Thursday Morning, Oct. 17, 1867.

Agent at Goldsboro'.—Mr. B. V. L. HUTTON is our authorized Agent at Goldsboro'.

Agent at Milton.—Mr. J. J. JONES is our authorized Agent at Milton, N. C.

Agent at Clinton.—Mr. T. J. LEE is our authorized Agent at Clinton, N. C.

Agent at Warsaw.—Mr. D. G. MORSEY is our authorized Agent at Warsaw.

Drawbacks.—We are prepared to receive orders for the new Drawback Forms to go into effect Oct. 1st.

THE STAR BOOK BINDERY.—This complete establishment is now in successful operation, and is daily turning out the handsomest specimens of work. Mr. T. H. Tillinghast, its manager, is unsurpassed as a skillful workman, and will guarantee satisfaction to all its patrons.

SUBSCRIPTION MONEY.—A large number of our subscribers having expressed a preference to pay for the STAR for periods varying from five weeks to six months, we have concluded to abandon our plan of weekly payments to the carriers, and employ an agent to make collections.

As our plans are now arranged, the carriers are not authorized to receive any money for the STAR; and, to meet with prompt attention, all orders should be sent directly to the office, No. 3 South Water street.

TO ADVERTISERS.

We respectfully call the attention of the business public to the fact that our advertising rates are lower than those of any other daily newspaper in North Carolina.

This, added to our very large circulation, makes the STAR a most valuable medium of advertising.

Single copies of THE EVENING STAR may be had of Mr. T. M. Harris, at his news stand, on Front Street, every afternoon.

THE CITY.

AUCTION SALES THIS DAY.

S. M. West will sell, in front of his Auction Rooms, this morning at 10 o'clock, Boots, Shoes, Clothing, Furniture, &c.

RECRUITS FOR THE WORK HOUSE.—Twenty-nine offenders, sentenced for terms of thirty days and more imprisonment in the County Work House, were started en route for that place this evening. They were sentenced before the late Criminal Court; and their names and offenses are as follows:

Jos. Barnes, Chas. Butler, John Hargrove, Pompey Hayes, Pat Artis, (two convictions) Jno. H. Hill, Ephraim Poisson, Robt. Shaw, Lizzie Spicer, Jere Forbes, Alex. Flowers, Samuel Malloy, Lewis Newman, Jack Murphy, Marcellus Payne, (two convictions) Aaron Hill, Jno. Davis, (two convictions) Geo. Paine, Jas. Chadbourn, Samuel President, Dublin Jew, colored, Carlton Malpass, Michael Luralle, white, larceny; Edward Certain, white (three convictions) David, Martin, Levy Hubbard, colored, assault and battery; G Steagall, black as a coal, and Catherine Frazier, for fornication and adultery; Geo. Sheir, white, forgery. This man is apt to have a life time berth out there, as there is, also, a fine of $500 imposed on him.

This addition will swell the force already there to forty. They are worked with a ball and chain attached to their leg, and only one hand free; it is necessary thus to hamper them in order to prevent their escape; after awhile, as soon as the stockade is finished on which they are now at work, their labor will be done with more ease to themselves and more profit to the county.

The Temple of Fashion is the place to buy Cheap Clothing.

Superior Court for this County commences in this city on Monday next, Judge Warren presiding. A good deal of the business usually transacted within the jurisdiction of this Court, has been removed to that of the Criminal, and in consequence thereof, we shall do doubt have a dry session.

Have you seen those recherche Hats, at the Temple of Fashion?

HARMONY CIRCLE.—We acknowledge the receipt of an invitation to be present at the First Grand Ball of the "Harmony Circle," to be given at the City Hall, on Tuesday evening, Oct. 22nd. The committee consists of Messrs. Samuel Voorzanger, Henry Bear, W. Goodman and F. Rhein-stein.

Gentlemen from the country, in search of Clothing, should call at the Temple of Fashion.

The steamships FAIRBANKS and REBECCA CLYDE both reached New York on Saturday last, the former making the trip in 60, and the latter in 70 hours. Good running.

THE EFFECT.—We are informed that a gentleman from the country, who has been suffering from rheumatism, called on the King of Pain, a few days since, and offered K. of P. a fabulous sum if he could guaranty a cure. The King said he could do it, but the patient thought it best to try the medicine. He accordingly bought a bottle, and sent it to the manager of his plantation, with instructions to use it indiscriminately on all the "crippled niggers" on the place.—The first subject treated was an old negro fellow afflicted with rheumatism, who was well rubbed down with the mixture. The effect was "bully!" The old chap commenced capering like a two-year old filly, and after dancing off a considerable distance from the point where the medicine was applied, became entangled in a pile of logs, and broke both his legs.

The above is given as an actual occurrence; but we have not yet learned whether or not a second application of K. of P. has repaired them legs.

A large and elegant stock of Gents' Furnishing Goods, at the Temple of Fashion.

NEVER TELL A LIE.—Young man, there is a something within you that despises a lie. Did you never, as the old saying is, "whip the devil 'round the bush," and feel that something pleading within you not to do it? Did you never, in resisting its counsels, have the red blood to mantle your cheeks and cry "shame" on your words? Young man, that was the voice of your God that made you. Suppose now, the next time you feel ashamed to speak the truth, you will resolve to heed the murmuring of this hidden Monitor within you, and to do its bidding, though all Hell should hurl its satire upon you, and the "scorning of the scornful" rise before you in the highway. Try it and see if, at that instant, you are not a happier man than you ever were before.—Try it in all your words and deeds in this life; govern every impulse of your nature by it, and you will run into success. Mountains may rise up, and bogs and fens intervene—still follow, never doubting, and Honor will weave for your brow a wreath whose gems sparkle as the dew drops, and whose beauty never dies.

Samuel Voorzanger holds forth at the Temple of Fashion, 36 Market street.

A COLORED WEDDING AT ST. PAUL'S.—Tuesday night witnessed the consummation of an engagement between Mr. Edward Green and Mrs. Maria Hill, both colored. The Rev. Mr. Watson officiated at the St. Paul's Episcopal church, and made the happy pair one. It was quite an affair, and witnessed by several of the white friends and acquaintances of the bride and groom, who issued regular cards of invitation to such as they desired present at the ceremony. Mr. VanBokkelen, the former owner of Edward, gave the use of his fine "turn out" for the occasion, besides having prepared for them a most magnificent supper, which would have done credit to the tables "set" in the days of yore. Who are the colored man's friends?

We've "jined" the army and no mistake, in editin' a "mornin'." A fellow has all night long to "sit up" with a paste tub, and go home by himself in the morning. O, its a peaceful and solitary "pursuit." Jeemes, put up the pill advertisement, and throw the sheepskin at that abominable "devil"—he has tied himself up in a knot there, and is snoring worse than a camp meeting.

New Goods, and good news, at the Temple of Fashion, 36 Market street.

A thousand blue-eyed girls, with coral lips and golden hair, are engaged in gathering hops in Maine. Who wouldn't be a hop?—Rochester News.

You had better grow where you are, neighbor. Some gay "old girl" may "pick" you off one of these days, and make you as festive as a June bug.

DEW TELL.—They have got to issuing birth cards in Paris. A little fellow pops into the world like a stopper from a beer bottle and informs the "circle" that he is "all a settin'" and ma is "doin'" splendid. This is the latest agony, and one that poor folks can "put on" to a heavy extent. "Weens" can cut a swell, shure.

NARROW ESCAPE.—Two negro men, while attempting to cross the river in a small boat, at a point just below the city, this forenoon, narrowly escaped drowning, by the capsizing of the boat. Fortunately a "flat," which was floating lazily along in the vicinity, came up in time to rescue the men from their perilous position.

THE CITY.—One man arrested very drunk; inamulately intoxicated, which means, without the power to tell his name. He was a heavy "lift," and was borne to the Refrigerator in the arms of four stout policemen.

OUR COUNTRY CIRCULATION.—The circulation of the STAR in the country districts is growing rapidly. Nearly every mail makes additions to our list; and we have the assurances of many of our friends that they will soon send us large numbers of names from their respective neighborhoods.

SALE OF SALT.—A lot of 238 sacks Liverpool salt, was sold at auction this forenoon, "on account of whom it may concern," by Messrs. Cronly & Morris, at prices ranging from $1 55 to $1 90 per sack.

NORTH CAROLINA IN A NUT-SHELL.

A Conservative meeting was held in Charlotte on Tuesday to appoint delegates to the Conservative State Convention. The meeting was addressed by Judge Osborne.

Our worthy cotemporaries at Raleigh are complaining of the low price of cotton, the high price of beef, and the scarcity of the "indispensable wherewith." The Sentinel says the latter is scarcer than at any previous time since the winter of 1865.

Rev. Mr. Wood, of the North Carolina Conference, is lecturing in Raleigh on the manners and customs of the Chinese.

The Ral. Sentinel estimates that the result of registration in this State will be a majority of between 27,000 and 30,000 for the whites; seventy-five counties exhibit a white majority of 24,854. There are fourteen counties to hear from, officially. Of the eighty-nine counties in the State, there will be majorities in only seventeen for the blacks.

General R. E. Colston will lecture before the Goldsboro' Library Association on the 25th instant.

President John D. Whitford, of the Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad, announces a meeting of the Directory on the 7th of next month.

The Hon. Abraham W. Venable, of this State, is expected to deliver the Annual Address on Agriculture before the Agricultural Society at Danville, Va., on the 6th of November, 1867.

There is great depression in the business circles of Memphis, owing to the low price of cotton. It is feared that the crop will not meet the advances made by the merchants to planters.

In Canada silver is so plenty that traders are refusing it in the payment of debts above legal tender, and the people write complaints to the papers about the "silver nuisance."

Mr. Greeley regards the signing of the Jeff. Davis bail bond as one of the nobles acts of his life, and confidently trusts that most of those who now condemn him therefor, will live to honor him for that act more than for any other.

Sharswood's majority in Pennsylvania, for Judge of the Supreme Court, is 794.
