The Board of Registration will receive the names of voters, at the City Hall to-day.

White men of Wilmington!—you who are qualified—do not forget that you have only five days left in which to register as voters.

IF YOU FAIL TO REGISTER
You cannot vote on any of the important questions that may be presented to the voters of North Carolina for their decision.

TIME WELL SPENT.
An hour lost from your business in going before the Board of Registration, is an hour devoted to the cause of your country.

REGISTER.
White men of New Hanover! do not be deterred from registering because you are in the minority. Although you cannot overcome the Radical strength in your county, your votes will tell if any amendment to our State Constitution is submitted to you for ratification or rejection.

We return our thanks to Captain Parker, of the Parker House, for an invitation to dine with him yesterday. It is needless to say that we accepted, and enjoyed heartily the "good cheer" of "the Parker."

If the negroes think it their interest to vote in one solid phalanx against the white men of North Carolina, let them go off after their "strange gods" in peace. But, while they look to what they consider their interests, let the white men look to theirs!

Party lines have been distinctly drawn. It is evident that the negroes will vote, almost en masse, against the white men of North Carolina.

The Indian war is probably at an end. It is announced that the Peace Commissioners have concluded treaties with all the tribes but the Cheyennes, and that tribe is assembling its warriors for a "peace meeting."

The political campaign in Massachusetts is being carried on with intense vigor, the Democrats and Anti-Liquor Law League having united against the Republicans. It is thought that a very large vote will be polled at the election—on November 5th. The total vote last year was 118,731; and this year it is estimated that it will exceed 150,000.

REGISTRATION.
To-day, and for the four next succeeding days, a last opportunity will be offered for registration. In this city, the Board of Registration will meet at the City Hall, and will receive the names of all those entitled to register who have not heretofore registered. It is a duty that every North Carolinian owes his State to qualify himself as a voter.

ATTENTION SHERIFFS.
The Sheriffs of North Carolina should give their special attention to the eighth section of General Canby's order for a Convention, which reads as follows:
"The Sheriff and other peace officers of each county are required to be present during the whole time that the polls are kept open, and until the election is completed; and will be made responsible that there shall be no interference with judges of elections, or other interruption of good order. If there should be more than one polling place in any county, the Sheriff of the county is empowered and directed to make such assignments of his deputies and other peace officers, to the other polling places, as may, in his judgment, best subserve the purposes of quiet and order; and he is further required to report these arrangements in advance to the Commander of the Military Post in which his county is situated."

White Citizens Ordered to Leave Richmond by a Negro Vigilance Committee.

[From the Richmond Enquirer.]
On Saturday morning Mr. A. Monroe, who lives on Seventeenth street, found the following letter under his door:

RICHMOND, VA., Oct. 25th, 1867.
We, the colored people of the city of Richmond, having formed a vigilance committee, warn you to leave the city in forty-eight hours after receiving this notice. We are aware of your hostile feelings towards Mr. Hunnicutt and his political party. If your family choose to go with you they can do so, or they can remain; we will not interfere with them. If you do not heed this warning you will have to abide by the consequences. After you have spoken of Mr. Hunnicutt as you have; we are fully determined that you shall leave the city at the expiration of the time given you.

By order of the committee.
T. B. G., Secretary.

Mr. Monroe is a native of Maine, but has been a citizen of this city for many years. We also learn that Mr. Newdecker, a tobaccoist, has received a similar letter. His of fence is having discharged some of his negro hands since the election.

A Sharp Boy.
The Watertown (N. Y.) Reformer tells this story:

"A few days since a small, fine-looking, bright boy came into the cars and took a seat. Shortly after, a minister came in and took a seat before and facing him, when the following conversation ensued:

"Well, my little lad, what is your name?" asked the minister.

"My name is James Foot. What is your name?"

"William Hand," was the answer. "Where are you going?" asked the minister.

"To Rome, sir; and where are you going?" was the response of the boy.

"The minister could do no less than answer, 'Camden.'"

"How old are you?" was the next question of the minister.

"Eight years," replied the boy. "How old are you, sir?"

"The minister hesitated, but gave no answer."

"Are you alone?" was the next question of the minister.

"O, no, sir," replied the boy, pointing to the passengers, "I have plenty of company."

"But have you no friends on board to look after you?" asked the minister.

"No, sir," said the boy. "Have you?"

"This was not answered, but was followed by a little history.

"When I was a boy," said the minister, "my parents would not allow me to go off the farm alone."

"At this the boy, with an indescribable look, said, 'It is different now!'"

Impeachment.
There will be no impeachment, says the Springfield (Mass.) Republican, unless Stevens and Butler can carry their scheme of removal before trial, and that is out of the question. A long trial before the Senate, with no certainty that it will end in conviction and removal, is what the Republicans in Congress do not want, and will not have.

A Washington telegram to the Philadelphia Ledger of Saturday, says: A Senator, heretofore earnestly in favor of impeachment, to-day gave his opinion that the project had failed and would be killed in caucus of the Republicans upon the assembling of the members of Congress in November.

Body of a Man Found on Top of a Sleeping Car at Concord.
CONCORD, N. H., Oct. 24.

On the arrival of the half-past 8 o'clock train from Boston this evening the body of a man was discovered on top of a sleeping car, his head bruised and bloody, and his neck broken. Nothing is known as to who he is or how he came there, no papers being found on his person. He had a coupon ticket for Concord, and a small amount of money in his pocket. He was evidently an Irish laborer, and was about thirty years of age.

Suicide.
A young man named Waring, living below Tappahannock, Va., about 19 years of age, committed suicide on Tuesday last by shooting himself in the head with a shot gun. He left a letter saying he had intended for a year or two to kill himself. It is supposed to have been "all for love."

Half Married by Mistake.
At a high-toned wedding in Columbus, Ohio, the officiating clergyman made a very ludicrous mistake. Placing himself in front of the groomsmen, he came near uniting him and one of the bridesmaids in marriage in place of the bride and groom. In fact, he had progressed half way through the ceremony before the mistake was discovered and the minister set right.

Condition of Mexico.
Advices from Mexico represent that that country is in a deplorable state. Robberies and murders are on the increase everywhere throughout the republic; all the roads are unsafe, and even the people residing in cities are compelled to watch all night with arms in their hands to drive off the bandits.

FROM WASHINGTON.

The Maryland Investigating Committee—Internal Revenue—The Impeachment Killed, &c.
[Special Dispatch to the Baltimore Sun.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.
The Maryland Republican form of government committee will examine their last witness on Monday next, and then adjourn until November 15th, when the full judiciary committee meets to hear their report and adopt it for presentation to Congress.

Internal revenue receipts have an upward tendency and to-day reached nearly half a million.

A United States Senator, heretofore earnestly in favor of impeachment, to-day gave his opinion that the project had failed and would be killed in caucus of the Republicans upon the assembling of members of Congress in November.

A Singular Claim.
It will be remembered that Secretary McCulloch, some weeks ago, received a package containing $19,000, a greater portion of which was in 7-30 bonds, with the numbers cut out, and the remainder in national currency. No letter or signature accompanied the money, but the envelope was post marked Urbana, Ohio. The money was placed to the credit of the conscience fund, there being nothing to show from whom it came, and the fact that the numbers were cut out of the bonds proved that the former owner of them did not want to be known. On Wednesday last a letter was received from a party in Wisconsin, the postmark being Honey Creek. The writer claimed that he sent the money to be converted into other securities, such as the Secretary might think proper to send, and gave as his reason for sending no communication or signature with the money, that he was very sick at the time, and not able to write. The officers of the Treasury are of the opinion that the letter is from some party who saw the publication that $19,000 had been received, and thinks he can claim the same. Detectives of the Treasury will look into the matter.—Washington Star.

The Trial of Jeff Davis.
The following important letter, addressed by Chief Justice Chase to Judge Underwood, relative to the trial of Jefferson Davis, settles the existing dispute as to whether the Chief Justice will preside:

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.
Dear Judge Underwood: On reflection, I think it best that you advise the District Attorney (Mr. Chandler) that I will join you in holding court in Richmond on the 13 of November, if any important business is to be transacted. Mr. Chandler, I think, should notify the counsel of Jefferson Davis of this, in order that he may appear and take his trial if he sees fit. As his bail was taken for his appearance on the fourth Wednesday in November, he is not, it is true, bound to appear earlier; but as it will be impossible for me to be present except during the first week of the term commencing on the fourth Wednesday, because of the term of the Supreme Court commencing on the following Monday, it may be that Mr. Davis and his counsel will prefer the trial to take place at the earlier period. It is understood that they wish that the Chief Justice may be present.

Yours, very truly,
S. P. CHASE.

To Hon. J. UNDERWOOD,
District Judge.

Strange Scene in an Ohio College.
The Cincinnati Enquirer says: We heard recently of an election incident which is worth telling. There is a Normal school for teachers at Lebanon, in the dark and benighted county of Warren. On the day before the election the Prosecuting Attorney of the county visited the school and explained to them who among the pupils could vote at Lebanon under the law. Upon concluding his legal information he invited all the young men voters who were for the Republican ticket to manifest it by rising in their seats. Quite a number responded. He then, with that courtesy and politeness that is so common in his party, invited all the "rebels" to rise. Burning with indignation at this opprobrious epithet applied to the Democratic party, a number of young men, nevertheless, had the firmness to rise, and thus throw defiance in his teeth. He then turned to the young ladies, and put the same question to them. With the heroic courage of the sex, double the number rose in comparison to the young gentlemen, to the great annoyance of the Attorney aforesaid.

"We shall know what are the necessities of life," said a country grocer during a severe storm, "as no one will venture forth to-day except to procure them." In the evening he found that most of his sales were yellow snuff and rum.

Grand Army of the Republic in Secret Session.
INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 25.

A delegate convention of the Grand Army of the Republic adjourned here to-day. It has been in secret session for several days.

Democratic Mass Meeting.
A grand mass meeting of the Democracy of New York, will be held at Cooper Institute on Thursday evening next. Ex-Gov. Seymour, Mayor Hoffman, Hon. Jas. E. English, and others, will speak. The square adjoining the building will be brilliantly illuminated.
