A crowd of sweet, bright and beautiful female faces added a more charming brilliancy to the scene and greeted the Masonic fraternity with vote shall be viva voce. happy, sunlit smiles. A few eloquent introductory remarks were delivered by the Hon. John Kerr, of Caswell, when the Rev. Mr. Mays, of South Carolina, took the stand and delivered an address to the assembled multitade. His subject was mostly argumentative in favor of Masonic beauties and contra the prejudices of the ignorant uninitiated. He said, "Many men, outside the pale of Masonry, condemned its principles without understanding one iota of its object; that the rock of Masonry, though basked by ten thousand summer suns, and washed by the waves of ten thousand stormy seas, remained Gibraltar still. Nor would he place the grand and sublime Order of Masonry above and beyond that Holy Order whose foundation is laid upon the Rock of Ages, but hand in hand let them work on together, healing the sick, clothing the poor and needy, assisting and feeding the lone defenceless widows and orphans whose husbands and fathers have fallen in the 'world's great field of battle,' and that no class, 37. SPECIAL TERM. - We learn that the Governor has appointed a special term of the Superior Court for the county of Alamance, to be held on the 4th Monday in the present month. His Honor, Judge Fowle, has been designated to hold the Court.

IMPORTANT DECISION OF THE SUPREME COURT. -MESSRS. EDITORS : The case of Lackey, admr. vs. Miller, &c., decided at the recent term of the Supreme Court, has a specific interest about it in these times, and therefore I beg to submit a note of it for your readers.

The plaintiff, as administrator, on the 3rd of March, 1865, exposed to public sale a cow; and the defendant, Miller, purchased it, and, in accordance with the terms of sale, gave a sealed note for it as follows :

"$71.00. Six months after date we or either of "s promise to pay James Lackey, admr. of Wm. Wray, dec'd., Seventy One Dollars in current bank money, for value received of him, March 3d, 1865.

On the trial before a magistrate in Cleaveland county, judgment was given against the defendants for the full amount, and upon an appeal to the Superior Court, this judgment was affirmed. In the Supreme Court, however, judgment was given for twenty dollars ($20,) with interest from the time that the note became due, upon the ground that $29 00 in specie was the value (it being left to the Court to say this) of the note at the time.

The Court (Chief Justice Pearson giving the opinion) say that the note in question is not for specie dollars, but for bank Inoney dollars ; that the proper action upon it is e prenant for the damorges sustained by a failure to comply with its promise ; that it is not negotiable ; and that the measure of damages is the value of the amount of bank bills called for, in 'United States coin .- Sentinel.

SUPERIOR COURT CLERK .- Judge Buxton (who will ride this Circuit next Fall) has appointed Col. E. A. Osborne Cler's of the Superior Court of this county, in place of M. D. Johnston, deceased. Charlotte Times.
