

TO ADVERTISERS. We respectfully call the attention of the business public to the fact that our advertising rates are lower than those of any other daily newspaper in North Carolina.

A SCANT WARDROBE. For many days previous to Gen. Canby's arrangement for paying the expenses of the Gorillas, "Cousin" John McDonald, of Egypt precinct, was observed, as he perambulated the streets of Raleigh, to grasp frantically at the seat of his breeches, as if some infuriated cat had fastened its claws, as the immortal Sancho Panza hath it, in "parts none the smallest."

THE CITY. CHANGED THEIR BASE.—The Fayetteville rogues have changed their base, and have ceased burning houses to devote their attention to garting. An individual called upon Mr. B. F. Hollingsworth at his place of business, the other night, and informed him that his child was taken suddenly very sick, and his wife desired him to hurry home.

THE RUINS.—Excavations have been made along the whole front wall of Munson & Co.'s late store without finding any more bodies. Persons who were present when the wall fell, think the whole ground has been examined where the men were sitting, but two men have been reported to the Coroner as missing, and the work of removing the rubbish will be continued until all doubts on the subject are set at rest.

DISAPPOINTED.—The public were disappointed last evening in not greeting its old favorites, Mr. and Mrs. Sutton, on the stage. A card from Mr. Sutton, which appears in another column, will explain the matter. His arrangements to bring over the troupe were frustrated by circumstances entirely unavoidable and unforeseen on his part, and he could only come himself to signify his own good faith.

MOVING ON. The white men of North Carolina who are to be taxed to pay the expenses of the Gorilla Convention, will be rejoiced to know that the body is progressing rapidly in the manufacture of a Constitution. The following is the last "amendment" proposed: "Matilda Anderson, of Madison county, asks to be divorced from her husband."

A SUGGESTION. For a small sum the names of our streets might be painted on the gas lamps, thus enabling the public to distinguish one street from another at any hour. It is unnecessary to discuss the convenience and utility of such an arrangement, for it is patent to all.

Mr. Walker, the brilliant Gorilla from Guilford, has before the Convention an ordinance prohibiting the distillation of grain. In discussing its merits, a few days since, some of the Gorillas had the magnanimity to oppose it because they thought such an amendment would injure the chances of the Constitution before the people.

PLANTER AND FARMER. The February number of the Southern Planter and Farmer is before us. It contains a large amount of information of great value to the agriculturists and mechanics of the South, and, at two dollars per year, is one of the cheapest periodicals in the country.

NEW AND BEAUTIFUL.—We saw yesterday, at Messrs. Geo. R. French & Son's, some of the most beautiful children's shoes ever brought to this city. There were all styles and sizes of gold and silver shoes and slippers, that looked as if they were made for the feet of fairies.

LECTURE.—We are requested to state that the Rev. Dr. Deems will deliver a lecture in the Theatre on Wednesday (to-morrow) evening, the subject being "Husbands and Wives," and the object to benefit the poor of the city.

ARRIVED.—The steamship Fairbanks, of Worth & Daniel's line, arrived from New York yesterday morning after a prosperous voyage. She reports having seen, on Saturday, the 15th inst., a large fore-and-aft schooner ashore on Chincoteague Shoals.

HEAVY RECEIPTS.—The receipts of cotton by the Wilmington, Charlotte & Rutherford Railroad during last week, were quite heavy, comprising some five hundred bales. When we consider that the road is little more than half finished, that its present terminus is an insignificant little village, and that the richest sections through which it is to pass have not yet been tapped, its importance in a commercial point of view is at once apparent.

FIRE IN SAVANNAH.—On Thursday night Savannah was afflicted with a similar calamity to that which befell our city on that night, although it was far less fatal and disastrous than ours in its results. A large wooden building, formerly used by the Oglethorpe Medical College, was consumed, and six firemen injured, one of them seriously, by the fall of a portion of the building.

REBECCA CLYDE.—This steamship arrived on Sunday. She was detained in New York for repairs upon her machinery, and did not sail until Thursday, arriving at the bar on Saturday, where she lay at anchor waiting for the tide, until Sunday morning. Capt. Chichester being detained in New York, Capt. Powell, of the W. P. Clyde, brought her out.

THE SIXTH.—The list of victims crushed by the falling wall has been swelled to six by the death of George Barbara, (col), before reported among the badly wounded. He died on Sunday, and the jury returned a verdict in accordance with the facts well known to the public.

CORONER'S INQUEST.—Coroner Wood yesterday held an inquest over the body of Josephine Artis, a colored girl aged about fourteen years, who died on Saturday night at the house of S. S. Ashley, where she had been sent by the Agent of the Freedmen's Bureau. An unknown person left her there, and the girl soon complained of being sick. During the night she grew worse, and Dr. T. F. Wood was called in. He examined her, and pronounced her symptoms to be those of typhoid fever. She continued to sink, and died before morning. The jury rendered a verdict of "died from natural causes."

FAYETTEVILLE QUIET.—A private correspondent in Fayetteville informs us that the citizens of that town have enjoyed two weeks quiet, there not having been an alarm of fire for that space of time since the last fire recorded. After the burning of Mr. R. W. Thornton's store the citizens formed a patrol, which, it is thought, had a good effect in putting an end to incendiarism.

FITTING UP.—Mr. James McCormick is fitting up his new store on Market street with his usual taste; and using the paint brush lavishly both inside and out. Such investments pay, both by an increased sense of personal comfort and in a more liberal patronage. We trust Mr. McCormick's energy and perseverance may be rewarded.

YESTERDAY'S EXTRA.—Several hundred copies were sold of the Extra which we published yesterday, containing full particulars of the great fire. A few more are left, which may be had during the day at five cents each.

ARRIVED.—The steamship Fairbanks, of Worth & Daniel's line, arrived from New York yesterday morning after a prosperous voyage. She reports having seen, on Saturday, the 15th inst., a large fore-and-aft schooner ashore on Chincoteague Shoals.

LADIES' BENEVOLENT SOCIETY.—A meeting of the officers and visitors of this Association is called at 11 o'clock this (Tuesday) morning.

WE had a foretaste of March yesterday. The clouds of dust in the streets and the boisterous waves in the river, caused considerable commotion among both landmen and watermen.

ONE of the unrecorded losses at the recent fire was that of Mr. James McCormick, for whom the accommodating crowd wiped off all the fresh paint on the front of his store.

A very large concourse of friends and acquaintances attended the funeral obsequies of Capt. C. W. Styron, on Sunday last.

WE stated that Mr. Patten's loss was from $200 to $300. We have since learned that he estimates it at not less than $600.

COTTON was buoyant yesterday, and sales were made as high as 22 cents. Planters and merchants don't seem to mind it much.

THE Marshal yesterday put a force to work cleaning off the pavement in front of the burnt buildings on Market street.

THE Steamship Wm. P. Clyde, is expected from New York to-day.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

PAIN KILLER. A Cure for Diphtheria! All interested, please read the following extract from a letter from Mrs. Ellen B. Mason, wife of Rev. Francis Mason, Toungahoo, Birmah.—My son was taken violently sick with diphtheria, cold chills, burning fever, and sore throat. I counted one morning ten little vesicles in his throat, very white, and his tongue, towards the root, just like a watermelon, full of seeds; the remainder coated as thick as knife-blade. So many children have died around here I was afraid to call a physician, and thought I would try your Pain Killer for a gargle, with small doses inwardly. I did so, and found the gargle invariably out of the vesicles, and he raised them up, after covered with blood. He was taken on Sunday, on Wednesday his throat was clear, and his tongue rapidly clearing off. I also used it as a liniment with castor oil and hartshorn, for his neck. It seemed to me a wonderful cure, and I can but wish it could be known to the many poor mothers in our land who are losing so many children by this dreadful disease.
