GORILLA CONVENTION!

Called by Act of the Congress of the Northern States to Frame a Radical Constitution for the State of North Carolina.

[SIXTH DAY'S PROCEEDINGS.] MONDAY, Jan. 20, 1868.

J. D. O'Hara (negro) was sworn in as Engraving Clerk.

Mr. Abbott submitted a communication from Colton Swepson, of Sampson, in relation to the late election of delegates in that county, and moved its reference to the Committee on Elections.

Also another from W. D. Pearson, of Duplin, which was referred to the Committee on Judiciary.

Mr. Colgrove, a memorial from the citizens of Jones county, in relation to change of county line. Referred to Committee on Counties, &c.

Mr. Welker introduced an ordinance providing for the admission of members of the bar from other States to practice in the courts of North Carolina. Lies over.

Whereas, Protection to the rights of person and property, the fruits of industry and prudence, are the corner-stones on which civil liberty is built, as recognized in our Constitution of 1776: Therefore,

Resolved, That the action of this Convention should recognize this axiom, by providing that the legislative power consists of two branches--the one representing persons and the other representing property--each of said branches having co-equal power, so that no act of the Legislature, not approved by each branch, should have validity; the electors for the Commons to consist of all male citizens, above the age of 21 years, and the electors for the Senate to consist of all citizens of like age, who have listed property for taxation, at the listing next before such election, of the value of $250, or upwards, and who have paid the taxes assessed thereon.

Mr. Abbott introduced a resolution of instruction to the Committee of sixteen, to enquire into the appointment of a Committee of Immigration, which was referred.

By Mr. Mann: A resolution in regard to the annoyance in the lobbies, by persons without invitation, and a resolution inviting United States officers to the floor. Lies over.

By J. W. Hood, of Cumberland, (negro), a resolution in regard to the per diem, viz:

That each delegate to this Convention, and each elective officer, (the President excepted), shall receive six dollars per day, and twenty cents mileage to and from Convention; and that the President shall receive ten dollars per day, and twenty cents mileage. Lies over under the rules.

The question as to the election of an engraving Clerk was next taken up, and the resolution of Saturday, against the appointment of such an officer, was voted down. Yeas 30, Nays 89.

Mr. Morton, of Stanley, nominated Joel Ashworth, and, on motion, he was declared elected without a vote.

Mr. Bradley's resolution, of Saturday, came up, providing for a Committee to wait on the Governor and inform him of the organization of the body, &c.

Mr. Tourgee moved to strike out the words "His Excellency, the Governor of North Carolina," and insert the words "Governor Worth," simply.

Mr. Abbott, while he did not recognize the State government, he was in favor of acting courteously, and wished to address him as was customary.

Mr. Jones, of Washington, said that the authorities of the United States had recognized Governor Worth in his official capacity, and that they were acting under their authority. He did not see how they should involve themselves by a similar recognition. He would vote for the original resolution.

Mr. Tourgee said he could not regard the original resolution as anything else than committing them. That was the reason he introduced the amendment, and why he should support it.

The amendment was put to vote and lost; and Mr. Bradley's resolution was then adopted.

Mr. Peterson's resolution of Saturday, calling upon "the Provisional Secretary of N. C." for certain documents, came up.

Mr. Durham wished to know if there was such an office as the "Secretary of N. C." There was no such office. His proper designation was the "Secretary of State."

The resolution was amended to make it read "the Provisional Secretary of State," and adopted.

Harris, of Wake, (negro), moved that the Convention proceed to elect a Printer.

Mr. Tourgee said that an officer of this Post had informed him that the military would have the necessary printing done.

J. H. Harris (negro) withdrew his motion and moved that the matter be referred to the Committee on Printing, when such Committee shall be formed. So ordered.

Mr. Durham asked information in regard to the protest offered by himself and other delegates, several days since.

J. H. Harris (negro) withdrew his motion and moved that the matter be referred to the Committee on Printing, when such Committee shall be formed. So ordered.

Mr. Durham asked information in regard to the protest offered by himself and other delegates, several days since.

The President replied that it had been entered on the record by his direction.

A. H. Galloway, (negro,) offered the following resolution and asked its reference to the Committee on Bill of Rights, when formed:

"That all persons shall enjoy equal rights and privileges, while travelling in this State, in any conveyance of a public character; and all business places or places carried on by a charter, for which a license is required from either State or Municipal authority, shall be deemed places of a public character, and shall be opened to the accommodation and patronage of all persons, without distinction or discrimination on account of race, color or previous condition." Referred.

Mr. Rodman offered an ordinance, to employ a competent stenographer to report the proceedings and debates of this Convention, in a condensed form, whose pay shall be the same as that of a member of the body. Lies over.

On motion of Mr. Rich, of Pitt, a recess was taken until 3 o'clock. P. M., in order to allow the President an opportunity to arrange the committees.

AFTERNOON SESSION. At 3 o'clock, the President being absent, Mr. Welker was, on motion of Mr. Heaton, called to the Chair.

Mr. Tourgee offered an ordinance to prevent oppression in the Courts in criminal causes. Lies over.

Mr. Patrick, an ordinance for the relief of the people. [He said the people were very much indebted, and he introduced this ordinance to prevent the sacrifice of property.]

Mr. Tourgee, an ordinance in regard to the jurisdiction of the Courts. Read and ordered to be considered in Committee of the Whole, to-morrow, when the Convention takes up Mr. Rodman's ordinance.

Harris, of Wake, (negro,) moved to go into an election of a Reporter.

Mr. Hodnett wished to know if the House did really intend having such an officer. He said it was unprecedented.

Mr. Tourgee made a point of order. He said Mr. Rodman's resolution, this morning covered the whole matter, and it lies over under the rules. The Chair sustained the point.

Mr. Heaton moved that a recess be taken for ten minutes, until the President should come in. Carried, and

At the expiration of the time the President called the Convention to order, and announced the following Committees: [Here the names of Committees are given, which we deem it unnecessary to publish--STAR.]

Distress in the South is an old and common cry, but it is something new to hear of any great destitution prevailing in Boston, even at the present season of the year.

Newspaper accounts, however, state that about three hundred industrious and estimable families have been compelled this winter to seek aid from the Provident Association of Boston. Most of these families have never known want before, and their mortification is said to excite almost as much sympathy as their actual poverty and distress.
