Friday, Dec. 13th. Mr. Dockery from the committee on Finance, Presented to the Sen to the following Report, which was, on motion of Mr. Francis, sent to the House, together with the accompanying documents, with a proposition

The committee on Finance have proceeded, according to the provisions of the 7th section of 215th chapter of the Revised Statutes, to inspect the books and accounts of the Treasurer and Comptroller, and carefully to examine the exact condition of the statement and condition of the deposites made in the Banks by the Treasurer, and to ascertain the amount of money and funds of the State in the Treasury on the advertisement, they will be continued until and Banks, and respectfully submit the following report, as the result of their investiga-

The committee desiring to investigate this subject, and the General Assembly having given them power to send for persons and papers, and to administer oaths, submit the following testimony, taken in pursuance of the resolution of the two branches of the Legislature, which testimony is intended as a part of this report. The committee forbear the expression of any opinion as to the person to be held liable for the deficiency, further than to say that two certificates were found on file, one signed by the Principal Clerk of the last House of Commons, for eighty-one dollars, and paid by the late Treasurer flinton, and the other for two hundred and twenty-eight dollars, and signed by the Speaker of the late House of Commons, both in favor of door keeper Page, and endorsed by him; but the committee are unanimous in the opinion, the State, as the matter now stands, has lost $81.
