Bro. Stevens, of the Southport Leader, was here to day.

Full moon to-morrow morning at 48 minutes past 7 o'clock.

Hon. C. W. McClammy, of Scott's Hill, was in the city to day on a brief visit.

Oil stoves for heating, cooking and general use for sale by the N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

Only one day left in which to register. No one can register on election day unless he becomes of age on that day.

Farmers! We can supply you with plow castings of all kinds and farming implements at bottom prices. N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

Stormy weather is promised by Turner's almanac for the balance of this month but we think that the prediction will not be fulfilled.

He may pull and he may jump but the steel plow singletree sold by the N. Jacobi Hdw. Co. will hold your mule fast and hard to his work.

I am Manufacturer's Agent for Barbed and all kinds of Wire, Combination Wire and Iron Fences. Orders solicited. James I. Metts.

Br. sehr. Gamma, LeCain, cleared to day for Mayaguez, Porto Rico, with 185,065 feet lumber, valued at $3,785, shipped by Mr. E. Kidder's Son.

Mrs. J. A. Bonitz, with her son, Mr. Walter Bonitz, and the children, returned to the city yesterday from a visit to the lady's parents at Lynchburg.

And we tell you again that those bonds are not yet refunded and that they can't be refunded at all at par if $300,000 more is to be added to the bonded debt of the city.

"Let observation with extended view, survey good things from China to Peru" and he will not find any thing so astonishing as merit in killing all the pains that flesh is heir to, as he will know in Salvation Oil, when he has given it a fair trial.

Ladies! We have just received a few of those nice little hoes to use in working your flowers, and steel yard rakes for your yards that you have been inquiring for. N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

Our wish is gratified. We have Zeb Vance in the Senate, and now desire to place one of the celebrated "Zeb Vance" cook stoves in every home of the good "Old North State." N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

Rev. F. N. Skinner has accepted a call to St. Paul's Episcopal Church in this city and will take charge on May 1st. He is now in charge of a church in New York but is a native of South Carolina.

Mr. Joe Hinton, one of the young and popular proprietors of the Purcell House, attained his majority to-day and has been the recipient all day long of many hearty congratulations. He can vote now.

Mrs. Pritchard's class of young men, numbering about seventy, has invited her, at its expense, to attend and represent the class at the State Sunday School Convention, which meets in Fayetteville this week.

Mr. Rudolph Herring says that there are bacteria within the human body so minute that it would take seven thousand of them, put end to end, to measure an inch. Did Mr. Herring ever eat a little over-ripe Limburger cheese? or did he ever drink water from a river into which the whole of a city's sewerage was poured, at every hour of the day and night? If so, he is fully qualified to tell us all about bacteria.

It has been years since real estate has been as flat as it is to-day in the city of Wilmington. Last week a lot of desirable real estate in the lower part of the city was offered for sale, after having been liberally advertised in the Messenger. It was not sold because there was nobody there to buy it. Why was this? Let those who favor the addition of $300,000 to the bonded debt of the city answer.

No other preparation combines the positive economy, the peculiar merit and the medicinal power of Hood's Sarsaparilla.

This is pretty Easter weather. Hope it may continue.

Hon. Chas. M. Stedman is in the city from a visit to the South.

The Cape Fear Cornet Band, of Southport, will give a concert some evening soon.

A little snuff judiciously applied would go far to relieve the situation on the up-town streets and no "bonds" would be needed to do the work.

Notice is hereby given that application will be made to the next session of the Legislature to incorporate a company for the increase and propagation of catfish in the Cape Fear river, at and near Wilmington.

There is a gentleman in this city who recently built a nice frame dwelling for himself and put therein sewer pipes. He connected with a main which ran just in front of his house and it cost him $135. Do you hear that?

They were buying Christmas presents, when little Johnny remarked: "Now, buy something more mamma, you've got one quarter left." "Yes, dear, and I'm going to purchase something you and sister can't live without." "Is it a talking doll, mamma?" "No, indeed, it's a nice bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup."

Messrs. M. O'Brien, E. Glavin, T. Donlan, L. Brown, D. O'Connor and Wm. Flanagan, the committee who forwarded to Cardinal Gibbons the $100 contributed for the poor in Ireland at Hibernian Hall on St. Patrick's Day, received a prompt reply from that distinguished prelate in acknowledgment of its reception.

Feast of Purim.

The Feast of Purim, the great Jewish holiday, fell due to day. The Eleventh Annual Entertainment and Hop, given by and for the children of the congregation Temple of Israel, took place this afternoon and will be continued to night. A pretty little piece, "Princess Marguerite's Choice," was rendered by the young folks at Concordia Hall and this is to be followed to night by a banquet and ball. Mrs. I. L. Greenwald, Mrs. H. H. Kasprovicz, Mrs. S. Mendelsohn and Mrs. A. Shrier form the committee of arrangements and the musical directors are Miss Louise Katz and Miss Rose Marks.

VanAmringe vs. Taylor.

Mr. Marsden Bellamy, of counsel for Col. John D. Taylor, Clerk of the Superior Court for New Hanover, received a telegram this afternoon from Col. Thos. S. Kenan, Clerk of the Supreme Court, stating that the Court had affirmed the judgment of the Superior Court of this county in the case of VanAmringe vs. Taylor. This settles the question of the legality of the late county elections. It is now Sheriff Stedman and Clerk Taylor and Register Haar and that crooked little word if is nowhere about. Of course, if any of the other contestants want to try an ouster they can do so, but we think they have had enough of it now. The counsel for Col. Taylor in the case were Messrs. Marsden Bellamy and Geo. Rountree, Hon. D. L. Russell appearing for Mr. VanAmringe.

At this time of the year the blood changes, its circulation is sluggish and the system is not properly nourished. The result is loss of appetite, weakness, an oppressive feeling of fullness, too hot, and Oh! so tired. To cure and prevent Spring Fever take Simmons' Liver Regulator. All nature is now waking and everybody should invigorate the liver, kidneys and bowels with Simmons' Liver Regulator and they would not have so much biliousness, headache, dyspepsia and malaria all the rest of the year. You would not expect a plant to work off a winter's decay and bloom as good as ever without attention in the Spring. Don't expect it of your system. Take Simmons' Liver Regulator.

The Messenger Was Sold.

Quite a large crowd assembled at the Court House to-day, at 12 o'clock, to attend the sale of the Messenger and all of its property and equipments, books, accounts, franchises, &c. Messrs. Cronly & Morris were the auctioneers. Mr. Cronly announced, before calling for bids, that the sale would be positive and final, with the exception of one paper cutter, held by Col. T. W. Strange, and which was not included in the sale.

The first bid offered was $1,000 but this was rejected. Then $1,000 was offered. After some little crying this was raised to $1,250, then followed $1,400 and lastly $1,500, the whole being knocked down to Mr. Sol Weil, who announced that the bid must be entered in the name of Mr. Pembroke Jones, for whom he appeared. The crowd then slowly dispersed, much speculation being indulged in as to what Mr. Jones would do with his purchase.

The sale was a bona fide one. Mr. Jones holds claims, for himself and friends, aggregating several thousand dollars more than the price at which he purchased the property. The publication, it is said, will be continued and probably by a stock company. Orders have been issued to the force to go to work and the paper is to appear as usual to-morrow morning.

What the Constitution Requires.

It will be necessary to submit the question of issuing bonds for the construction of a new Court House to the people at the polls, although we understand that the opinion has been expressed that it will not be necessary. We have not seen the act but have been informed that the legislature therein abrogated—or attempted to abrogate—that clause of the Constitution which forbids the issuing of bonds without the sanction of the people. Sec. 7 or Art. 7 of the Constitution says:

No county, city, town or other municipal corporation shall contract any debt, pledge its faith, or loan its credit, nor shall any tax be levied or collected by any officer of the same, except for necessary expenses thereof, unless by a vote of a majority of the qualified voters therein.

In the same article of the instrument, Sec. 14, it is said:

The General Assembly shall have full power by statute to modify, change or abrogate any and all of the provisions of this article, and substantiate others in their place, except sections seven, nine and thirteen.

This last section, which concludes the article, seems to emphasize the fact that the legislature shall strictly observe the requirements of the excepted sections, of which section seven is the first.

It is claimed, we hear, that the issue is to be made under the plea that it is for "the necessary expenses" of the county. This is fallacious. There is really no necessity in the case. We have an old, ugly, unsightly barn for a Court House and we want something better, prettier and more convenient. That is all there is in it. The law can be administered with as much efficiency there as in a more handsome building and there is room enough to do the work in. We believe that the people would vote in favor of the matter but whether they will or not is not the question. That question is as to the validity of the bonds.

To secure this the requirements of the Constitution must be strictly complied with. In our opinion—and we merely seek to express it and not to obtrude it—these bonds would be invalid without the sanction and endorsement of the people.
