

From the Lynchburg Virginian. The March of Revolution.

Revolutions, it has been well said, never go backward. Human wisdom cannot comprehend their ending...

Not so flagitious in itself, and certainly with no purpose to bridge the rights and privileges of the people...

We do not wish to throw off the North West, but as many of its people have acted. It contains many good and true men...

Such is the tendency for this expedition. It is but about eight miles from Helena, from which place we were sent at any time as they may get ready...

A little incident came to our knowledge of a certain party who had purchased a large amount of wool and sugar...

Correspondence between the commander of the Army of Tennessee and the Department of South Carolina, Georgia and Florida...

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF TENNESSEE, TULLAHOMA, TENN., JULY 27, 1863. DEAR GENERAL: It is a source of much gratification...

ANOTHER RAID BY CAPT. MOSEY.—Capt. Mosey, of Gen. Stuart's cavalry, made another successful dash into the enemy's lines...

Northern View of the Yazoo Pass. [Special Correspondence of the Chicago Times.]

MOBILE, July 25. It is not a little gratifying to see the little inquiry will be excited at the date of a communication from Moon Lake...

The Richmond Dispatch has received a copy of the New York Caucasian—a paper noted for the boldness of its protests against the usurpation of power by Lincoln...

The South, endangered by this huge and devilish luxury of Abolitionism, seceded, withdrew, and utterly refused to recognize as its Chief Magistrate one who not only did not represent the will and wishes of a single citizen in fifteen States...

On the contrary, they really believed themselves the best possible judges of their own safety, both of the measure and of the mode of redress. It is advised by Jefferson, and as the prospect of having their rights defended by others...

The Northern "friends of the South" had loved Mr. Lincoln to abandon the "principles" of his party; and to be ruled by the decision of the Supreme Court, of course he would have been a man of blood spilt in Virginia...

It was in the stretch beyond this lake, leading to the Coldwater river, that the enemy sought to obstruct the way of the timber that overhangs the stream. The distance is not far from fifteen miles by the course of the pass...

The New York Tribune, in its editorial column, says: "We have from our special correspondent at Port Royal the startling announcement that a force of 5,000 negroes, led by which are supported by regular troops is just ready to enter one of the most densely populated districts of the Department of the South..."

For some weeks preparations for a foray upon an extensive scale into some of the most thickly populated districts of one of the three States comprised in the Department of the South have been in progress with the greatest possible secrecy...

Whoever lava will burn and flow and despoil "conservation" and "peace" resolutions.

The exact direction of the expedition, if attempted will be heard of "through Southern" or "Northern prints." The expedition will never be attempted. They dare not attempt it.

The Richmond Dispatch has received a copy of the New York Caucasian—a paper noted for the boldness of its protests against the usurpation of power by Lincoln. Some of the articles are interesting, both for their boldness and the truths they contain.

The South, endangered by this huge and devilish luxury of Abolitionism, seceded, withdrew, and utterly refused to recognize as its Chief Magistrate one who not only did not represent the will and wishes of a single citizen in fifteen States...

On the contrary, they really believed themselves the best possible judges of their own safety, both of the measure and of the mode of redress. It is advised by Jefferson, and as the prospect of having their rights defended by others...

The Northern "friends of the South" had loved Mr. Lincoln to abandon the "principles" of his party; and to be ruled by the decision of the Supreme Court, of course he would have been a man of blood spilt in Virginia...

It was in the stretch beyond this lake, leading to the Coldwater river, that the enemy sought to obstruct the way of the timber that overhangs the stream. The distance is not far from fifteen miles by the course of the pass...

The New York Tribune, in its editorial column, says: "We have from our special correspondent at Port Royal the startling announcement that a force of 5,000 negroes, led by which are supported by regular troops is just ready to enter one of the most densely populated districts of the Department of the South..."

For some weeks preparations for a foray upon an extensive scale into some of the most thickly populated districts of one of the three States comprised in the Department of the South have been in progress with the greatest possible secrecy...

Mr. Vallandigham's Late Speech.

The fact that this speech has been so universally published and lauded throughout the Confederacy and by the Democratic party of the North, causes one a strange sort of feeling to read an article which expresses its hostility—more particularly when the article is done by a Southerner. We, therefore, publish the following extract from what may be termed a critique on Mr. Vallandigham's speech, which we find in the Mobile Tribune:

Mr. Vallandigham's speech is a masterpiece of eloquence and logic. It is a mixture of sense and nonsense, frenzy and folly, madness and reason. After tracing faithfully the history of the war and progress of the Abolition party at the North, and proving that Lincoln is the most nefarious liar upon earth, after exposing the deceit and treachery of the villain and his party in the affair at Fort Sumter, in their endeavor to strike the first blow...

Mr. Vallandigham's speech is a masterpiece of eloquence and logic. It is a mixture of sense and nonsense, frenzy and folly, madness and reason. After tracing faithfully the history of the war and progress of the Abolition party at the North, and proving that Lincoln is the most nefarious liar upon earth, after exposing the deceit and treachery of the villain and his party in the affair at Fort Sumter, in their endeavor to strike the first blow...

Mr. Vallandigham's speech is a masterpiece of eloquence and logic. It is a mixture of sense and nonsense, frenzy and folly, madness and reason. After tracing faithfully the history of the war and progress of the Abolition party at the North, and proving that Lincoln is the most nefarious liar upon earth, after exposing the deceit and treachery of the villain and his party in the affair at Fort Sumter, in their endeavor to strike the first blow...

Mr. Vallandigham's speech is a masterpiece of eloquence and logic. It is a mixture of sense and nonsense, frenzy and folly, madness and reason. After tracing faithfully the history of the war and progress of the Abolition party at the North, and proving that Lincoln is the most nefarious liar upon earth, after exposing the deceit and treachery of the villain and his party in the affair at Fort Sumter, in their endeavor to strike the first blow...

Mr. Vallandigham's speech is a masterpiece of eloquence and logic. It is a mixture of sense and nonsense, frenzy and folly, madness and reason. After tracing faithfully the history of the war and progress of the Abolition party at the North, and proving that Lincoln is the most nefarious liar upon earth, after exposing the deceit and treachery of the villain and his party in the affair at Fort Sumter, in their endeavor to strike the first blow...

Mr. Vallandigham's speech is a masterpiece of eloquence and logic. It is a mixture of sense and nonsense, frenzy and folly, madness and reason. After tracing faithfully the history of the war and progress of the Abolition party at the North, and proving that Lincoln is the most nefarious liar upon earth, after exposing the deceit and treachery of the villain and his party in the affair at Fort Sumter, in their endeavor to strike the first blow...

Mr. Vallandigham's speech is a masterpiece of eloquence and logic. It is a mixture of sense and nonsense, frenzy and folly, madness and reason. After tracing faithfully the history of the war and progress of the Abolition party at the North, and proving that Lincoln is the most nefarious liar upon earth, after exposing the deceit and treachery of the villain and his party in the affair at Fort Sumter, in their endeavor to strike the first blow...

From the Richmond Enquirer. From the Blackwater.

FRANKLIN, March 17th, 1863. This morning, at about 7 o'clock, a bold attempt was made by a body of cavalry and a battery of artillery, under command of Col. Spers, to take a rifle piece of Wright's battery, under charge of Lieut. Watkinson, that was on duty at one of our picket posts...

At the residence of the bride's step father, at Moore's Creek, New Hanover county, N. C., on the morning of the 23rd inst. by Rev. A. M. Keenan, D. D., to Miss MARY C. McALISTER, both of New Hanover county. Bilingual Recorder please copy.

DEEP CATTLE.—Are in demand, and none worthy of note coming to market. We quote on the hoof at 20 to 30 cents per lb. for net meat. We quote in carcasses, and meet with ready sale. We quote from car to 70 to 80 cents per lb. for hog, round, in quality.

WILMINGTON MARKET, March 26, 1863. DEEP CATTLE.—Are in demand, and none worthy of note coming to market. We quote on the hoof at 20 to 30 cents per lb. for net meat. We quote in carcasses, and meet with ready sale. We quote from car to 70 to 80 cents per lb. for hog, round, in quality.

THE HALLOCK.—The letter of our Richmond correspondent, of date the 7th, would lead the public to infer that Gerard Hallock, long known as the editor and proprietor of the New York Journal of Commerce, is still in the interest in that establishment. This is not the case. He has retired from the management of the Journal, and is now engaged in a business in New York.

THE ELECTION IN NEW HAMPSHIRE.—So far as the returns from the New Hampshire elections have been received, the probabilities now seem to be that the Democratic candidate for Governor has been defeated by the combination opposed to him. But whether this is the case or not, it is certain that Mr. Eastman is elected, or falls short of an election by a few dozen votes, it is still a Democratic triumph. New Hampshire, which, in the Presidential election, gave Lincoln a majority of nearly three thousand over Douglas—now shows, in that small State, a Republican majority of about twenty thousand over the Democrats.

A SKIRMISH IN FLORIDA.—On Tuesday last the Yankees, from 1000 to 1200 men, advanced some two or three miles from the town of Apalachicola. Their object was to burn down some buildings behind which the Confederates were stationed. Major Bragg's battalion attacked them, and the fight lasted for an hour, during which we had five men wounded, but none killed. During the skirmish the enemy's wagons could be seen carrying their dead and wounded. The enemy being in superior force, came near surrounding the Confederates who were compelled to retire to a more favorable position. The centre of the Yankee force was composed of white troops, and their right and left wings of negroes, and their right and left wings of negroes, and their right and left wings of negroes.

AN UNFORTUNATE MARRIAGE.—We find the following in a recent number of the Port Hudson, (La.) News: A paragraph appeared in our last paper stating that Mrs. Harriet M. Skipton's landing had married the Captain of the Queen of the West. The report is true, as we have it from one who knows. This lady was for a long time a member of the parish of Pointe Coupee, her father, H. K. Moss, being a large sugar planter on the Bayou Focher. Her marriage with the Yankee officer was somewhat romantic, inasmuch as that which the Federal army would have been a great hindrance to her landing, a difficulty occurred among them, and hearing the disturbance Mrs. H. went out to see what was the matter. In the middle one of the muskets went off and the ball passed through the lady's arm, wounding her severely. As Dr. physician was to be found in the neighborhood, Mrs. H. was taken on board one of the gunboats for treatment. There she met Capt. Sullivan, who she afterwards married. Her marriage was, however, not of long duration. He never returned to smile upon such a union of discordant elements. In the fight with the "Queen," the Captain's husband, Mrs. H. was among the first killed, and now she is a widow, and, perhaps, to become the wife of another Yankee.

From the Richmond Enquirer. From the Blackwater.

FRANKLIN, March 17th, 1863. This morning, at about 7 o'clock, a bold attempt was made by a body of cavalry and a battery of artillery, under command of Col. Spers, to take a rifle piece of Wright's battery, under charge of Lieut. Watkinson, that was on duty at one of our picket posts...

At the residence of the bride's step father, at Moore's Creek, New Hanover county, N. C., on the morning of the 23rd inst. by Rev. A. M. Keenan, D. D., to Miss MARY C. McALISTER, both of New Hanover county. Bilingual Recorder please copy.

DEEP CATTLE.—Are in demand, and none worthy of note coming to market. We quote on the hoof at 20 to 30 cents per lb. for net meat. We quote in carcasses, and meet with ready sale. We quote from car to 70 to 80 cents per lb. for hog, round, in quality.

WILMINGTON MARKET, March 26, 1863. DEEP CATTLE.—Are in demand, and none worthy of note coming to market. We quote on the hoof at 20 to 30 cents per lb. for net meat. We quote in carcasses, and meet with ready sale. We quote from car to 70 to 80 cents per lb. for hog, round, in quality.

THE HALLOCK.—The letter of our Richmond correspondent, of date the 7th, would lead the public to infer that Gerard Hallock, long known as the editor and proprietor of the New York Journal of Commerce, is still in the interest in that establishment. This is not the case. He has retired from the management of the Journal, and is now engaged in a business in New York.

THE ELECTION IN NEW HAMPSHIRE.—So far as the returns from the New Hampshire elections have been received, the probabilities now seem to be that the Democratic candidate for Governor has been defeated by the combination opposed to him. But whether this is the case or not, it is certain that Mr. Eastman is elected, or falls short of an election by a few dozen votes, it is still a Democratic triumph. New Hampshire, which, in the Presidential election, gave Lincoln a majority of nearly three thousand over Douglas—now shows, in that small State, a Republican majority of about twenty thousand over the Democrats.

A SKIRMISH IN FLORIDA.—On Tuesday last the Yankees, from 1000 to 1200 men, advanced some two or three miles from the town of Apalachicola. Their object was to burn down some buildings behind which the Confederates were stationed. Major Bragg's battalion attacked them, and the fight lasted for an hour, during which we had five men wounded, but none killed. During the skirmish the enemy's wagons could be seen carrying their dead and wounded. The enemy being in superior force, came near surrounding the Confederates who were compelled to retire to a more favorable position. The centre of the Yankee force was composed of white troops, and their right and left wings of negroes, and their right and left wings of negroes.

AN UNFORTUNATE MARRIAGE.—We find the following in a recent number of the Port Hudson, (La.) News: A paragraph appeared in our last paper stating that Mrs. Harriet M. Skipton's landing had married the Captain of the Queen of the West. The report is true, as we have it from one who knows. This lady was for a long time a member of the parish of Pointe Coupee, her father, H. K. Moss, being a large sugar planter on the Bayou Focher. Her marriage with the Yankee officer was somewhat romantic, inasmuch as that which the Federal army would have been a great hindrance to her landing, a difficulty occurred among them, and hearing the disturbance Mrs. H. went out to see what was the matter. In the middle one of the muskets went off and the ball passed through the lady's arm, wounding her severely. As Dr. physician was to be found in the neighborhood, Mrs. H. was taken on board one of the gunboats for treatment. There she met Capt. Sullivan, who she afterwards married. Her marriage was, however, not of long duration. He never returned to smile upon such a union of discordant elements. In the fight with the "Queen," the Captain's husband, Mrs. H. was among the first killed, and now she is a widow, and, perhaps, to become the wife of another Yankee.

From the Richmond Enquirer. From the Blackwater.

FRANKLIN, March 17th, 1863. This morning, at about 7 o'clock, a bold attempt was made by a body of cavalry and a battery of artillery, under command of Col. Spers, to take a rifle piece of Wright's battery, under charge of Lieut. Watkinson, that was on duty at one of our picket posts...

At the residence of the bride's step father, at Moore's Creek, New Hanover county, N. C., on the morning of the 23rd inst. by Rev. A. M. Keenan, D. D., to Miss MARY C. McALISTER, both of New Hanover county. Bilingual Recorder please copy.

DEEP CATTLE.—Are in demand, and none worthy of note coming to market. We quote on the hoof at 20 to 30 cents per lb. for net meat. We quote in carcasses, and meet with ready sale. We quote from car to 70 to 80 cents per lb. for hog, round, in quality.

WILMINGTON MARKET, March 26, 1863. DEEP CATTLE.—Are in demand, and none worthy of note coming to market. We quote on the hoof at 20 to 30 cents per lb. for net meat. We quote in carcasses, and meet with ready sale. We quote from car to 70 to 80 cents per lb. for hog, round, in quality.

THE HALLOCK.—The letter of our Richmond correspondent, of date the 7th, would lead the public to infer that Gerard Hallock, long known as the editor and proprietor of the New York Journal of Commerce, is still in the interest in that establishment. This is not the case. He has retired from the management of the Journal, and is now engaged in a business in New York.

THE ELECTION IN NEW HAMPSHIRE.—So far as the returns from the New Hampshire elections have been received, the probabilities now seem to be that the Democratic candidate for Governor has been defeated by the combination opposed to him. But whether this is the case or not, it is certain that Mr. Eastman is elected, or falls short of an election by a few dozen votes, it is still a Democratic triumph. New Hampshire, which, in the Presidential election, gave Lincoln a majority of nearly three thousand over Douglas—now shows, in that small State, a Republican majority of about twenty thousand over the Democrats.

A SKIRMISH IN FLORIDA.—On Tuesday last the Yankees, from 1000 to 1200 men, advanced some two or three miles from the town of Apalachicola. Their object was to burn down some buildings behind which the Confederates were stationed. Major Bragg's battalion attacked them, and the fight lasted for an hour, during which we had five men wounded, but none killed. During the skirmish the enemy's wagons could be seen carrying their dead and wounded. The enemy being in superior force, came near surrounding the Confederates who were compelled to retire to a more favorable position. The centre of the Yankee force was composed of white troops, and their right and left wings of negroes, and their right and left wings of negroes.

AN UNFORTUNATE MARRIAGE.—We find the following in a recent number of the Port Hudson, (La.) News: A paragraph appeared in our last paper stating that Mrs. Harriet M. Skipton's landing had married the Captain of the Queen of the West. The report is true, as we have it from one who knows. This lady was for a long time a member of the parish of Pointe Coupee, her father, H. K. Moss, being a large sugar planter on the Bayou Focher. Her marriage with the Yankee officer was somewhat romantic, inasmuch as that which the Federal army would have been a great hindrance to her landing, a difficulty occurred among them, and hearing the disturbance Mrs. H. went out to see what was the matter. In the middle one of the muskets went off and the ball passed through the lady's arm, wounding her severely. As Dr. physician was to be found in the neighborhood, Mrs. H. was taken on board one of the gunboats for treatment. There she met Capt. Sullivan, who she afterwards married. Her marriage was, however, not of long duration. He never returned to smile upon such a union of discordant elements. In the fight with the "Queen," the Captain's husband, Mrs. H. was among the first killed, and now she is a widow, and, perhaps, to become the wife of another Yankee.