Affairs in Kansas.

We learn from our western exchanges that Gov. Geary has returned to the territorial legislature, without his approval, the bill to provide for taking the consus of the Territory and for calling a constitutional convention. The principal objection is, that the legislature "failed to make any provision to submit the constitution, when framed, to the consideration of the people for their ratification or rejection."

It reviews the progress made in agriculture, and contains excellent suggestions for future improvement. Touching the part which ladies should take in rural pursuits, he relates an anecdote which, as it offers a striking contrast to the knowledge possessed by many American ladies, is worth repeating - Country Gentleman. " As showing the interest English Ladies take in Agriculture, I cannot but relate a casual interview I chanced to have with an English lady, in going up in the express train from London to York.
