

[SPECIAL TO THE JOURNAL.] Reported Loss of the North Carolina Railroad, from Greensboro to the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad.

It is reported here that the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad has leased the North Carolina Road from Greensboro to Greensboro, and will, at an early date, run trains through. The gauge west of Greensboro will be changed.

THE FIRST OVER THE LINES.

Telegraphic Communication Between Wilmington and Laurinburg.

The following special dispatch to the JOURNAL was received here last night at 8:30 announcing the fact of telegraphic communication having been opened from Laurinburg to Wilmington, being the first through dispatch sent over the wires on the W., C. & R. R.:

Laurinburg, N. C., Sept. 24. To Wilmington Journal:

Through from Laurinburg to Wilmington on through time. The wires are now all better. We shake hands with you across the bloody chasm.—Scout-town and all. WASH.

The Montana Victory—Official Vote of the Territory for Delegate to Congress—Democratic-Liberal Majority, 319—Democratic-Liberal, 732.

The official vote in the recent election in Montana Territory for delegate to Congress, compared with the vote of last year when the Radicals carried the State by 413 majority, shows a great triumph for the Democratic-Liberal party:

Table with 2 columns: Candidate and Votes. Includes Maglans, Democrat (4,919), Claggett, Rep. (4,496), Democratic majority (1871), Claggett, Rep. (3,274), Toole, Dem. (4,861), Republican majority (1,587), Democratic gain in 1872 (1,282).

The New York Times seeks to break the force of the many charges of corruption and fraud brought against the members of its party by a counter charge against Mr. Greeley in relation to some private business transaction in the city of New York.

The attempt of the Times has proved such a perfect failure, that we would not allude to it, still it is not given the opportunity to show its better side. It is a sad and degrading leading administration organ in the city of New York has become. No more graphic or correct impression of the audacity and recklessness of the charge of the Times can be given to our readers than is contained in the simple statement that the New York Evening Post, itself an unscrupulous administration sheet, should feel called upon to administer the following cutting rebuke to its cotemporary and ally.

The Post in an article deprecating the publication of alleged unfounded slanders and charges and an unfair use made of the contemptuous silence with which they might well and properly be treated, goes on to say by way of illustration, "But let us put this method of proceeding to another test. Nearly two weeks ago the Times of this city abstracted from the records of the Supreme Court evidence going to show according to that paper 'the truth of certain charges against Mr. Greeley. We never paid the least attention to these charges, because they were not a kind of argument with which we like to deal.'"

We should rather think not. The argument, if such a thing can be called an argument, is of a kind that no honest man would like to deal with. After the extended circulation of the Post gave to the charges of drunkenness against Gratz Brown, we confess that we had no objection to the publication of the evidence in relation to the same. We would rather think not. The argument, if such a thing can be called an argument, is of a kind that no honest man would like to deal with.

Mr. Greeley's Great Speech.

We call the special attention of our readers to the great speech of Mr. Greeley, delivered in Pittsburg last week, the full text of which will be found in another column. When we contrast these noble, statesman-like utterances of Mr. Greeley with the words of President Grant, so recently addressed to the Convention of Veteran Soldiers, so-called, assembled at the same place, the difference between the two men stands out so prominently that it seems absurd to suppose that any sane man South of Mason and Dixon's line can hesitate a moment in making his choice for the Presidency.

From another point of view, the contrast is no less striking. We were informed by telegram from Washington in our last issue that the President had refused to pardon certain Ku-Klux prisoners in the Albany penitentiary who had been recommended to mercy, because of a narrow coming from the district where the criminals were convicted, from those who would be most endangered by their release. The character of most of the convicts is very bad. Some of them are ignorant, lawless and desperate men, who, it is believed, would not hesitate to wreak vengeance upon those who testified against them.

Mr. Greeley speaks words of kindness and conciliation. His utterances indicate, unmistakably, the broad, enlightened views of a far-seeing statesman and philanthropist.

General Grant, in refusing to pardon the poor wretches whom, even the unfeeling wretches detect, Whiteley recommended to mercy, exhibits a narrow minded, partisan hate and malignity, not to say delight in human misery, or an ignorance that is simply disgraceful in the chief magistrate of a great nation.

President Grant knows, or ought to know, that the statement that the men whom Gerritt Smith and Whiteley recommended for pardon are men whom it would be dangerous to turn loose upon the community, is absolutely and unqualifiedly false. In the first place, if we are properly informed, there were only four persons recommended to be pardoned, and one of these has died in a felon's cell, owing to the objections interposed, it is said, by the Carolina officials. There is no pretence that there is any longer any danger from Ku-Klux of any sort. And yet these poor, ignorant wretches who ask only the poor privilege of going home to die, are herded to the country as enemies to the peace and dignity of the State, so formidable that the safety of the communities from which they have been banished is so seriously endangered that the felon's chain shall be their lot in this life for all time!

The men whom these poor, dying creatures can fight have, we venture to assert, a heavier load of guilt upon their consciences than they have who thus innocently alarm them.

But, beyond the fear of guilty consciences of North Carolina officials, the release of these Albany prisoners will occasion no apprehension. Indeed, this is a mere pretext. The real purpose is to gain a partisan advantage. The North Carolina officials, Mr. Attorney General Williams and President Grant all know this to be true. It cannot be denied.

This shows to the people Grant as he is. The Pittsburg speech shows Greeley as he is.

Let the people choose between them!

Oppression of the South.

We are not surprised when Senator Wilson, the Radical candidate for the Vice-Presidency, stands up and asserts that the Federal Government had been kind and merciful in its treatment of the South; that in fact there had been no despotism on the part of that Government towards our people.

In doing this he only obeys our popular instinct for falsehood. No man indeed, has a right to be surprised at anything that they may say or swear to. His disregard of truth is so wanton and so by-word and a reproach from Maine to California. We confess, however, to some feeling akin to surprise at seeing the New York Evening Post, a journal that affects to be respectable and to have some regard for the usages common among honorable men, coming to the support of Mr. Wilson and seeking to create the impression that we have nothing to complain of at the hands of the Federal Government.

The fact, however, that the organs of the Radical Party feel obliged to deny the truth of the charges of cruelty and oppression toward the South, is not without significance. It tells the surest way to win the Northern heart was to tell the truth, regardless of truth and decency the leading administration organ in the city of New York has become. No more graphic or correct impression of the audacity and recklessness of the charge of the Times can be given to our readers than is contained in the simple statement that the New York Evening Post, itself an unscrupulous administration sheet, should feel called upon to administer the following cutting rebuke to its cotemporary and ally.

It is not our purpose to stir up bad blood, nor to revive the sleeping passions of former years, but it is due to truth, and to our own safety, when the Radical party affirms that the South has been kindly treated, to show in what that kindness consisted. The only friendship the South has ever asked from the Federal Government has been that its officers might execute the laws of the land honestly, fairly and in accordance with the known usages that have prevailed from generation to generation. How far this request has been complied with, the following well authenticated case, the facts of which were widely published at the time, will attest.

no less cruel. Perhaps the saddest thing of all connected with this whole business is to be found in the fact that this case, horrible and brutal and barbarous as it was, and perfectly well authenticated, excited scarcely any comment! Our people dared not talk!

Our German Fellow-Citizens. The accession of Mr. Frederick Hassaurek, editor of the Cincinnati Volksblatt, to Greeley's allies, seems to forebode danger to the Gladiators of military rule and arbitrary government. Mr. Hassaurek, it is acknowledged, yields perhaps more influence with the German voters in Ohio than any other man in that State. Until last week he has withheld any expression of opinion. The long silence has at last been broken, and with words of such power and eloquence as to reach and control every honest heart within hearing, no matter whether German or American, native or foreign born.

The words of Mr. Hassaurek have done more than this, they have reached the heads and controlled the ears of the Grant electors in a different way.
