There is now on the premises and in successful operation, a saw mill running two saws, and a grist mill, and cotton gin. All of which are run upon the best and most improved plans. The home demand for lumber is always great, with the additional advantage of transporting it by the river to Georgetown, S. C., and the intermediate landings. Timber for the use of the mill is plentiful. The grist mill good and regular standing, are invited to attend.

M. W. HARRISS, M. D., and cotton gin have each a fine custom.

The lands are, generally, heavily timbered, and being on and near the river, are very valuable for turpentine, ton timber, &c. Turpentine can always be sold at a fair price in Lumberton; and timber at Georgetown and the steam mills

There are about 500 acres of cleared land, under good fence, and in a high state of cultivation, well adapted to the various articles of produce usually raised in this latitude. The dwelling house is large and comfortable. The negro abins are all frame work; well lighted and ventilated, brick chimney and sbingle roofs; most of them have been erected within the last five years.

The corn and fodder houses, stable buildings, &c., are mostly new and well located. The location is healthy. The age. water, both well and spring, is excellent. There is also upon the premises a large store house onefourth of a mile from the dwelling, a Presbyterian Church one mile, and a Methodist Church two miles. The store house is in a public place. The stand, for selling goods and making good debts, is equal to any in the State.

There is regular service in both Churches, by ministers their respective denominations. Persons desiring further information, can address the subscribers at Gilopoliss or examine the premises. Preference of the State. I will also pay $100 for evidence that will enawill be given to any one buying the whole, or it will be divided to suit the convenience of purchasers. the Discarded Daughter, &c , &c. The Confessional or the Black Penitents, or the Italian, by Mrs. Radeliffe. Minnie Grey, or who is the Heir, by the author of Amy Lawrence, beautifully illustrated. Zingra, the Gipsey, by Annetta Maria Maillard. Claude Duval, the dashing Highway man.

Lord Saxondale, or Life among the London Aristocracy

This work is distinguished in an extraordinary degree, by all those attractive qualities which have rendered the name of G W. M. Reynolds so widely elevated. Gas Howard, or How to Wina Wife, by the author of Min nie Grey, &c. There is still hope for English Literature so long as such works as Minnie Grey and Gus Howard shall continue to be written. The former we have wholly read : the latter, which is a sequel to the first, we are now engaged in reading; and we must confess that we have rarely been so deeply interested and entertained, as in their perusal. Stories of Waterloo, by W. H. Maxwell. The Gipsey, by G. P. R. James. First Love, a story of Woman's Heart, by Eugene Sue. The Mysterious Marksman, or the Out-laws of New York, by Emmerson Bennett.
