Mr. Payne said he hoped the House would pass directly upon the prayer of the petitioner, without reference to the man or the manner of his memorial. Mr. G. A. Miller in a few brief remarks supported the motion before the House. Mr. Cherry opposed the motion. His peculiar position towards the memorialist, prevented his entering fully into the debate, were he inclined to do so, and he was not. He thought the high legal evidence submitted in the memorial, such as should be entitled to the consideration of the House. Mr. Guthrie coincided in the views of the gentleman from Rowan, (Mr. Ellis,) and he moved that the House do reject the memorial. The Speaker decided the motion out of order.
