasant liquid fruit remedy Syrup of Figs, as the most excellent laxative known, illustrate the value of the qualities on which its success is based and are abundantly gratifying to the California Fig Syrup Company.

The Last Hunt.
Those gentlemen of the fox club who were in the run this morning returned to the city about noon, bringing their dogs with them. They went out about 6 o'clock this morning and had a fine run. The dogs started a fox just back of Mr. H. M. Bowden's place and after a run of three hours he was caught about two miles North of Summer Rest and not far from the Newark place. This hunt winds up the present season but the gentlemen from Goldsboro have had such a good time that they say they will come down and try it over again in a few weeks. The stock of foxes, by the way, has not been appreciably diminished.

A delightful entertainment was given last evening in the Luther Memorial Building. It was a repetition, by the Sunday School children of St. Paul's Church, of the cantata rendered by them last Friday night. The attendance was a large one. Master John Blomme personated "Santa Claus," and four little girls in white with gauze wings were "Fairies." Master Will Rehder was the "Will of the Wisp." The other characters were Mr. Hamilton and Isabel, personated by Mr. Fred Bisinger and Miss Louise Strauss; "Ling Fang," by Mr. H. Schukken; "Wawakena," an Alaska Indian, by Master Thomas Pae; "Lulochoo," an Egyptian, by Master Willie Hines; "Hassan," a Hindoo, by Master John Blomme; "Edward," "Eva," "Lena" and "Fannie," by Mr. Chas. Blomme; Misses Mamie Schukken, Maggie Strauss and Lilly Gerken.

The Madame Fry Concert.
The box sheet for the sale of tickets to the Madame Fry Concert at the Opera House, on Friday night, will be open at Mr. Yates' to-morrow morning. This entertainment will be one of unusual excellence and no lover of sweet sounds should miss it. It would be well for those who want choice seats to be on hand early to secure them. An exchange says that "no other vocal quartette exists whose voices blend more perfectly than those of Madame Fry and daughters. Madame Fry has devoted her entire time to the study of music, and began her public musical work at sixteen years of age; since that time she has filled many prominent positions as teacher of vocal and instrumental music, soloist in oratorio work, also soloist in many celebrated concerts. Naturally her daughters partake of her musical talent; hence the perfect and artistic rendering of their vocal quartette."

LEAUBELLE OIL.

Forecasts.

For North Carolina, warmer and fair weather.

Local forecasts, from 8 a. m. to day for Wilmington and vicinity, fair and warmer weather.

A Christmas Prophecy:
For some unaccountable reason, Christmas has always been considered a prophetic time, according to the day of the week upon which it falls. We cannot vouch for the truth of these forebodings, but in order that those who wish may test their accuracy for themselves we give some lines taken from an ancient manuscript in the British museum:

"If Christmas Day on Thursday be, A windy winter ye shall see; Windy weather in each week And hard tempests strong and thick. The summer shall be good and dry; Corn and beasts shall multiply; That year is good for land to till; Kings and princes shall die by kill. If a child born that day shall be; It shall happen right well for be; Of deeds, he shall be good and stable. Wise of speech and reasonable. Whoso that day goes thieving about He shall be punished without doubt And if sickness that day betide, It shall quickly from thee glide."

According to this old-fashioned rhyming seer, 1891 promises to be an excellent year for farmers and a deplorable one for royalty; while we may hope that the healthful breezes will eventually prevent all return of la-grippe, and the "dry, good summer" be more fruitful than was that of 1890.

American History.

The twenty-fifth volume of the Magazine of American History opens with a most attractive January number. The leading illustrated paper, from the ready pen of the editor, is entitled, "John Eriesson, the Builder of the Monitor," and one of the very best portraits extant of the great inventor forms the frontispiece to the new volume. The second article, "The Bladenburg Duelling Ground," is also handsomely illustrated, and is of national and popular interest. The fresh information in both these clever articles is notably worth preserving in permanent form. Col. Charles C. Jones, Jr., contributes an admirable paper on "Dr. Lyman Hall, Governor of Georgia in 1783 and signer of the Declaration of Independence;" Hon. Charles Aldrich, of Iowa, writes charmingly of the "Eloquence of Andrew Jackson;" Hon. James Phinney Baxter, President of the Maine Historical Society, contributes "Isaac Jogues, A. D. 1633," an exquisitely beautiful historic poem; Orrin B. Hallam gives the "Original Treasury Accounting Office;" and we have the first part of "Count de Fersen's Private Letters to his Father, 1788-1781," which are observations and opinions of an officer under Rochambeau in the French army during the Revolutionary war. Among the shorter papers "The United States Flag," and "Capital Punishment in 1749," are especially interesting. The several departments are quite up to the high standard of this magazine, the best one of the kind on this continent. Price, $5.00 a year.
