GELHARD, Editor and Proprieton To whom all etters on business must be addressed

THE WILMINGTON JOURNAL.

Terms of Subscription.

Six months, ' three months, in advance, 5 00 one month, " 1 00

MODEL NEWSPAPER.

The Carolina Messenger. IUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY,

AT GOLDSBORO, N. C. IMPROVED AND ENLARGED ! A NEWSPAPER OF THE PRESENT TIMES, INTENDED FOR THE FEOPLE NOW ON EASTH, soluding Farmers, Mechanics, Merchants, Professional Men, and all manuer of honest folke, and the wives, sons and daughters of all such. ONLY T SO DOLLARS A YEAR!

MIX COPIES ONE YEAR FOR $10 Every new subscriber receives, as

A GIFF, a haudsome POCKET MAP of NORTH CAROLINA, containing also a Calegdar, and the time of holding Superior Courts in every County throughout the ho North Carolintan should be Without this Map.

The Messender is pre-emidently a raidable FAMILY APAR (now in its 7th volume,) and, as a venicle of News, has always held the first rans among S uthera journals. I a news on every topic of interest-political, literary, sociat domestic and foreign-is always fresh, abondant, various and accurate, comprising the whole circle of current intelligence, siways rendered with anch proppti ade and spirit, that the paper has linercasing circulation.

AS AN URGAN OF OPINION. Esonals fearless, tranchant, indomiin its advocacy of sound Demo-uples, nuspering in its demunciation of poli ical abuses and corruption; and not condning its discussion to mere jolicie-, it takes a j aide range teaches upon a great ariety of any | county jail. aims to be a safe guide of public all topics which engage public atten wantd market reports. TA-SE IN WANTED IN EVERY COUNTY.

SEND YOUR MONEY Office orders, wherever convaniant. JULIUS A BONITZ,

Editor and Prop'r Goldsboro', N. C. dit-wly

Addres

BILLSBORD' STREET, BALEIGH, N. C.

A A. HARBIN PROPRIETOR. 92-1td t6m~ ch DET COD

A. P. P. ALMEL

Fayetteville is still skating. Cotton 17 cents in Battleboro. Peaches very plentiful in Newbern. Sorry apple crop in Wayne county.

VOL. 27.

The Greensboro Patriot feasts on delicious aprico s.

Cotton and corn in Nash and Edgecombe ook remarkably well.

J. J. Stewart, E-q., of the Salisbury Fxaminer, was in Goldsboro' on Friday. Gen. W. D. Dowd is Conservative can-'ida'e for Convention in Moore county.

Rev. A. B. Earle was to have preached n Raleigh last night.

compasy. The cotton crop in Washington is said to be very fine. Caswell county boasts of an old half-breed Indian woman a hundred years old. Rev. Mr. Earle preached at the Baptist Church in Raleigh on Friday night. They have established a chate going of the jail birds in Beaufort county.

Masonie celebration is Hillsboro' and Warrenton yesterday.

There are now 66 prisoners in Wake

A negro boy, at Rich Square, on the It gives conspicaous prominence to State | Boanoke, was addid atally drowned on Sa- | The Sentinel says : On Wednesday night turday last.

> Yadkinville, has published a primary speller and reader for beginners.

The Lutherin church at Salisbury has undergone extensive repairs and will be re-open for services to-day.

The local of the Greensboro Patriot has seen some whichy seventy-six years The Raleigh Telegram tells us that Luke scorn, contempt and hatred of all

The Governor has ordered a special term of the Superior Court of Graven in July. Judge Clark presiding.

A railroad from Shelby, Cleaveland county, N. C., to some point on the Spartanburg and Union Railroad, S. C., is talked about. The revival which commenced in the African Methodist Church, (colored) in ing the summer.

the crime a few days ago in the U. S. circuit court, has been sentenced to ten years imprisonment.

A negro named Moses Mathews, employ-ed by the contractors now building the Tar River bridge, on the Raleigh and Gas-Hickory Tavern has organized a fire ton railroad, fell off the bridge yesterday. He fell about 65 feef, and received injurics ever be quenched as long as they pile that from which he died in a few moments. o foul mass of 'driftwood' from the North ays the Telegram.

> The Raleigh Telegram learns that it is the intention of Judge Brooks to hold a Special Term of the U. S. Court at that place, commencing on Monday of the second week in September, especially for the trid of alleged Ku. Klux cases. The Telegram says that Elmore W.

Woods, of Chapel Hill, has been appointed North ?" by the Southern Claims Commission, Stecial Commissioner to take testimony in carpet-bag official because hets mean, corregard to claims against the U.S. Govern- | tupt, low; he comes nere to fatten on the

$3,000 will be referred to him. a young white woman got abourd the ac-John D. Soonson, a sace sofal teacher at commodation train on the Releigh & Gas ton Ruiroad at Franklinton ard g-v - bir h to a bouncing boy baby while the train was renaing between Macon and Littleton depot-. The conductor, a young numerried man, was considerably astenished and very much embarrassed as to the proper-made of protedure.

Carpet-Uaggers and Settlers, We observe that ex Gov. Haraphreys of Mississippi has been interviewed by a New WILMINGTON, N. C., FRIDAY MORNING, JUNE 30, 1871.

York Herald reporter, and are struck with crockery, besides the bar utensils. what he is reported as saying about the Ruleigh, about the close of the winter, is disposition of the Southern people to still progressing, and bids fair to last dur- wards Northern men who come among them. He makes the distinction between The young man Harris, charged with the mercenary carpet bagger and the hoarobbing the U. S. mail, and convicted of est settler, which all right-minded Southern people make, and which seems so diffi cuit for Northern people to understand .-His language is forcible and clear. Here > is what he says: "How can the people of the North exprot that the 'embers of the rebellion' will known as carpet baggers, on these embers?

Wilmington Iournal.

local self-government to the people of the South is all that is needed to quench the embers of rebellion forever.

"You speak, Governor, of the hatred of Northern men toward the South. Is there not an intensified hatred still existing with the Southern people for the people of the

"The Southern people, sir, hat the and be one of us. They have meanness, whether of native or Northern growth; of Nortern birth who is known to be false and untrue. If he comes as the codes sutney' vender comes-as the bummer' chaes-to plander and pillage; if he comes as the bords of camp-followers and professional office-seekers come-to gather the spills of victory and rob the treasuries of our people, then he always has and always will receive the

Shepherd, who has been suffering from classes in the South. Bat if he comes On confronting each other in the door, sc of a a, had his right arm amputated as the peerle-a Prentiss came ; if he comes above the elbow, on Friday, by Dr. F. B. | as the grand old Knickerbecker, John Ancounty, to be held on the second Monday Laywood, as isted by Dr. Fab, haywood, as sted by Dr. Fab, haywood, as sted by Dr. Fab, haywood, as sted by Dr. Fab, haywood, as set to be held on the second Monday Jr., and Dr. Little. Immediately after his noble Roman. Charles Clark, and thou-Haywood, as isted by Dr. Fab. Haywood, thony Quitman, came ; if he comes as that arm was amputated, and before the arter- sands of our oldest and best ci iz na came,

Friend Spelman, of the Sentiael, has ies were ti-d up, under the influence of to make our subny land their home, to de ago, on Sunday morning, when freezied THE BABE OF HEAVEN. assault on the woman, afterwards destroying several hundred dollars' worth of

In this instance, at the request of his wife, he was arrested by the police, and was fined twenty-five dollars and costs .ing without cessation ever since. As to to read it :

what le l to the occurrence of yesterday, we have only the testimony of the living." and will give it, leaving our readers to draw their own conclusions.

About 4 o'clock yes'erday afternoon we heard that a man, apparently ,wild with rage, was forcibly entering houses, breaking in doors, and jumping through win-dows in that portion of the city east of East Boundary street, and that he had fired several shots.

An hour later, while endeavoring to fering songs, lifting her bright blue eyes to ret out the particulars of this report, we Withdraw that 'driftwood' and restore heard that a man had at'empted to kill his her mother's face, then falling back, in a wife and then had cat his own throat and drowned himself. Further research deaction, "I am happy here. veloped the fact that this was the same party who had figured in the eastern part scarce yet entering the rosy threshold of of the city, as report says, in search of his her fifth year, had been answering the wife, who had gone into a house of quessmiles of the young man, who had been tionatly character. Determined to get the pleased with her beauty. He had nodded Tue state of affairs as nearly as possible. his head to her little tunes; he had offered we visited the house, and learned from a her his pearl-handled pen-knife to play white domestic that Mrs. Nickerson had with; and at lest his heart went over to accompanied her yesterday afternoon on a ment, in this State. No claims larger than spoils of his office, and not to live among visit to her house in the eastern part of the her at every glance. The mild blue eyes, ci'y, where, at Mrs. Nickerson's request, trusting faith, made his leap with a purer they sent out for beer, and were drinkbut that they d spise and spurn the man ing it when she heard the neighborhood joy; and, as the coach rattled on he began to wish the end of the journey not so very aroused by "the report that a man was atnear. tempting to gain forcible entry into the house. The domestic says she at once informed Mrs. Nickerson that it must be her busband, when they both started home .peither smiling at his caresses nor at the On reaching the house by way of the gate dear face that bent over her.

on Bay lane the domestic proceeded ahead into the house, Mrs. Nickerson Leing met the young brow that had never yet been by Nickerson, who had also come up Bay shadowed by care ; and as the coach stoplage from the direction of Barnard street. ped at the ion door, and the passengers moved uneasily, preparatory to leaving, both entering the kitchen, Nickerson-so she bent towards the young man and lispa colored servant says-seemed to smile ed. in her childish voice, there words and syr, "So you have come home, have "Does you love God ?" you ?' She replied, "Yes, and what of

He did not understand at first in the conit ?" Nickerson then immediately grasped usion, and bent over nearer ; and the voice asked again, clearly, almost eagerly, " Does you love God ?" the thoughtful, burdens as well as our prosperity and was about six inches in length, did not inquiring eyes, meantime, beaming into his own. The young man drew back hastily, blushing up to the very roots of his hair. He looked in a sort of confused, abrupt way son then seized a hatchet and struck ner at the child, who, frightened at his manix blows in the head, crushing the skull. ner, had hidden her face in her mother's bosom, turned to the coach door, gave another look back as if he longed to see her to sever it from the hand. In her strugface, and then he left the coach. gles the blow did not come with its intend He hurried to his hotel, but the little ed force, but sufficiently so as to leave the voice went with him. There seemed an finger daugling from the hand. The echo in his heart, constantly repeating the scieums of Mrs. Nickerson coon attracted question of the child, "Does you love the attention of a policeman, Nickerson in God ?" Several gay young men met him at his hotel. They appeared to have been waiting for him, and welcomed him with mirth that was almost boisterous. They had prepared an elegant supper, and after he had been to his room, escorted him to the table. The full gleam of the gas fell upon the glistening furniture; red wines threw The body was immediately searched for the snowy linen. There was mirth, wit, faces lit with pleasure-everything to charm the eye and please the palate ! but surface by Thomas V. Williams, a fisher-"This gentleman to whom I refer," I man, with a hook. The suicide was taken the young man was conscious of a void never experienced before. His heart ached to see the child again," and ever and anon he seemed to hear the words, "Does you love God ?" His name was Gilbert. Only twentythree years of age, he was a good scholarsevere gashes, the jugular vein had not esteemed by his friends a genius. Already been severed, and that his death had been he had made his mark as a writer ; but he caused from drowning, the jury rendering had never thought, as he thought to night, "Does you love God ?" It came to him when he held the red wine to his lips; it was heard among the from the colored domestic, was caused by clatter of the billiard balls, and the shouts chopping himself with the axe after it had of merry laughter that filled the wide flown off from the handle. Had not the room everywhere. Which ever way he axe become disengaged, the colored girl turned, he saw the earnest glance of the says Nickerson would have killed his wife blue eyed child, heard the low voice singbefore he fled. ing, the low voice laughing, the low voice Officer Kaufman took charge of Mrs. asking thrillingly, "Does you love God ?" Nickerson, and assisted in taking her to It followed him to his bedside. He had her room, when medical assistance was tried to drown it in wine, in song, in careprocured. Although badly injured, and suffering terribly, Mrs. Nickerson was less levity. He strove to sleep it away, but he heard it in his dreams. alive last night, and, by careful attention, The next night he met a fashionable may recover. As there was, seemingly, friend. He was to take her to some place no desire to have the body of the suicide of pleasure. She was very beautiful in conveyed to his former home, it was budazzling robes. The gleam of pearls and ried by the coroner after the inquest. the lastre of silk and lace vied with each

RATES OF ADVERTISING.

1 square, of 10 lines or less, for each and every insertion, $1.

Special Notices will be charged $2 00 per square for each and every insertion.

All Obituaries and private publications of every character are charged as advertisements.

ar No advertisement reflecting upon private character can, under ANY CIRCUMSTANCES, be admitted.

NO. 21

"Does you love God ?"

For more than an hour the dear babe,

The child had been sitting for the last

A thoughtfulness seemed to spread over emotion. "Never, since that day, have I been tempted to do that which my conscience would not sanction out the earnest, serious gaze with which she regarded me before she asked me that question, The following beautiful story-one of has come to my mind. Would she rememthe sweetest and most touching we ever ber me, do you think ? Absurd thought ! read-was published in the "Christian of course she would not. But I should Having been released, he has been drink- Observer" nearly two years ago. Be sure remember her anywhere, under any circumstances. Can I not see her, madam ? Is she not at home with you? I long to take her in my arms, and hear once more the

The question came from a sweet pair of voice that God has used to draw my heart lips. Opposite sat a young gentleman of to him." striking exterior. He and the child were Strange that, in his eagerness, he did traveling in a stage coach. The latter sat not notice that paling cheek, the quiver on her mother's knee. Her little face, of the mother's lips, the sudden placing of beautiful beyond description, looked out from a frame of delicate frame work. For four hours the coach had been toiling on tering feet, of little gentle indications that child's fingers had been busy in the been very winning in her little ways-lisp. room about him.

Saddenly, as he ceased speaking, there little, old fashioned, contented way, into He saw the tear-stained check turned toher mother's arms, saying, by the mute ward the window ; he noticed the garments of sombre hue ; he heard the silence reigning within.

"Madam-is-the-child --?'

"She is in heaven," came low and brokenly from the trembling lips.

The young man sank back on his seat. agitated, dumb-sorrowfal that he had so rudely torn open the still bleeding wound in that womanly breast.

fall of the innocence of a holy love and a long pause, and his voice was troubled. "This is sal tidings," he said, after a " Dear little angel ! she is, then speaking to me from the grave."

The mother arose and beckoned him to follow her. In a little hallowed chamber she went, where, in a case, were the books tifteeu minutes regarding the young man the child loved, her Bible, her beautiful with a glance that almost seemed solemn ; rewards, her childish toys.

"There," said the mother, now quite broken down, and sobbing as she spoke, "there is all that is left on earth of precious Nettie."

"No, madam; that is not all that is left; I am a monument of God's mersy, made so through her holy influence. Before she asked me that question on that eventful day, my mind was a chaos of doubts, of bewildering and conflicting errors. I had dared to question the existence of an Almighty Creator. I had defyingly thrown my taunts at him who, in great forbearance, has forgiven me. My influence for evil was unlimited ; because men looked

I TI G OU CLIFTED AS INSPECTOR OF stor, do respec fully offers his ser view to his release and the public generally. 15-211

·考 你想·此 图: 我就包起我。 ('necessor to Dialogue & Greer,) Fire Hose Manufacturer, ED NORTH T., PHILADELPHIA.

Established in 1821. Steam Fire Engine, Forcing and Station Hose, Leader and Hubber Buckets, Pipe, Nozzle, Strew and Fatent Coupling of all kinds. Tel: 4

HABIRT C. JOHNSON. INSPECTOR OF NAVAL STORES, COTTON, &c. WILWINGTON, N. O. E AT JOHN C. HEYER'S STORE. all tinform his fliends and old customers that he has qualified as Inspector, and solicits their ph. rounge. jun: 12

A VOID QUACKS, _A VICTIM OF EARLY Is indiscretion, causing nervous debility, pre- | Caldw-Il county. mature decay, etc., having tried in vain every advertised remaily, has discovered a simple mashe of cell cure, which he will send free to his New Yo k City. 49-w6xc1 jan 12

REPORT OF A DE STORE STORE STORE STORE STORE STORE STATE NEWS.

Capt. John S. Daney, near Tarboro' ricked cotten blooms on the 16th.

Dr. John Pulier, an old and esteemed citizen of Enfield, died on Wednesday last. N thitg of interest to the people of this city, in the proceedings of the Supreme of Gettysburg.

Court at Raleigh, on last Wednesday. James Holeman, Sr., is the Conservative alternoon the twenty-eight men. brought Merrimon, A. S., | Busbee, C. M., candidate for Convention in Person to this city day before yesterday from Bladsoe, M. A. county.

The young ladies of Christ Courch, Newbern, are holding a fair and festival for Bond. the benefit of thdir church.

Onite a number of U. S. prisoners, charged with Ku-kluxing in Rutherford, arrived in Ruleigh on Wednesday. Among them were some half dezen women.

He will enter the cavalry service as Brevet | instant, the carliest in the State. Second Lieut.

and North Carolina Methodists was or- weighed 12 onaces, and the largest 25 .gasiz d by Bishop Pearce, at Enfield, on They were raised on the farm of Mr. A. T. the 15th inst.

Mr. M. W. Churchill has withdrawn from the proprietorship of the National Hotel in Baleigh, and Mr. Rutjes has now assumed complete control of the establish-

Mrs. Margaret Warlick, of Lincoln county, who is in her 94th year, has 10 children, 50 grand-children, 120 greatgrand-children and 1 great-great-grandchild.

A few days ago at Clinton, Wallace Faison, son of Dr. Faison, a youth aged 15 which resulted in the boy stabbing him.-The wound is supposed to be mortal. Says the Raleigh Sentinel.

been turtled. It was from Beaufort, and obloreform, he spring from the table and velop the r. sources and build up the ma- kitchen, and drawing a sheath knife, weighted 86 pounds.

The rust is greatly injuring the cat crop

Large saw mills are to be establised in the section of the counties between Halt- Dear and Damb Institute at Raloigh, but fax and Scotland Mack.

command of the Catolina Ees, the office- tendent of Williamsburg Asylum, Varginia; report of continues : holders' organ in Esteigh

(not from the ic) on Thursday, but the Besides these there were a number of disflames were boon quolled.

Capt. Wm. S. Herris and Dr. E. A. tanment passed off in a very pleasant Crudopare the nomine s for Convention manner to all. in Fra kin county.

Hillsborn is to have a bries band. Look out, Evans, that some of these "young gentlemen" don't blow their brains out.

Wm, B. Wright, E q , and Col. Duncen with fuze, and on the end of the tail is Shaw, have been on natel for Conventionen something like a fleshy bulb, and a finger coanty.

The Raleigh Sentinel suggests to the hog, particularly the Peccary, or South ladies the propriety of giving vocal and American species of that animal. Where instrumental concerts or entertainments of is Darwin? for the removal of our dead from the field

Yesterday's Sentinel cays : Yesterday BRAGO, THOMAS, Raleigh, Chairman.

Rutherford and Cleaveland counties, charged with complicity in the Biggerstaff Moore, J. H., affair, were pat in jail by order of Jadge

The Fayetteville Eagle says : The carliest cotton blooms in C .mberland is sent us from the farm of Allen A. McCaskill, gathered on the 18th instant, and from the farm of E. R. Partridge, in Moore, Callet Henry Kingsbury, of Oxford, opened on the 15th idstant. Mr. Partgrain ded at West Point a few days ego .- | ridge had a bloom open on the 12th

The Raleigh Telegram has had half a A Colored Conference of the Virginia bushel of potatees, the smallest of which Miel, of Waka. 'Iwon't do though, Wilmington is ahead yet. The Raleigh Telegram regrets to learn that Mrs. Burwell, the wife of Rev. Robert Borwell, of Charlotte, died ruddenly, in Raleigh, on Wednesday evening lest, at 10% o'clock, at the residence of her son inlaw, Mr. W. H. Crow Sue was on a visit to her daughter, had been comp aining for some time, and was suddenly attacked with paralysis, which resulted fatally.

DANGERS OF THE AMATEUR STAGE .- During the enacting of tabicau vivants at the years, got into altercation with a negro, Salisbury Theatre, ou the 18th inst., the Leach, J. T., Leachburg, scenery suddenly toos fire. Miss Annie Rouzee, a beautiful young lady, courageously attacked the fl m s, and with the The Raleigh Telegram says: Our far- tardy support of the young men of the mers are becoming anxious on the rain company subdued them. When this had question. Crops are suffering from the been accomplished her flowing veil caught man. drouth, and gerdens have been almost fire from one of the foot lights, and she ruined. No rain of any consequence has | was painfully, thouga not seriously burned. We learn from the Augusta Chroniele & Sentinel that a report had reached that city that a suit had been commenced The Southern Home says that there is against the Charlotte, Columbia & Augusta railroad, by a party for domoges alleged to have been sustained by him under the fol-

to finish the operation.

now at the head of a similar institution in Governor lincuphrey's remarks upon the He took hold of the finger of his wife that olders' organ in Ealeigh Thiem's ice bruse in Ualeigh eck fire of fina; Dr. C. H. Hugbes, of Fulton, Iowa; Dr. J. Lewis and wife, of Newburg, Ohio. tinguished gentlemon present. The enter-

A CURINITY.-Dr. Morris, says the Western Sentinel of the 22d inst., desverod a negro woman el a female child, near Graham's meeting house, in this (Forsyth) there has ever been such a thing as a gen there has ever been such a thing as a gen servative nomination for Convent on in The child has a tail three inches long, flat, and about three inches bread, and covered faller sufferers. J. H. TUTFLE, 78 Nassau St., tion by the Conservaties of Camberland with one joint, and a well developed nail Dr. Morrisst des that the child can wiggle its tail, and is perfectly formed in every The Raleigh Skating Association have other respect. We understand that there presented Miss Ceurgie Briggs with a is a white man living in Salem who is mammonth allum, containing the photo- blessed with a candle appendage. His graphs of the members of the Association. tail, we understand, resembles that of a

EXECUTIVE CO MMITTEES CENTRAL EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

DeCarteret, J. Q , | Battle, R. H.,

FIRST DISTRICT.

Ransom, M. W., Jackson, Latham, Chas, Plymouth, Winston, D. C., Windsor, Eure, M. L., Gatesville, . Moore, J. E., Williamston, SECOND DISTRICT.

Hughes, John, Newbern, Morrisey, W. G., Goldsboro', O'Hagan, Chas. J., Greenville, Jeffroy, A. W., Beaufort, Nixon, B. W., Jacksonville, THIRD DISTRICT.

Faller, T. C., Fayetteville, McKoy, A. A., Clinton, Wall, H. C., Rockingham, McIver, J. D., Carthage, Ellis, J. W., Whiteville.

PLUMMER, E. H., Warrenton, Chairman. Amis, J. S., Oxford, York, B. W., Morrisville, Cooke, C. M., Louisburg.

can. The dectors had a race to eatch him terial wealth of the country, to share our attempted to kill her. The blade, which

The Full is greatly infining the out crop in Granville clusty. Tobacco and corn are doing well, The Bellevile (Granks) Carculele gives a very interesting description of an enter. taioment given us that place on last Mon- to our he pitable homes, and cordially the blade breaking in two. Nickerday by Dr. W. J. Felmer, formerty of the promoted to the highest of social and pohtted pisces of honor and trust."

Coi, Mark Ervin has assumed editorial Belleville, to Dr. John Clapton. Superin- Ka Klux are also worthy of attention. The bad her wedding ring on, and attempted

Just before closing the interview I said to the Governor that I had been told the day before by a gentleman in this city that about two years ago he was asked by the Great Grand Chelops of the Ku Klux- the me ntime dragging her from the kitch-Kian to become the Grand Cyclops of the en to the lane. Nickerson fied in the di-Kian in this State, and asked him if he rection of the Exchange, and passing down thought there had ever been a regularly the hill, staggered towards the dock, from organized body of the order.

county, on last Sunday, watch is a curies- er-1 organization, nor do 1 believe a desperate cut with some instrument as Mr John Poweli hes receivel the Con- ity worthy of a place in Barnum's Museum. there has ever b en an organization of the he was falling. kied at all. A f w lawless men now and then hand themselves temporarily together by those who had witnessed the act, and and commit these ou'rages, but there is no in half an hour after it was brought to the organization."

continued, "seemed to think the Klan out of the water and placed on the wharf, was organized to frighten the negroes where it was viewed by hundreds, the from their midnight depredations upon news of the occurrence having spread like stock pens, chicken roosts, &s. Do you wildfl.e. Upon examination of the throat thick there ever was an organization for it was found that, though there were two this rurpose."

"No fir-at least no general organization ; though something of the kind might not have been entirely wrong, and it cer- a verdict to that effect. Upon the foresome description in order to raise fands DEMOCRATIC CONSERVATIVE ORGANIZATION. tainty would have had its hands full. I head and head of Nickerson was found an thick if we are now permitted to cscape indentation, as if produced with a blunt from our present local government and to instrument, which we afterwards learned elect our own officers all such klans and associations will disappear entirely and be no longer heard of.

> From the Savannah Advertiser, June 17. A TRAGELY IN SAVANNAH.

Attempted Murder and Sulcide_A Hertaurant Reeper Brains his Wife and Eboots Rimself.

While the entire city was engaged yesterday afternoon in its last sad duty to the dead [Com. Tattaai's funeral] a tragedy was being acted out, the facte of which are horrifying, and almost too terrible to be dweit upon.

Amos Nickerson, the keeper of the then cutting his own throat, jumped into relations, and because it involved the exthe river and was drowned. For the past posure of many prominent men of Hamilsix months domestio wrangles and differ- ton, Ohio, as frequenters of a faro den .-ences have taken root in the family of On the night of Dec. 24, Thomas Meyers, heartburnings and jealousies that cu'mi- men, who, according to the indictment, nated so fattally yesterday.

age at the time of his death, was a native ed conspiracy. The five men were Thomas she suddenly looked up and asked me that of Ireland, but long exposure as a seaman McGehan, now on trial, Jack Garver Dan- question.' tanned bim to that hue which led many to iel McGlynn, James McGehan and Ich. accept him as a Portuguese or Italian .- Sheeley, all democrats. Mr. Follett made head? What did you auswer ?" Arriving in this city a few years before a long argument for the prosecution on | "I am ashamed to say I was not pro the war, he buried Lis first wife, and en Friday. 'The following words, written by pared with an answer," replied the young gaged in blockading, returning, however, the correspondent of the Cincinnati Ga- man, casting down his eyes. to Savannah, where he married his present zette on Friday, read very strangely now : That night pleasure had no gratification wife Elizabeth. With honesty and indus "Mr. Milliken will commence his argu- for him. His feet trod languidly the try in his favor, he led with her an ap-parently peaceful and contented life. Vallandigham will follom in the afternoon and more than once it was said of him, Charloston News cays there is a movement as she came sailing into the room with The McGehan murder trial, the case in smiles upon her red young lips, and a welwhich the Hon. C. L. Vallandigham was American Restaurant, on Bryan street, engaged as counsel at the time of his come in her words, there came, too, floating noiselessly at her side, the presence of west of Whittaker, in a fit of jealousy, death, has created great interest in Souththat angel child. The better feelings her hacked his wife, Elizabeth, to pieces, and ern Ohio, on account of certain political innocent presence awakened were yet warm ; and, before he knew it, the young man said, quickly and earnestly, "Does you love God ?" Nickerson, and it may be interesting to go a republican, was shot, as alleged, in a back upon the record, and trace up the gambling saloon, by one of a party of five young girl, with a start of surprise.

Vellandigham_His Last Law Case,

entered the place with intent to commit lovely child I saw yesterday," he replied. Nicker on, who was about 45 years of the murder and according to a preconcertup to me, and chose me for their leader .--I was going the downward path, grasping blindly in a labyrinth of error, and dragging others with me. Madam, by this time I might have been a debauchee, a libertine, a God-defying wretch, but for her unlooked for question, " Does you love God ?" "Oh that voice ! that look ! that almost infinite sorrow! that divine pity that, through her, glanced into my soul! Madam, these tears bear witness that your child left more than precious dust and perishings toys."

Utterly broken down the strong man wept like a child. All he said was true; for he held the hearts of men in his hands. In genius he was one of the strong ones of the earth; and all that powerful mind was engaged in spreading the tidings of man's salvation through Jesus Christ, shadows of a lustrous crimson hue athwart Reader. in the sweet accents of that babe "Oh! little children do a mighty work." of Heaven, is there not a voice in your heart asking, "Does you love Gad ?"

Mr, Vallandigham.

Mr. Vallendigham was a member of the Presbyterian Church until after the war broke out, when he was driven from it by the intolerance and proscription of his opinions exhibited by the congregation. Recently he has a tended the Episcopal Church, and has been a faithful member. The funeral sermon will be preached by Rev. E. P. Wright, of the Episcopal on the solemn import of the question, Church. Mr. Vallandigham's estate is valued at $30,000 or $40,000, clear, of inoumbrances.

> State Officers Indicted for Embezzling. ATLANTA, GA., June 21.

The grand jury of Fulton county to-day indicted Foster Blodgett, late superintendent of the State road, and his private secretary, Varney Gaskill, for larceny, after trust, in the embezzling of the State road funds.

The constitutionality of the income tax is at last fairly submitted to a Judge of the Supreme Court of the United States. Mr. Justice Strong, sitting on circuit, in Philadelphia, in the case of Henry C. Lee, the well-known capitalist of that city, against Wm. R. Leeds, an internal reveother to enhance her loveliness; but even nue collector, to recover back the amount of certain income tax heretofore collected. For the plaintiffs, Spencer Miller, Esq., and Hon. Wm. Evarts appeared.

Presidential,

Toombs prefers Greeley for President to any Democrat.

The Mound City Journal is out in favor "What do you mean ?" exclaimed the of ex-Senator Doolittle, of Wisconsin, for President.

> The Boston Traveller (Butler's organ) continues to ridicule Mr. Greeley as a Presidential candidate.

The Cairo Bulletin proposes James R. "And what, pray, put it in the child's Doolittie as the candidate of the Democracy for President in 1872.

The Indianapolis "Sentinel" formally

| Litchford, J. J., DISTRICT COMMITTEES: CABTER, D. M., Washington, Chairman

Shaw, W. B., Currituck C. H. KENAN, THOS. S., Wilson, Chairman.

Wooten, J. F., Kinston.

ENGELHARD, J. A., Wilmington, Chairman. Norment, A. S., Lumberton, FOURTH DISTRICT.

fallen in this vicinity in nearly five weeks. Yesterday was cloudy, and threatened rain. but the welcome drops would not fall.

an o d m n in east Tennessee by the name of Lawrence Feathers, 95 years of age, who has 16 living children, 125 grandchilden aud 87 great grand-children-a'l living the is from North Carolins, and related to the Ratledges, of Gaston York to Savannah. The conductor of the e unty.

Dr. J. F. Long of Newbern, assisted by D-s Chas. Duffy, Jr., and G. S. Attmore, on Wednesday, succeeded in removing a Columbia, and remained over the night. catarace from the eye of a little lad, a son of Mr. John S. Manix, local editor of the Newbern Times. The difficulty of the operation, which was entirely successful, may be judged from the fact that the lad handed him the check received from the had been totally plind for 5 years.

conductor of the other train, and explain-The Rutherfordton Vindicator says: Gen. ed the circumstances under which he had M rgan and Lieut. Green were in town received it. The conductor refused to reon Thursday last, and quite a number of cognize the check, and escorted the party our citizens called to see them, freely con- from the car, upon his fillars to pay the troops will be ordered here to assist the charge of assault and battery. The concivil authorities in the discharge of their ductor gave bond for his appearance at and the vision faded, and with a cold trader. This but added fuel to the flame, Governor. duties, If necessary to call upon them. - court, and was released. It is also stated shiver he turned away. A few weeks ago and a domestic difficulty ensued, which Lient, Green, with a detachment of Co. the passenger has commenced suit against came the news of his death. He fell from necessitated his arrest and the issuing ci A, 4th Artillery, arrived here on Friday the company, and lays his damages at the deck of a vessel one stormy night in a peace bond. Thus matters lowing circumstances : On Tuesday the party took the cars at Charlotte, with a through ticket from New train detached the conpon due the road, and gave the conductor's check. The passenger, without informing the conductor of his intention, got off at some station above The next moining he got on board the train and renewed his journey. The condactor-a son of the President of the road -came to collect the fare, and the party

Drake, J. A., Hilliardston, Strudwick, F. N., Hillsboro'. EIFTH DI-TRICT. MOREHEAD, Jas. T., Greensboro', Chair-

Robins, M. S., Asheboro', Scales, A. M., Wentworth, Hill, Joel F., Wilson's Store, Robbins, Frank C., Lexington, Kerr, John, Yanceyville,

Jordan, Henry T., Rexboro'. SIXTH DISTRICT. BROWN, J. E., Charlotte, Chairman, Armfield, R. F., Statesville, Schenck, David, Lincolaton, Cowles, W. H. H., Wilkesboro', McNeill, Dr. G. C., Catawba Station, Henderson, Jno. S., Salisbury, Debson, Joseph, Yadkinville.

SEVENTH DISTRICT. AVERY, A. C., Morganton, Chairman, Cocke, A. M., Asheville, Love, J. R. Jr., Webster, Neill, Q. F., Jefferson, Gudger, Jas. M., Burnsville, Darham, Plato, Shelby, Gash, L. S., Hendersonville.

A correspondent of the New Orleans he would kill her. His jealcusy became so Times tells the following singular story: deep-seated that he left town for Chicago "Not many months ago, as a gentleman with seven hundred dollars, which amount was about to plunge into a forest stream he soon ran through with, and returned to for a pleasant bath, he saw far down ou Savannab, His wife, although conducting the pebbly bottom a terrible simulacram the basiness during his absence, had in the Latterly, Nickerson started a restau- depends upon circumstances." rant in the market, and subsequently opened an eating-house and a bar Frank Leslie's Illustrated Newspaper has on Bryan street, nearly opposite the a capital hit on "The Poetry of the Pemarket, known as the American Restau | ried." The cartoon represents two young rant. At this point demestic troubles ladies gazing admiringly at a rough-lookcommenced, and jealousies were born ing man who is angrily addressing a boy that proved to be the forerunners of ulti- slopping past him with an overflowing pail through eternity. mate min and death to one, if not to both, of water. Underneath is the following of the interested parties. Mrs. Nickerson, dialogue who is about twenty five years of age, Six Ward Politican (who has been splashrather good-looking and vivacious in her ed) : "You bloody snoozer ! I'll make disposition, became a favorite with the you restle your hash in h-ll !" boarders, and it was not uncommon for her | Poetic Young Lady : "O, Clara !-

to indulge in repartee and conversation There's the author of the new poems !with them to such an extent as to awaken Let's stop and listen. How sweet !" a morbid jealousy in the mind of her husband, who gave evidence of the feeling in "What flower of beanty shall I marry?" his quick temper and increased devotion asked a young spendtbrift of his miserly to drink. His wife was compelled to fly governor. To which the governor replied from him on several occasions, when his with a grim smile, "Marigold." desperate conduct induced her to believe

The annual regatia of the New York Yacht Club took place in the harbor on Thursday. The Agnes, Addie, Vixen and Fiyaway were the victors.

the Ohio Republicans think that General to me the artless question, 'Does you love bles which have been inaugurated in this and when the conductor reached there on county. We learn that a detachment of his return trip, had him arres ed on a trouve will be order to do business as a free be state as a condidete for Noyes, a gallant soldier who lost one leg | God ?' Do you remember ?"

guests at midnight, "I don't know wheth- whom we met that or similar questions."

presents the name of Thomas A. Hen-

"I was thinking, as you came in, of a

"As I was in the act of leaving the coach,

"He does not seem himself."

No, he was not like the gay, thoughtless self of former years. There was a still pool lying in his bosom, the waters of which had never before been disturbed.-Now a little child had dropped a pebble in it, and the vibration was to go on

Dust-soiled and travel-weary, a thoughtmeditation, his eye suddenly encountered a face looking down from a window of a hardsome house. His whole countenance lowing facts : suddenly altered. He paused an instant, room where sat the lady of the house. "'You will pardon my intrusion," he you accidentally at the window. I have The Boston Transcript says that some of who, five years ago, in a s.age-coach, put dricks for the Democratic nomination for President. The New York correspondent of the being matured among certain prominent Democrats in that city to push John Qaincy Adams, of Massachuset's, for the Presi-dential nomination, on the ground that he possesses the most elements of availability.

A Whole Family Killed by Runaway Horses

A Missouri paper gives an account of a sad accident which occurred near Johnsful- man walked through the principal town, in that State, on Sunday morning street of a large Western city. As he last, by which four persons were killed-a walked on, apparently absorbed in his own father, mother, son and an infant child .-From the meagre report we glean the fol-locking esgerly at the window; and in from church in a two horse wagon. In Mr. Bottles and family were returning another moment his hand was on the bell- crossing Deepwater the horses became handle. He was nehered into the very frightened and ran away, dragging the son, who was driving, a distance of nearly a quarter of a mile. In going this dissaid, "but I could not pass by after seeing tauce from the creek it appears that the mother jumped out on her infant child .--never forgotten you nor your little girl. In the atternoon a traveler from Germantown discovered the lifeless body of tigs son near the road. Soon sfler he found the women with her neck broken, and the "I think I do," said the lady, smilingly, child lying near her alive, but almost so much startled and confused; but my on he found the dead body of the father. " Gentlemen," said a publican to his dear child asked almost every person with The child has since died.

er you have talked enough or not ; but as "Her innocent face is engraved on my An unpleasant sort of arithmetic-Diviheart," said the young man, with much sions among families.

Thus matters stood until about six weeks | for myself, I am going to shut up."