

Reconstruction Facts.

In order to prove that the Radical party at the South is not a negro party, the New York Tribune asks the majority for Reconstruction under the acts of Congress is far heavier in Virginia, North Carolina and Georgia than in South Carolina, Mississippi, Louisiana and Florida, where the registered blacks are much more numerous?

In Virginia and North Carolina, the only two States in which there was a good chance of defeating the call of a Convention, unless, under the just administration of General HANCOCK, Texas be an exception, the Conservative party and press were divided.

General CANBY has issued a Special Order for the prevention and detection of crime, authorizing the County Courts of Jones, Craven, Lenoir and Pitt counties to organize and employ, under the direction of the Sheriff of said counties, an armed police force, to be composed of loyal citizens, white and black, in the ratio of registered voters.

General CANBY has issued a Special Order for the prevention and detection of crime, authorizing the County Courts of Jones, Craven, Lenoir and Pitt counties to organize and employ, under the direction of the Sheriff of said counties, an armed police force, to be composed of loyal citizens, white and black, in the ratio of registered voters.

General CANBY has issued a Special Order for the prevention and detection of crime, authorizing the County Courts of Jones, Craven, Lenoir and Pitt counties to organize and employ, under the direction of the Sheriff of said counties, an armed police force, to be composed of loyal citizens, white and black, in the ratio of registered voters.

General CANBY has issued a Special Order for the prevention and detection of crime, authorizing the County Courts of Jones, Craven, Lenoir and Pitt counties to organize and employ, under the direction of the Sheriff of said counties, an armed police force, to be composed of loyal citizens, white and black, in the ratio of registered voters.

General CANBY has issued a Special Order for the prevention and detection of crime, authorizing the County Courts of Jones, Craven, Lenoir and Pitt counties to organize and employ, under the direction of the Sheriff of said counties, an armed police force, to be composed of loyal citizens, white and black, in the ratio of registered voters.

General CANBY has issued a Special Order for the prevention and detection of crime, authorizing the County Courts of Jones, Craven, Lenoir and Pitt counties to organize and employ, under the direction of the Sheriff of said counties, an armed police force, to be composed of loyal citizens, white and black, in the ratio of registered voters.

General CANBY has issued a Special Order for the prevention and detection of crime, authorizing the County Courts of Jones, Craven, Lenoir and Pitt counties to organize and employ, under the direction of the Sheriff of said counties, an armed police force, to be composed of loyal citizens, white and black, in the ratio of registered voters.

General CANBY has issued a Special Order for the prevention and detection of crime, authorizing the County Courts of Jones, Craven, Lenoir and Pitt counties to organize and employ, under the direction of the Sheriff of said counties, an armed police force, to be composed of loyal citizens, white and black, in the ratio of registered voters.

General CANBY has issued a Special Order for the prevention and detection of crime, authorizing the County Courts of Jones, Craven, Lenoir and Pitt counties to organize and employ, under the direction of the Sheriff of said counties, an armed police force, to be composed of loyal citizens, white and black, in the ratio of registered voters.

General CANBY has issued a Special Order for the prevention and detection of crime, authorizing the County Courts of Jones, Craven, Lenoir and Pitt counties to organize and employ, under the direction of the Sheriff of said counties, an armed police force, to be composed of loyal citizens, white and black, in the ratio of registered voters.

General CANBY has issued a Special Order for the prevention and detection of crime, authorizing the County Courts of Jones, Craven, Lenoir and Pitt counties to organize and employ, under the direction of the Sheriff of said counties, an armed police force, to be composed of loyal citizens, white and black, in the ratio of registered voters.

the repairing of the levees of Mississippi by the Government, in order to reclaim many valuable estates now in ruins and to give employment to many thousands of freedmen, now without labor or means, who must either rob or starve, unless employed or assisted by the Government.

We shall look forward with deep anxiety to the action of the President and the legislation of Congress upon this question. They are in possession of all the facts and know full well the necessities of the South. Without aid from some quarter, this section is ruined beyond present redemption, and with its downfall the prosperity of the North also goes.

Without aid from some quarter, this section is ruined beyond present redemption, and with its downfall the prosperity of the North also goes.

Without aid from some quarter, this section is ruined beyond present redemption, and with its downfall the prosperity of the North also goes.

Without aid from some quarter, this section is ruined beyond present redemption, and with its downfall the prosperity of the North also goes.

Without aid from some quarter, this section is ruined beyond present redemption, and with its downfall the prosperity of the North also goes.

Without aid from some quarter, this section is ruined beyond present redemption, and with its downfall the prosperity of the North also goes.

Without aid from some quarter, this section is ruined beyond present redemption, and with its downfall the prosperity of the North also goes.

Without aid from some quarter, this section is ruined beyond present redemption, and with its downfall the prosperity of the North also goes.

Without aid from some quarter, this section is ruined beyond present redemption, and with its downfall the prosperity of the North also goes.

Without aid from some quarter, this section is ruined beyond present redemption, and with its downfall the prosperity of the North also goes.

Without aid from some quarter, this section is ruined beyond present redemption, and with its downfall the prosperity of the North also goes.

Without aid from some quarter, this section is ruined beyond present redemption, and with its downfall the prosperity of the North also goes.

Without aid from some quarter, this section is ruined beyond present redemption, and with its downfall the prosperity of the North also goes.

Without aid from some quarter, this section is ruined beyond present redemption, and with its downfall the prosperity of the North also goes.

Without aid from some quarter, this section is ruined beyond present redemption, and with its downfall the prosperity of the North also goes.

Without aid from some quarter, this section is ruined beyond present redemption, and with its downfall the prosperity of the North also goes.

Without aid from some quarter, this section is ruined beyond present redemption, and with its downfall the prosperity of the North also goes.

Without aid from some quarter, this section is ruined beyond present redemption, and with its downfall the prosperity of the North also goes.

Without aid from some quarter, this section is ruined beyond present redemption, and with its downfall the prosperity of the North also goes.

Without aid from some quarter, this section is ruined beyond present redemption, and with its downfall the prosperity of the North also goes.

Without aid from some quarter, this section is ruined beyond present redemption, and with its downfall the prosperity of the North also goes.

Without aid from some quarter, this section is ruined beyond present redemption, and with its downfall the prosperity of the North also goes.

him. The proof of his guilt was plenary. The jury convicted him and no respectable man would be allowed to register, and he who did not approve the verdict. Judge Warren sentenced him to six months imprisonment. It was known that the negroes, entitled to register in this county, were much more numerous than the whites.

The Divine command cannot with safety be set aside by any of the descendants of Adam, and least of all by that unscrupulous as the sons of Ham.

The Divine command cannot with safety be set aside by any of the descendants of Adam, and least of all by that unscrupulous as the sons of Ham.

The Divine command cannot with safety be set aside by any of the descendants of Adam, and least of all by that unscrupulous as the sons of Ham.

The Divine command cannot with safety be set aside by any of the descendants of Adam, and least of all by that unscrupulous as the sons of Ham.

The Divine command cannot with safety be set aside by any of the descendants of Adam, and least of all by that unscrupulous as the sons of Ham.

The Divine command cannot with safety be set aside by any of the descendants of Adam, and least of all by that unscrupulous as the sons of Ham.

The Divine command cannot with safety be set aside by any of the descendants of Adam, and least of all by that unscrupulous as the sons of Ham.

The Divine command cannot with safety be set aside by any of the descendants of Adam, and least of all by that unscrupulous as the sons of Ham.

lives, I am free to say he must not, cannot, be an idler—a vagrant! We must all, and why should he be an exception to the rule? The laws sooner or later will compel him to earn his bread by the sweat of his brow, and the sooner he is convinced of this the better it will be for him and for us all.

The Divine command cannot with safety be set aside by any of the descendants of Adam, and least of all by that unscrupulous as the sons of Ham.

The Divine command cannot with safety be set aside by any of the descendants of Adam, and least of all by that unscrupulous as the sons of Ham.

The Divine command cannot with safety be set aside by any of the descendants of Adam, and least of all by that unscrupulous as the sons of Ham.

The Divine command cannot with safety be set aside by any of the descendants of Adam, and least of all by that unscrupulous as the sons of Ham.

The Divine command cannot with safety be set aside by any of the descendants of Adam, and least of all by that unscrupulous as the sons of Ham.

The Divine command cannot with safety be set aside by any of the descendants of Adam, and least of all by that unscrupulous as the sons of Ham.

The Divine command cannot with safety be set aside by any of the descendants of Adam, and least of all by that unscrupulous as the sons of Ham.

The Divine command cannot with safety be set aside by any of the descendants of Adam, and least of all by that unscrupulous as the sons of Ham.

ADDRESS OF THE Conservative Army and Navy Union.

To the Honorary Discharged Soldiers and Sailors of the Late War for the Union.

HEDGE'S CONSERVATIVE ARMY AND NAVY UNION. (No. 397 Pennsylvania Avenue, WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 6, 1868.)

COMRADES: It has been as numerous calls are now being issued and circulated throughout the States and from this city for soldiers and sailors conventions, and, in order that our comrades may fully understand from whence issue these calls, their objects, and in whose interests they are to operate, the address is issued:

WASHINGTON, D. C., December 18, 1867. At a conference of Union soldiers and sailors held in this city on Monday, Dec. 18, 1867, to consider the propriety of calling a national convention, resolutions were unanimously adopted, providing that an invitation be extended to all loyal persons who have served in the military or naval service of the United States to meet in session at a national convention, to be held in May, 1868, for the consideration of national questions, and the nomination of candidates for President and Vice President of the United States.

The disorderly state of public affairs, the restoration of rebel property, the destroying efforts to destroy our national credit, the failure throughout the country to recognize the just claims of our Government, are deemed sufficient reasons for calling such a convention, and in order to protect the civil rights of all our citizens.

The disorderly state of public affairs, the restoration of rebel property, the destroying efforts to destroy our national credit, the failure throughout the country to recognize the just claims of our Government, are deemed sufficient reasons for calling such a convention, and in order to protect the civil rights of all our citizens.

The disorderly state of public affairs, the restoration of rebel property, the destroying efforts to destroy our national credit, the failure throughout the country to recognize the just claims of our Government, are deemed sufficient reasons for calling such a convention, and in order to protect the civil rights of all our citizens.

The disorderly state of public affairs, the restoration of rebel property, the destroying efforts to destroy our national credit, the failure throughout the country to recognize the just claims of our Government, are deemed sufficient reasons for calling such a convention, and in order to protect the civil rights of all our citizens.

The disorderly state of public affairs, the restoration of rebel property, the destroying efforts to destroy our national credit, the failure throughout the country to recognize the just claims of our Government, are deemed sufficient reasons for calling such a convention, and in order to protect the civil rights of all our citizens.

The disorderly state of public affairs, the restoration of rebel property, the destroying efforts to destroy our national credit, the failure throughout the country to recognize the just claims of our Government, are deemed sufficient reasons for calling such a convention, and in order to protect the civil rights of all our citizens.

or which we fought, and for which so many of our brave comrades suffered and died, and to accept no invitation of any party or clique of President makers with out due deliberation, and upon full conviction that they are pledged to the vindication of the Constitution, the Union of the States, and the recognized supremacy of the flag throughout the length and breadth of the land.

WASHINGTON, January 3.—Several Congressmen arrived to-day, to be in readiness for the meeting of Congress on Monday. The season of receptions and parties will be commenced on Monday next. Several receptions are named for the coming week, including one by the Ladies of the White House, and five or six at the residences of members of Congress.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—It is expected that Congress, after reassembling to-morrow, will at once get to work earnestly and, it is hoped, patriotically, upon the measures already proposed, and others contemplated, to relieve the country from the commercial and financial disorders which prevail throughout.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—It is expected that Congress, after reassembling to-morrow, will at once get to work earnestly and, it is hoped, patriotically, upon the measures already proposed, and others contemplated, to relieve the country from the commercial and financial disorders which prevail throughout.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—It is expected that Congress, after reassembling to-morrow, will at once get to work earnestly and, it is hoped, patriotically, upon the measures already proposed, and others contemplated, to relieve the country from the commercial and financial disorders which prevail throughout.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—It is expected that Congress, after reassembling to-morrow, will at once get to work earnestly and, it is hoped, patriotically, upon the measures already proposed, and others contemplated, to relieve the country from the commercial and financial disorders which prevail throughout.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—It is expected that Congress, after reassembling to-morrow, will at once get to work earnestly and, it is hoped, patriotically, upon the measures already proposed, and others contemplated, to relieve the country from the commercial and financial disorders which prevail throughout.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—It is expected that Congress, after reassembling to-morrow, will at once get to work earnestly and, it is hoped, patriotically, upon the measures already proposed, and others contemplated, to relieve the country from the commercial and financial disorders which prevail throughout.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—It is expected that Congress, after reassembling to-morrow, will at once get to work earnestly and, it is hoped, patriotically, upon the measures already proposed, and others contemplated, to relieve the country from the commercial and financial disorders which prevail throughout.

FROM WASHINGTON.

The Season in Washington.—Politics.—The season in Washington is full of interest. The Congressmen have returned to the city, and the season of receptions and parties will be commenced on Monday next.

The Season in Washington.—Politics.—The season in Washington is full of interest. The Congressmen have returned to the city, and the season of receptions and parties will be commenced on Monday next.

The Season in Washington.—Politics.—The season in Washington is full of interest. The Congressmen have returned to the city, and the season of receptions and parties will be commenced on Monday next.

The Season in Washington.—Politics.—The season in Washington is full of interest. The Congressmen have returned to the city, and the season of receptions and parties will be commenced on Monday next.

The Season in Washington.—Politics.—The season in Washington is full of interest. The Congressmen have returned to the city, and the season of receptions and parties will be commenced on Monday next.

The Season in Washington.—Politics.—The season in Washington is full of interest. The Congressmen have returned to the city, and the season of receptions and parties will be commenced on Monday next.

The Season in Washington.—Politics.—The season in Washington is full of interest. The Congressmen have returned to the city, and the season of receptions and parties will be commenced on Monday next.

The Season in Washington.—Politics.—The season in Washington is full of interest. The Congressmen have returned to the city, and the season of receptions and parties will be commenced on Monday next.