

TELEGRAPHIC
Reports of the Press Association.

Entered according to the Act of Congress, in the year 1863, by J. S. THOMAS, in the Clerk's Office of the District Court of the Confederate States for the Northern District of Virginia.

THE ASBURY NOTES FURNISHED.

MAON, Geo., April 1.—The total amount funded in this city has been nine million five hundred thousand dollars.

AGANON, Geo., April 1.—The amount funded here is one million one hundred and forty-one thousand nine hundred dollars.

MOBILE, Ala., April 1.—The amount funded here is eleven million five hundred and twenty-seven thousand six hundred dollars.

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., April 2.—I was informed and thirty-five thousand dollars have been received from the State.

SARASOTA, Fla., April 2.—The amount funded here is $1,354,000.

MAON, Geo., April 2.—Funded here $13,511,500 besides a large amount paid in by drawing drafts.

ALABAMA, April 2.—The amount funded here is $1,581,900.

ALABAMA, April 2.—Amount funded here is $15,700,000.

ATLANTA, April 4th, 1864.

Eight million eight hundred thousand dollars were funded here by the receipt of bonds from the Treasury.

FROM RICHMOND.

It is understood that the Secretary of the Treasury proposes the currency act to authorize the issue of new currency to the extent of one-third the amount funded in four per cent. certificates, but that the Treasury will not postpone the necessity of any issues under this construction, until Congress meets.

Prices continue to advance in consequence of the large number of Government bonds.

The amount taken at Richmond is $21,337,000. Official returns from nine depositories in Virginia, five in North Carolina, eight in South Carolina, twelve in Georgia, one in Florida, and one in Alabama, show the receipt of one hundred and seventy-five million of bonds. It is estimated that the returns from other depositories will increase the amount to two hundred million.

The flag of truce boat, with one thousand prisoners, is expected on Wednesday.

Official despatches from Gen. Forrest state that he moved direct from Jackson to Paducah in fifty hours; held the town ten hours, and could have held it longer, but found the rebels in the city, and he was obliged to retreat. He captured many stores, horses, and built a steamer. His loss at Union City and Paducah was twenty-five killed and wounded. Col. Thompson was killed at Union City. The enemy's loss at Paducah was fifty killed and wounded. Six hundred Yankees were captured during the expedition, and are now at Paducah.

NORTHERN NEWS.

RICHMOND, April 2nd, 1864.

Snow to the depth of six inches fell this morning, which was followed by a rain shower.

The New York Herald, of the 29th ult., has been received. It contains a dispatch from Paris stating that the French army has been defeated at the battle of the 29th.

The House of Representatives has laid on the table a vote of 63 to 49 a resolution granting the use of the Hall to George Thompson or a committee of his friends.

The organization of the army of the Potomac is progressing.

The 25th gold fell to 164, in consequence of the issue of gold certificates, but rallied and closed at 165.

LATER FROM THE UNITED STATES.

ATLANTA, April 2d, 1864.

The Nashville Union of the 27th ult., contains interesting particulars of Gen. Forrest's march on the 23d of March.

Gen. Sherman's army of 100,000 men is now in the city of New Orleans, and is expected to leave for the Gulf of Mexico in a few days.

The Federal garrison at Hickman was withdrawn.

Gen. Sherman proposes to abandon Hickman and Union City, and to move on to Paducah.

Advices from New Orleans of March 19th, state Alexandria, Va., surrendered to Porter's fleet without opposition.

Gen. Sherman's army of 100,000 men is now in the city of New Orleans, and is expected to leave for the Gulf of Mexico in a few days.

The President has dismissed Col. Woolford, of Kentucky, from service.

Sanitary dates of the 23d state that the Government is issuing 100,000 dollars daily to indigent citizens. They are required to go North within 14 days, or stop drawing the money.

There are reports that the rebels are making active preparations for an advance into Kentucky.

Sanitary dates of the 23d state that the Government is issuing 100,000 dollars daily to indigent citizens. They are required to go North within 14 days, or stop drawing the money.

There are reports that the rebels are making active preparations for an advance into Kentucky.

Sanitary dates of the 23d state that the Government is issuing 100,000 dollars daily to indigent citizens. They are required to go North within 14 days, or stop drawing the money.

There are reports that the rebels are making active preparations for an advance into Kentucky.

Sanitary dates of the 23d state that the Government is issuing 100,000 dollars daily to indigent citizens. They are required to go North within 14 days, or stop drawing the money.

There are reports that the rebels are making active preparations for an advance into Kentucky.

Sanitary dates of the 23d state that the Government is issuing 100,000 dollars daily to indigent citizens. They are required to go North within 14 days, or stop drawing the money.

There are reports that the rebels are making active preparations for an advance into Kentucky.

Sanitary dates of the 23d state that the Government is issuing 100,000 dollars daily to indigent citizens. They are required to go North within 14 days, or stop drawing the money.

There are reports that the rebels are making active preparations for an advance into Kentucky.

Sanitary dates of the 23d state that the Government is issuing 100,000 dollars daily to indigent citizens. They are required to go North within 14 days, or stop drawing the money.

There are reports that the rebels are making active preparations for an advance into Kentucky.

Sanitary dates of the 23d state that the Government is issuing 100,000 dollars daily to indigent citizens. They are required to go North within 14 days, or stop drawing the money.

There are reports that the rebels are making active preparations for an advance into Kentucky.

Sanitary dates of the 23d state that the Government is issuing 100,000 dollars daily to indigent citizens. They are required to go North within 14 days, or stop drawing the money.

There are reports that the rebels are making active preparations for an advance into Kentucky.

Sanitary dates of the 23d state that the Government is issuing 100,000 dollars daily to indigent citizens. They are required to go North within 14 days, or stop drawing the money.

There are reports that the rebels are making active preparations for an advance into Kentucky.

Sanitary dates of the 23d state that the Government is issuing 100,000 dollars daily to indigent citizens. They are required to go North within 14 days, or stop drawing the money.

captured the place after four assaults, losing one hundred and fifty killed and one thousand wounded, among whom was Col. Thompson of the 3d Kentucky Regiment. The Federal army killed nearly fifty wounded. Col. Hicks, commanding at Paducah, had eight hundred men, mostly negroes. Forrest burnt all the government stores.

A telegram from Columbus, March 27th, says that Forrest was at Paducah, between that place and Mayfield. So general history says he was constantly repeating, "I will burn Mayfield as I have done Paducah." One regiment lost 3,000 men, and another 1,000. The rebels were marching towards Clinton at first accounts.

The steamer Perry was fired into at Pass Hickman. A dispatch from Paducah says that Col. E. Craighead, and seven of his guerrillas, were captured near Mayfield. Gen. Rowan has suspended the circulation of the New York Metropolitan Review in Missouri.

There is a heavy thunder storm, and rain here last night.

FROM NORTHERN GEORGIA.

DALTON, Ga., April 5th, 1864.

News from inside the enemy's lines state that two brigades of infantry have been sent to operate against Forts. Fisher and Wheeler on the Potomac.

Forty regiments of Federal batteries were returned to Ohio to recruit, raised only five thousand in three months.

The Federalists went out into Alabama on a plundering expedition, under Dodge, have returned to De Kalb County, and other divisions of Logan's corps are at Lardersville, picking the Huntsville and Stevenson Railroad and the river.

In the Confederate uniforms, came to Triens Factory, near Sumterville, and committed numerous depredations on Saturday last.

FROM RICHMOND.

RICHMOND, Va., April 5th, 1864.

The rainy spell continues, and the Confederates are much annoyed. The fisheries are interrupted. The heavy condition of the roads and the inclemency of the weather prevent the supplies, consequently the prices of provisions maintain higher prices.

It is reported that a new Banking House is to be established in the city of Richmond, Virginia.

The Baltimore American of the 2nd inst. has a dispatch from Watton, Illinois, which says that it is reported by the 31st ult., says everything seems to have returned to normal quiet. The rebels are believed to have dispersed.

The River expedition had penetrated as far as Matchpot.

Deserters at Knoxville report Longstreet's whole force of 100,000 men, and other divisions of Logan's corps are at Lardersville, picking the Huntsville and Stevenson Railroad and the river.

A large force of Rebels are concentrating at Round Gap for a raid into Kentucky.

It is reported that the Rebel force has been to the north of the city of Richmond, Virginia.

FROM NORTHERN VIRGINIA.

ORANGE CO., Va., April 5th, 1864.

It is reported that the Rebel force has been to the north of the city of Richmond, Virginia.

The case of Kalmeyer E. Debon put in a final appeal in the Court of Queen's Bench on Friday last. Kalmeyer was a merchant at Frankfort and a member of the firm of Paisley and Co., [Paisley & Co.] at Wilmington, N. C., and had chartered the Peterhoff and Latona to run the blockade in May, 1862. Both vessels were to carry salt-petre, and were to be loaded at Wilmington, N. C., and to be taken out to sea on the 15th of May.

The case of Kalmeyer E. Debon put in a final appeal in the Court of Queen's Bench on Friday last. Kalmeyer was a merchant at Frankfort and a member of the firm of Paisley and Co., [Paisley & Co.] at Wilmington, N. C., and had chartered the Peterhoff and Latona to run the blockade in May, 1862. Both vessels were to carry salt-petre, and were to be loaded at Wilmington, N. C., and to be taken out to sea on the 15th of May.

The case of Kalmeyer E. Debon put in a final appeal in the Court of Queen's Bench on Friday last. Kalmeyer was a merchant at Frankfort and a member of the firm of Paisley and Co., [Paisley & Co.] at Wilmington, N. C., and had chartered the Peterhoff and Latona to run the blockade in May, 1862. Both vessels were to carry salt-petre, and were to be loaded at Wilmington, N. C., and to be taken out to sea on the 15th of May.

The case of Kalmeyer E. Debon put in a final appeal in the Court of Queen's Bench on Friday last. Kalmeyer was a merchant at Frankfort and a member of the firm of Paisley and Co., [Paisley & Co.] at Wilmington, N. C., and had chartered the Peterhoff and Latona to run the blockade in May, 1862. Both vessels were to carry salt-petre, and were to be loaded at Wilmington, N. C., and to be taken out to sea on the 15th of May.

The case of Kalmeyer E. Debon put in a final appeal in the Court of Queen's Bench on Friday last. Kalmeyer was a merchant at Frankfort and a member of the firm of Paisley and Co., [Paisley & Co.] at Wilmington, N. C., and had chartered the Peterhoff and Latona to run the blockade in May, 1862. Both vessels were to carry salt-petre, and were to be loaded at Wilmington, N. C., and to be taken out to sea on the 15th of May.

The case of Kalmeyer E. Debon put in a final appeal in the Court of Queen's Bench on Friday last. Kalmeyer was a merchant at Frankfort and a member of the firm of Paisley and Co., [Paisley & Co.] at Wilmington, N. C., and had chartered the Peterhoff and Latona to run the blockade in May, 1862. Both vessels were to carry salt-petre, and were to be loaded at Wilmington, N. C., and to be taken out to sea on the 15th of May.

The case of Kalmeyer E. Debon put in a final appeal in the Court of Queen's Bench on Friday last. Kalmeyer was a merchant at Frankfort and a member of the firm of Paisley and Co., [Paisley & Co.] at Wilmington, N. C., and had chartered the Peterhoff and Latona to run the blockade in May, 1862. Both vessels were to carry salt-petre, and were to be loaded at Wilmington, N. C., and to be taken out to sea on the 15th of May.

The case of Kalmeyer E. Debon put in a final appeal in the Court of Queen's Bench on Friday last. Kalmeyer was a merchant at Frankfort and a member of the firm of Paisley and Co., [Paisley & Co.] at Wilmington, N. C., and had chartered the Peterhoff and Latona to run the blockade in May, 1862. Both vessels were to carry salt-petre, and were to be loaded at Wilmington, N. C., and to be taken out to sea on the 15th of May.

The case of Kalmeyer E. Debon put in a final appeal in the Court of Queen's Bench on Friday last. Kalmeyer was a merchant at Frankfort and a member of the firm of Paisley and Co., [Paisley & Co.] at Wilmington, N. C., and had chartered the Peterhoff and Latona to run the blockade in May, 1862. Both vessels were to carry salt-petre, and were to be loaded at Wilmington, N. C., and to be taken out to sea on the 15th of May.

The case of Kalmeyer E. Debon put in a final appeal in the Court of Queen's Bench on Friday last. Kalmeyer was a merchant at Frankfort and a member of the firm of Paisley and Co., [Paisley & Co.] at Wilmington, N. C., and had chartered the Peterhoff and Latona to run the blockade in May, 1862. Both vessels were to carry salt-petre, and were to be loaded at Wilmington, N. C., and to be taken out to sea on the 15th of May.

The case of Kalmeyer E. Debon put in a final appeal in the Court of Queen's Bench on Friday last. Kalmeyer was a merchant at Frankfort and a member of the firm of Paisley and Co., [Paisley & Co.] at Wilmington, N. C., and had chartered the Peterhoff and Latona to run the blockade in May, 1862. Both vessels were to carry salt-petre, and were to be loaded at Wilmington, N. C., and to be taken out to sea on the 15th of May.

The case of Kalmeyer E. Debon put in a final appeal in the Court of Queen's Bench on Friday last. Kalmeyer was a merchant at Frankfort and a member of the firm of Paisley and Co., [Paisley & Co.] at Wilmington, N. C., and had chartered the Peterhoff and Latona to run the blockade in May, 1862. Both vessels were to carry salt-petre, and were to be loaded at Wilmington, N. C., and to be taken out to sea on the 15th of May.

The case of Kalmeyer E. Debon put in a final appeal in the Court of Queen's Bench on Friday last. Kalmeyer was a merchant at Frankfort and a member of the firm of Paisley and Co., [Paisley & Co.] at Wilmington, N. C., and had chartered the Peterhoff and Latona to run the blockade in May, 1862. Both vessels were to carry salt-petre, and were to be loaded at Wilmington, N. C., and to be taken out to sea on the 15th of May.

The case of Kalmeyer E. Debon put in a final appeal in the Court of Queen's Bench on Friday last. Kalmeyer was a merchant at Frankfort and a member of the firm of Paisley and Co., [Paisley & Co.] at Wilmington, N. C., and had chartered the Peterhoff and Latona to run the blockade in May, 1862. Both vessels were to carry salt-petre, and were to be loaded at Wilmington, N. C., and to be taken out to sea on the 15th of May.

The case of Kalmeyer E. Debon put in a final appeal in the Court of Queen's Bench on Friday last. Kalmeyer was a merchant at Frankfort and a member of the firm of Paisley and Co., [Paisley & Co.] at Wilmington, N. C., and had chartered the Peterhoff and Latona to run the blockade in May, 1862. Both vessels were to carry salt-petre, and were to be loaded at Wilmington, N. C., and to be taken out to sea on the 15th of May.

The case of Kalmeyer E. Debon put in a final appeal in the Court of Queen's Bench on Friday last. Kalmeyer was a merchant at Frankfort and a member of the firm of Paisley and Co., [Paisley & Co.] at Wilmington, N. C., and had chartered the Peterhoff and Latona to run the blockade in May, 1862. Both vessels were to carry salt-petre, and were to be loaded at Wilmington, N. C., and to be taken out to sea on the 15th of May.

The case of Kalmeyer E. Debon put in a final appeal in the Court of Queen's Bench on Friday last. Kalmeyer was a merchant at Frankfort and a member of the firm of Paisley and Co., [Paisley & Co.] at Wilmington, N. C., and had chartered the Peterhoff and Latona to run the blockade in May, 1862. Both vessels were to carry salt-petre, and were to be loaded at Wilmington, N. C., and to be taken out to sea on the 15th of May.

The case of Kalmeyer E. Debon put in a final appeal in the Court of Queen's Bench on Friday last. Kalmeyer was a merchant at Frankfort and a member of the firm of Paisley and Co., [Paisley & Co.] at Wilmington, N. C., and had chartered the Peterhoff and Latona to run the blockade in May, 1862. Both vessels were to carry salt-petre, and were to be loaded at Wilmington, N. C., and to be taken out to sea on the 15th of May.

The case of Kalmeyer E. Debon put in a final appeal in the Court of Queen's Bench on Friday last. Kalmeyer was a merchant at Frankfort and a member of the firm of Paisley and Co., [Paisley & Co.] at Wilmington, N. C., and had chartered the Peterhoff and Latona to run the blockade in May, 1862. Both vessels were to carry salt-petre, and were to be loaded at Wilmington, N. C., and to be taken out to sea on the 15th of May.

The case of Kalmeyer E. Debon put in a final appeal in the Court of Queen's Bench on Friday last. Kalmeyer was a merchant at Frankfort and a member of the firm of Paisley and Co., [Paisley & Co.] at Wilmington, N. C., and had chartered the Peterhoff and Latona to run the blockade in May, 1862. Both vessels were to carry salt-petre, and were to be loaded at Wilmington, N. C., and to be taken out to sea on the 15th of May.

The case of Kalmeyer E. Debon put in a final appeal in the Court of Queen's Bench on Friday last. Kalmeyer was a merchant at Frankfort and a member of the firm of Paisley and Co., [Paisley & Co.] at Wilmington, N. C., and had chartered the Peterhoff and Latona to run the blockade in May, 1862. Both vessels were to carry salt-petre, and were to be loaded at Wilmington, N. C., and to be taken out to sea on the 15th of May.

The case of Kalmeyer E. Debon put in a final appeal in the Court of Queen's Bench on Friday last. Kalmeyer was a merchant at Frankfort and a member of the firm of Paisley and Co., [Paisley & Co.] at Wilmington, N. C., and had chartered the Peterhoff and Latona to run the blockade in May, 1862. Both vessels were to carry salt-petre, and were to be loaded at Wilmington, N. C., and to be taken out to sea on the 15th of May.

The case of Kalmeyer E. Debon put in a final appeal in the Court of Queen's Bench on Friday last. Kalmeyer was a merchant at Frankfort and a member of the firm of Paisley and Co., [Paisley & Co.] at Wilmington, N. C., and had chartered the Peterhoff and Latona to run the blockade in May, 1862. Both vessels were to carry salt-petre, and were to be loaded at Wilmington, N. C., and to be taken out to sea on the 15th of May.

The case of Kalmeyer E. Debon put in a final appeal in the Court of Queen's Bench on Friday last. Kalmeyer was a merchant at Frankfort and a member of the firm of Paisley and Co., [Paisley & Co.] at Wilmington, N. C., and had chartered the Peterhoff and Latona to run the blockade in May, 1862. Both vessels were to carry salt-petre, and were to be loaded at Wilmington, N. C., and to be taken out to sea on the 15th of May.

The case of Kalmeyer E. Debon put in a final appeal in the Court of Queen's Bench on Friday last. Kalmeyer was a merchant at Frankfort and a member of the firm of Paisley and Co., [Paisley & Co.] at Wilmington, N. C., and had chartered the Peterhoff and Latona to run the blockade in May, 1862. Both vessels were to carry salt-petre, and were to be loaded at Wilmington, N. C., and to be taken out to sea on the 15th of May.

The case of Kalmeyer E. Debon put in a final appeal in the Court of Queen's Bench on Friday last. Kalmeyer was a merchant at Frankfort and a member of the firm of Paisley and Co., [Paisley & Co.] at Wilmington, N. C., and had chartered the Peterhoff and Latona to run the blockade in May, 1862. Both vessels were to carry salt-petre, and were to be loaded at Wilmington, N. C., and to be taken out to sea on the 15th of May.

The case of Kalmeyer E. Debon put in a final appeal in the Court of Queen's Bench on Friday last. Kalmeyer was a merchant at Frankfort and a member of the firm of Paisley and Co., [Paisley & Co.] at Wilmington, N. C., and had chartered the Peterhoff and Latona to run the blockade in May, 1862. Both vessels were to carry salt-petre, and were to be loaded at Wilmington, N. C., and to be taken out to sea on the 15th of May.

The case of Kalmeyer E. Debon put in a final appeal in the Court of Queen's Bench on Friday last. Kalmeyer was a merchant at Frankfort and a member of the firm of Paisley and Co., [Paisley & Co.] at Wilmington, N. C., and had chartered the Peterhoff and Latona to run the blockade in May, 1862. Both vessels were to carry salt-petre, and were to be loaded at Wilmington, N. C., and to be taken out to sea on the 15th of May.

The case of Kalmeyer E. Debon put in a final appeal in the Court of Queen's Bench on Friday last. Kalmeyer was a merchant at Frankfort and a member of the firm of Paisley and Co., [Paisley & Co.] at Wilmington, N. C., and had chartered the Peterhoff and Latona to run the blockade in May, 1862. Both vessels were to carry salt-petre, and were to be loaded at Wilmington, N. C., and to be taken out to sea on the 15th of May.

The case of Kalmeyer E. Debon put in a final appeal in the Court of Queen's Bench on Friday last. Kalmeyer was a merchant at Frankfort and a member of the firm of Paisley and Co., [Paisley & Co.] at Wilmington, N. C., and had chartered the Peterhoff and Latona to run the blockade in May, 1862. Both vessels were to carry salt-petre, and were to be loaded at Wilmington, N. C., and to be taken out to sea on the 15th of May.

The case of Kalmeyer E. Debon put in a final appeal in the Court of Queen's Bench on Friday last. Kalmeyer was a merchant at Frankfort and a member of the firm of Paisley and Co., [Paisley & Co.] at Wilmington, N. C., and had chartered the Peterhoff and Latona to run the blockade in May, 1862. Both vessels were to carry salt-petre, and were to be loaded at Wilmington, N. C., and to be taken out to sea on the 15th of May.

The case of Kalmeyer E. Debon put in a final appeal in the Court of Queen's Bench on Friday last. Kalmeyer was a merchant at Frankfort and a member of the firm of Paisley and Co., [Paisley & Co.] at Wilmington, N. C., and had chartered the Peterhoff and Latona to run the blockade in May, 1862. Both vessels were to carry salt-petre, and were to be loaded at Wilmington, N. C., and to be taken out to sea on the 15th of May.

These remarks have been suggested by the personal character of the document recently published, by which the Federal army killed nearly fifty wounded. Col. Hicks, commanding at Paducah, had eight hundred men, mostly negroes. Forrest burnt all the government stores.

A telegram from Columbus, March 27th, says that Forrest was at Paducah, between that place and Mayfield. So general history says he was constantly repeating, "I will burn Mayfield as I have done Paducah." One regiment lost 3,000 men, and another 1,000. The rebels were marching towards Clinton at first accounts.

The steamer Perry was fired into at Pass Hickman. A dispatch from Paducah says that Col. E. Craighead, and seven of his guerrillas, were captured near Mayfield. Gen. Rowan has suspended the circulation of the New York Metropolitan Review in Missouri.

There is a heavy thunder storm, and rain here last night.

FROM NORTHERN GEORGIA.

DALTON, Ga., April 5th, 1864.

News from inside the enemy's lines state that two brigades of infantry have been sent to operate against Forts. Fisher and Wheeler on the Potomac.

Forty regiments of Federal batteries were returned to Ohio to recruit, raised only five thousand in three months.

The Federalists went out into Alabama on a plundering expedition, under Dodge, have returned to De Kalb County, and other divisions of Logan's corps are at Lardersville, picking the Huntsville and Stevenson Railroad and the river.

In the Confederate uniforms, came to Triens Factory, near Sumterville, and committed numerous depredations on Saturday last.

FROM RICHMOND.

RICHMOND, Va., April 5th, 1864.

The rainy spell continues, and the Confederates are much annoyed. The fisheries are interrupted. The heavy condition of the roads and the inclemency of the weather prevent the supplies, consequently the prices of provisions maintain higher prices.

It is reported that a new Banking House is to be established in the city of Richmond, Virginia.

The Baltimore American of the 2nd inst. has a dispatch from Watton, Illinois, which says that it is reported by the 31st ult., says everything seems to have returned to normal quiet. The rebels are believed to have dispersed.

The River expedition had penetrated as far as Matchpot.

Deserters at Knoxville report Longstreet's whole force of 100,000 men, and other divisions of Logan's corps are at Lardersville, picking the Huntsville and Stevenson Railroad and the river.

A large force of Rebels are concentrating at Round Gap for a raid into Kentucky.

It is reported that the Rebel force has been to the north of the city of Richmond, Virginia.

FROM NORTHERN VIRGINIA.

ORANGE CO., Va., April 5th, 1864.

It is reported that the Rebel force has been to the north of the city of Richmond, Virginia.

The case of Kalmeyer E. Debon put in a final appeal in the Court of Queen's Bench on Friday last. Kalmeyer was a merchant at Frankfort and a member of the firm of Paisley and Co., [Paisley & Co.] at Wilmington, N. C., and had chartered the Peterhoff and Latona to run the blockade in May, 1862. Both vessels were to carry salt-petre, and were to be loaded at Wilmington, N. C., and to be taken out to sea on the 15th of May.

The case of Kalmeyer E. Debon put in a final appeal in the Court of Queen's Bench on Friday last. Kalmeyer was a merchant at Frankfort and a member of the firm of Paisley and Co., [Paisley & Co.] at Wilmington, N. C., and had chartered the Peterhoff and Latona to run the blockade in May, 1862. Both vessels were to carry salt-petre, and were to be loaded at Wilmington, N. C., and to be taken out to sea on the 15th of May.

The case of Kalmeyer E. Debon put in a final appeal in the Court of Queen's Bench on Friday last. Kalmeyer was a merchant at Frankfort and a member of the firm of Paisley and Co., [Paisley & Co.] at Wilmington, N. C., and had chartered the Peterhoff and Latona to run the blockade in May, 1862. Both vessels were to carry salt-petre, and were to be loaded at Wilmington, N. C., and to be taken out to sea on the 15th of May.

The case of Kalmeyer E. Debon put in a final appeal in the Court of Queen's Bench on Friday last. Kalmeyer was a merchant at Frankfort and a member of the firm of Paisley and Co., [Paisley & Co.] at Wilmington, N. C., and had chartered the Peterhoff and Latona to run the blockade in May, 1862. Both vessels were to carry salt-petre, and were to be loaded at Wilmington, N. C., and to be taken out to sea on the 15th of May.

The case of Kalmeyer E. Debon put in a final appeal in the Court of Queen's Bench on Friday last. Kalmeyer was a merchant at Frankfort and a member of the firm of Paisley and Co., [Paisley & Co.] at Wilmington, N. C., and had chartered the Peterhoff and Latona to run the blockade in May, 1862. Both vessels were to carry salt-petre, and were to be loaded at Wilmington, N. C., and to be taken out to sea on the 15th of May.

The case of Kalmeyer E. Debon put in a final appeal in the Court of Queen's Bench on Friday last. Kalmeyer was a merchant at Frankfort and a member of the firm of Paisley and Co., [Paisley & Co.] at Wilmington, N. C., and had chartered the Peterhoff and Latona to run the blockade in May, 1862. Both vessels were to carry salt-petre, and were to be loaded at Wilmington, N. C., and to be taken out to sea on the 15th of May.

The case of Kalmeyer E. Debon put in a final appeal in the Court of Queen's Bench on Friday last. Kalmeyer was a merchant at Frankfort and a member of the firm of Paisley and Co., [Paisley & Co.] at Wilmington, N. C., and had chartered the Peterhoff and Latona to run the blockade in May, 1862. Both vessels were to carry salt-petre, and were to be loaded at Wilmington, N. C., and to be taken out to sea on the 15th of May.

The case of Kalmeyer E. Debon put in a final appeal in the Court of Queen's Bench on Friday last. Kalmeyer was a merchant at Frankfort and a member of the firm of Paisley and Co., [Paisley & Co.] at Wilmington, N. C., and had chartered the Peterhoff and Latona to run the blockade in May, 1862. Both vessels were to carry salt-petre, and were to be loaded at Wilmington, N. C., and to be taken out to sea on the 15th of May.

The case of Kalmeyer E. Debon put in a final appeal in the Court of Queen's Bench on Friday last. Kalmeyer was a merchant at Frankfort and a member of the firm of Paisley and Co., [Paisley & Co.] at Wilmington, N. C., and had chartered the Peterhoff and Latona to run the blockade in May, 1862. Both vessels were to carry salt-petre, and were to be loaded at Wilmington, N. C., and to be taken out to sea on the 15th of May.