The newspaper men who visited Chimney Rock this week have all returned to their homes. They left the mountains yesterday morning and to-day are all in harness again. The editor of this paper was the last to arrive here, and he was too late in the forenoon to prepare an account of the delightful trip for to-day's paper. He will tell all about it on Monday.

One of the cars on the Wilmington Street Railway performed a strange feat to-day. As it was passing the corner of Fourth and Brunswick streets a pigeon belonging to Mr. George Heyer was feeding on the track. As the car approached it arose on its wings but was struck while in the air by the car and killed. It is probably the first time a bird was ever killed on the wing by a street car.

Life is short and time is fleeting, but Hood's Sarsaparilla will bless humanity as the ages roll on. Try it this season.

Yesterday's Boat Race. The surf boat race at Ocean View yesterday afternoon was the chief attraction of the day there. It was a triumph card and drew a large crowd there to see it. The course was one mile to sea and return, including the launching of the boats through the surf and the beaching of them on the return. There were four entries, the Seagull, Capt. J. P. Walton; the Annie, Capt. John F. Holt; the Trout, Capt. John H. Craig; and the Dread Naught, Capt. J. J. Melton. The first prize, $10 in money, was awarded the Dread Naught. The usual star premium of $50 in gold is offered for the best exhibit made by a lady resident of the State, with a second premium of $30. There is also a premium of $50 for the best display of any kind in the main exhibit building. The London-Bryan Marriage.

The Newbern Journal says that two of the prettiest marriages that ever occurred in that city took place Wednesday last, the contracting parties being Mr. Henry A. London, Jr., of Pittboro, to Miss Minnie Bryan, daughter of Judge H. R. Bryan, and Dr. Wm. H. Porter, of Boston, Mass., to Miss Mary L. Allen, daughter of Mr. Geo. Allen.

Mr. London and Miss Bryan were married at high noon in the Episcopal church, Rev. T. M. N. George, rector, officiating.

The floral decorations, which were prepared for the occasion by Mr. S. C. Radcliff, consisted of a double arch of roses in varieties and pink hollyhocks with a pendant bouquet of crimson amaryllis and cape jessamines, at the centre and the back ground, was set off by ornamental grasses in varieties and two dozen shining candles.

The ceremony being over many invited guests gathered at the hospitable home of the bride's parents and partook of a wedding breakfast, which was everything in its way that could be wished for.

In the spacious parlor some half a dozen tables were loaded with presents, as beautiful an array as was probably ever made in the history of the city. The presents were between one and two hundred in number and were elegant. There was a profuse supply of articles of gold and silver in delicate workmanship, and fine paintings and other gifts both ornamental and useful were abundant. The presents came from several States, New York, Virginia, Georgia, South Carolina, Florida and Texas were all represented among them.

Grand Lodge, K. of P. Messrs. Thos. D. Meares, John L. Dudley, John Haar, Jr., Washington Callett, H. L. Pentress and W. H. Gerken, representatives of the order of Knights of Pythias of this city, returned home last evening from attendance at the Grand Lodge of that order, held in the city of Greensboro during this week. They express themselves as being highly pleased at the knightly and courteous attention received at the hands of the Greensboro brethren, the "City of Flowers."

They all unite in saying that it was not only a harmonious session but a memorable one. The Supreme Chancellor of the World was present and delivered an eloquent and instructive address, which was highly enjoyed by the members present. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

P. G. C.—Chas. Benbow, Greensboro.

G. C.—E. A. Ebert, Winston.

G. V. C.—Holt, Greensboro.

G. P.—Law, Greensboro.

G. K. R. & S.—Jno. L. Dudley, Wilmington.

G. M. of E.—Ward, Raleigh.

G. M. at A.—Wilson, Raleigh.

G. I. G.—Bundy, Monroe.

Sup. Rep.—W. S. Cook, Fayetteville.

Considerable business for the good of the order was transacted, and the indications are that Pythianism will soon be the watchword from the seaboard to the mountains.

The next session will be held in Winston on the third Tuesday in June next.

A tired woman, just as much as a sick and ailing one, needs Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. That builds up, strengthens, and invigorates the entire female system. It regulates and promotes all the proper functions of womanhood, improves digestion, enriches the blood, dispels aches and pains, melancholy and nervousness, brings refreshing sleep, and restores health and strength.

It's a powerful restorative tonic and soothes the nerves, made especially for woman's needs, and the only guaranteed remedy for woman's weaknesses and ailments. In all "female complaints" and irregularities, if it ever fails to benefit or cure, you have your money back.

A great many medicines "relieve" the pain in the Head. That means that it's driven from the head into the throat and lungs. But, by it's mild, soothing, cleansing and healing properties, Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy perfectly and permanently cures.

Importation. A FEW NICE CARLSBAD CHINA DINNER and TEA SETS. A bargain for those in need of such set.

Peterson's for July. "From the Atlantic to the Pacific," an interesting illustrated article, makes one of the attractions of the July New Peterson. "Carolina Women in the World's Fair" gives a series of well-written biographies accompanied by portraits. "Old Valenciennes China" is a most delightful article, with appropriate illustrations. "John Sanderson's Coming" is in that gifted writer's best vein and is capably illustrated. Ruth Menev Stuart begins a brilliant novel entitled "Caesar." Octave Thanet contributes a delightful sketch styled "A Noiseless Revolution," and concludes her "Shelf Full of Western Books" begun in the June number. "Ouray Jim's Partner" is a dramatic story of California life. "Ariana and the God" is a tale of ancient Greece. "At the Sign of the Star" is a delicious sketch of life in a German boarding house. "Memories" is an absorbing bit of philosophic dreaming. The contributions we have cited are a proof of the variety of the number's contents, and the names of the authors a warrant for its excellence.
