ROSADALIS.

The Best Blood Purifier in the World! Dr. Lawrence's Celebrated

"ROSADALIS."

Read the Following Home Certificates From Physicians:

We hereby certify that the Rosadalis is prepared by a Physician, who is an experienced Pharmacist and Chemist, and that his remedy is an efficient and valuable one in Scrofula, Syphilis, and all the various forms of venereal disease, and is the best blood purifier in the world.

W. A. DUGGAN, M. D. E. HARNES, M. D. F. W. KING, M. D. Wilson, N. C., Feb. 8th, 1867.

We hereby certify that we regard Dr. Lawrence's Compound Extract of Rosadalis as a Reliable Alternative, &c.

A. D. MOORE, M. D. L. A. STITH, M. D. Wilson, N. C., May 10th, 1867.

Edgemont County, N. C., May 2, 1867. Dr. J. J. Lawrence.—Dear Sir: Please send me immediately per Express, to Tarboro', two dozen more bottles of your Rosadalis. I have carefully examined its formula, and have used it in my practice in a number of cases. I am well pleased with it. I think it, beyond doubt, the best alternative I ever used. I have tried it in several cases of Scrofula, and Scrofulous affections, &c., with much satisfaction to myself and patients. I have also used it in Secondary and Tertiary Syphilis (one terrible case of eight years standing), in which it acted with surprising and safe efficacy, effecting a quick and thorough cure. I have, therefore, no hesitation in recommending it to Physicians and others, as the most reliable Alternative now known.

Respectfully Yours, &c. A. B. NOBLES, M. D. A Wonderful Cure of Scrofulous White Swelling.

I hereby certify that last September I was attacked with White Swelling of the left knee—and enlargement of the glands of the neck (one tumor reached a large size). The swelling of the knee was enormous, and was attended with the most excruciating pain. I was confined to my room over three months. My leg was so completely drawn up that I could not bend it at all. I tried various remedies, and they failed to give me any relief. I was in this condition when I commenced taking Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis. The swelling in both knee and neck, gradually subsided, and before I took all of the first bottle. By the time I took the second bottle the swelling of the knee entirely disappeared, and that of the neck nearly so. After taking the third bottle I found myself completely well—able to walk as well as ever, &c.

LATIMER WILLIAMS. Wilson, May 11, 1867. Rosadalis will Cure the Worst Cases of Chronic Rheumatism.

HOME CERTIFICATE. Wilson, N. C., May 6, 1867. I hereby certify that I was cured of long standing Chronic Rheumatism, by taking four bottles of Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis.

JAMES WILLS. Rosadalis Cures Carbuncles, Boils, Pimples, &c.

Certificates from one of our most respected citizens of Greene County, was a resident of Wilson, N. C.

I hereby certify that during the Summer and Fall of 1864, I was severely afflicted with Carbuncles, having as many as 15 large Carbuncles on my face and neck. I had been troubled with them from that time that I could not get out of the house half the time for several months. Being induced to try Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis, I was entirely cured by the use of one bottle of that truly valuable medicine.

W. A. DARDEN, Sr. Portsmouth, Va., Aug. 29, 1867. Capt. J. H. Baker—Sir: For the last seven or eight years, I have been severely afflicted with a very troublesome form of SALT RHEUMATISM, from which I have never been able to obtain the slightest perceptible relief from any of the many remedies which I have at various times applied, until I chanced to try DR. LAWRENCE'S ROSADALIS. In less than one month I found myself almost entirely cured of my troublesome eruption.

Other members of my family had tried it as a blood purifier, with the most gratifying results. Truly I can say of all the medicines I have ever used before, and shall never use again, beneficial in effects as the Rosadalis, and I would most cheerfully recommend it to the public and to all suffering humanity.

Very Respectfully, &c. MRS. E. N. BOGGS, Opposite the Crawford House. Consumption in its Early Stages, can be Cured.

Baltimore, Md., March 4th, 1867. Dear Dr. Lawrence:—My daughter, having been cured of a deep-seated disease of the lungs by your "Rosadalis," I feel it my duty to make the fact known to you for the benefit of others. She had been afflicted with a hard cough, which troubled her day and night; at last the emaciated form, glassy eye, night sweats, together with the cough, told too plainly that it was consumption. Her condition brought no relief. She was advised to try your Rosadalis, as a tonic, which she did so gladly. It was consumption, in fact, when I found her appetite returning. Slowly she regained her strength, her cough and night sweats gradually ceased, and now, after taking five bottles of your medicine, apparently as well as ever.

Yours Respectfully, J. B. DANIEL. Major John W. Dunham, one of the editors of the Wilson North Carolinian, says in the issue of the 20th of April, 1867: "I believe, from personal experience, that the Rosadalis is the best tonic ever prepared."

Wilson, N. C., Sept. 15, 1867. Dr. Lawrence—Sir:—In 1862, my son, now aged five years, was vaccinated with what proved to be impure matter, which completely destroyed his health. He has been afflicted with an inveterate and extremely troublesome eruption of the skin, sometimes breaking out in sores. ROSADALIS was prescribed by my family physician, Dr. A. D. Moore. After taking five or six weeks my son became and remains entirely cured.

Yours Truly, J. B. DANIEL. Rosadalis will Cure the Worst Cases of Scrofula. Read the Statement Below, and Despair not.

Wilson, N. C., Sept. 10, 1867. Dear Sir:—My youngest daughter, aged five years, has been dreadfully afflicted with Scrofula nearly all her life. I tried a great many physicians, but without relieving her much; in fact most of them said there was no hope of cure. During the last Spring she was worse than ever, her body and limbs being covered with sores and blotches—with face and eyes very much swollen. Whilst in this condition, I was advised by Dr. A. D. Moore to try your Rosadalis. I procured three bottles, and commenced giving it to her. The effect was magical. In less than a month, to my great astonishment, she was entirely cured. I am, &c.

Yours, with respect and gratitude, W. W. BURNETT. Rosadalis is a Potent Remedy in all Chronic Diseases.

after having been confined to my bed and house for a long time, and trying various medicines without benefit. I know of several others in this County, cured through the use of the Rosadalis, and it can be found in nearly every house in my neighborhood, and they all praise it as a great medicine.

THOMAS THORN. GREENE COUNTY, August 14, 1867. Rosadalis cures all Skin Diseases. SALT RHEUM CURED!—REMARKABLE CURE!!

MONTREAL, CANADA, April 4th, 1867. My Dear Sir:—For the last ten years (until recently), I suffered with an insupportable eruption of the skin—called by physicians "Scrofula Rheum," with which I suffered terribly; the pain and itching was almost intolerable. I tried several of the best physicians in Europe and this country—have visited several celebrated springs—spent thousands of dollars—and failed to get better. In December, 1866, being in Charleston, S. C., I was told by a gentleman at the hotel, that he had been cured of a bad letter by a medicine called "Rosadalis." I resolved to try it, without any hope, though, of its doing me any good. I procured a bottle of Messrs. King & Cassidy's compound, and taking it, I found, to my surprise, that it was improving me. I bought four other bottles; but before commencing on the last two, I found I was completely cured—the disease having entirely disappeared.

Enclosed find "One Hundred Dollars," which please accept as a token of my gratitude. Why do you not make your invaluable Rosadalis widely known?

FROM WASHINGTON.

(Special Dispatch to the Baltimore Sun.) Mr. Stanton and Gen. Sickles. WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.

From official sources it is found that upon the suggestion of Mr. Stanton, immediately after the review of the troops in Washington in 1863, an order was issued mastering out of service all volunteer officers after the 15th of May, 1863, unless their services should be specially required, and that under that order all, save about a dozen officers, were mustered out. Among those retained were General Sickles, who was allowed to remain in the service for two years and a half, receiving the pay of Major-General, when the position could have been filled by an officer of the regular army, of lower grade and at less cost.

Early in the spring of this year, Secretary Stanton was directed by the President to muster out all volunteer officers, including General Sickles, Howard, Gregory, Scott, &c., but for some reason not known, Mr. Stanton failed to issue the order, and they have continued to receive the unnecessary pay of high grade officers. Meanwhile, General Sickles has received other marks of favor, such as appointment to a Colonelcy in the regular army, Minister to the Hague, &c. These facts furnish sufficient answer to the charge that the President has vindictively ordered the mustering out of Gen. Sickles, and will account for relieving Generals Howard, Gregory, &c., why will probably be mustered out of the service in a few days.

Hon. Thaddeus Stevens. Of the condition of the Hon. Thaddeus Stevens, a Washington correspondent writes that it is evident that he is in a rapid decline, mentally and physically. His conversation upon subjects which have long occupied his mind is disconnected and broken with frequent pauses, manifesting a great effort to confine himself to consecutive train of thought. At intervals a gleam of enthusiasm passes over his mind, when he brightens up and utters sentences with vigor and emphasis, but soon relapses into a kind of intellectual torpor. Physically he is greatly emaciated and enfeebled by his recent illness. If Mr. Stevens' strength is sufficient to enable him to attend the sessions of the coming Congress, he will be unable to take part in its proceedings, and it is the general impression that it will be his last session.

An Exciting Situation. During a recent political demonstration at Wilkesbarre, says the Pittsburgh Post, two men had ascended to the top of the clock tower of the Court House, with a basket of Roman candles and other pyrotechnics, for the purpose of setting them off. Sparks from a Roman candle ignited the pieces in the basket, and in a moment the men were enveloped in a mass of scorching, hissing and booming fireworks. The basket rested upon the trap door, and no alternative was left but to fight the fire for possession of the door, except a leap of nearly two hundred feet to the ground. The firemen were soon in the bellary, and by forcing up the trap door and the application of a few buckets of water, succeeded in extinguishing the flames and rescuing the men on the tower. One of them was severely burned, and but for his companion, it is said, would at one time have leaped from the tower.

Suicide in Washington. At an early hour last night, a young man named C. P. Freeland, a clerk in the Internal Revenue Department, committed suicide in one of the apartments of the Central Guard-house, by cutting his throat from ear to ear with a small penknife, inflicting a most horrible and ghastly wound, from the effects of which he died in a few moments, the windpipe and jugular vein being entirely severed.

Mr. Freeland, who is highly and respectfully connected, has for the past two years been a slave to strong drink. He hailed from New York, and the body was given up to his friends, and it is to be embalmed preparatory to sending home.

Fatal Railroad Accident. A young man named James Sellick, aged about 26 years, was almost instantly killed yesterday, about 2 o'clock, near Woodstock, on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, by being crushed between two cars. It seems that he was employed as a brakeman on the road, and whilst engaged in coupling cars, a movement of the train caught him about the middle of the body, causing injuries which resulted in his death within a few minutes. His body was brought to this city, where it was given into the possession of his relatives. He was formerly from Alexandria, Va., and was unmarried.—Balt. Sun.

General McClellan. Gen. McClellan has decided to remain in Europe for some months longer, and cannot, therefore, be expected at home this fall or winter. The family of Gen. Marcy returned to New York last week by the Scotia, having left General McClellan and family in London. The latter were expecting to go to the continent in a few days.—N. Y. Jour. Com.

E. A. Pollard's Condition. This gentleman, who was shot on Thursday last by John S. Wise, is still lying at the Maitly House. The physician considers that his arm will not require to be amputated, but the bone is so much injured that the arm will probably always be nearly useless.—Balt. American, 18th.

A New Cable. A submarine cable is proposed between Europe and Brazil. It is thought, will materially assist the operations of American capitalists, who for several years have been extensively engaged in the wool trade of Buenos Ayres.

Accident from the Bursting of a Cannon. BALTIMORE, Nov. 17. On Thursday last, three persons were dangerously if not fatally injured at Westminster, Carroll County, Md., by the bursting of a cannon while firing a salute for the recent Democratic victories. One man had his leg torn off, and another his side penetrated by a large piece of shell.

CLIPPINGS. Rev. Mr. O'Neill, a colored preacher, has been arrested at Indianapolis for marrying a colored man and white woman, in violation of the Indiana marriage law.

The opening of a grave in Harrisburg has shown that silk dresses last longer than human bones.

An Illinois correspondent of the Lancaster Express says that this has been the most profitable season enjoyed by the western farmers for many years.

It is stated that there are over two thousand base ball clubs in the country.

Ex-Governor Bramlette, of Kentucky, has gone over to the regular democracy, and the third party of the State is broken up.

The Rev. Newman Hall, D. D., of London, is in Richmond, and was to have preached in that city on Tuesday evening last.

Mr. Joseph Davis, brother of Jefferson Davis, was at Natchez last week, on his way to his residence in Warren county, Miss. He received the compliment of a serenade.

A Boy Killed by Steel Knuckles. The following occurs in the Providence Herald of 14th: On the afternoon of the 13th, two boys named Cliey and Fitzgerald, the former fifteen years of age and the latter twelve, while playing marbles in Ives street, got into an altercation in consequence of the younger one refusing to "knuckle down"—that is, hold his knuckles upon the ground—for the other to strike with his marbles. Finally Cliey kicked Fitzgerald in a very severe manner, and afterwards struck him with a pair of steel knuckles which he had on. The boy, although badly hurt, managed to get to his home on Ives street, when he told his mother what had occurred, and said, "Mother, I am going to die." Directly afterward he became insensible. A physician was at once summoned, and everything was done for the young sufferer which skill could suggest, but the injuries proved of a fatal character, and at five o'clock yesterday afternoon the unfortunate lad expired, having laid insensible for twenty-four hours. Officers were in search of Cliey all day yesterday and last night, but they did not succeed in finding him. This is one of the most painful occurrences that ever came to our knowledge, and one that should not be without a lesson.

Trifling Career and Sad End of a Confederate Boy. We find in the last number of the Winchester (Va.) Times a brief biographical sketch of Captain George Burwell, of Clarke county, Virginia, who recently perished in the imperial army of Maximilian.

This gallant Virginian was only fourteen years of age when the late war for independence broke out, but despite the protests of his friends, enlisted in the Southern army, and bore himself through all its contests with distinguished gallantry and credit.

After Lee's surrender he determined to leave the country, and with this purpose he went to Mexico and tendered his sword to the Emperor Maximilian. In the imperial service he displayed the same ardent valor that had marked his Confederate career, and he rose to the grade of captain. In one of the most numberless affairs which were fought in Maximilian's last campaign, Burwell was mortally wounded, and breathed his last on the field of action.

There are but few heroes to whom are so applicable the words of Byron: "Brief, brave and glorious was his young career."

A Fatal Rumor. It was rumored on the streets of this city and Washington yesterday that Robt. C. Conrad, a prominent lawyer of Winchester, Virginia, and who is well-known here, and that Philip Williams, also of that town, was ordered to leave by the freedmen. We give the rumor for what it is worth, hoping it groundless.—Alexandria Journal.

An Important Meeting. A Washington special to the Boston Post says: It is understood there will be a meeting held in New York, December 19, at which prominent Democrats will interchange views in relation to the candidacy for the next President. Messrs. Pendleton, of New York, Marshall, of Illinois, Seymour, of New York, Blair, of Missouri, Trimble, of Kentucky, and others, are expected to attend.

An Absurd Rumor. The Herald has a special dispatch from Washington which states that the negroes in Richmond are in a state of great consternation on account of a ridiculous report, which has been circulated amongst them to the effect that the professors at the Medical College are having all negroes captured, killed, and carried to the college for the purpose of dissecting them. This is an instance of the extreme credulity of the race.

Indian Legends. In Maine there live the Passamaquoddy Indians, and these eminent savages, in order that their light may not be hidden under a bushel, are given two representatives in the State Legislature. The two distinguished Indians just elected to represent them in that body are known by the sonorous names of Pespopo Sabatus and Sockabesban Swassen. We trust they will make good legislators.
