AGENTS WANTED FOR

THE OFFICIAL HISTORY

OF THE WAR,

It Causes, Character, Conduct and Results.

By HON. ALEXANDER H. STEPHENS.

A Book for all Sections and all Parties.

THIS GREAT WORK PRESENTS

the only complete and impartial analysis of the Causes of the War yet published, and gives those interior lights and shadows of the great conflict only known to those high officers who watched the foot-prints of revolution from its fountain springs, and which were so accessible to Mr. Stephens from his position as second officer of the Confederacy.

To a public that has been surfeited with APPARENTLY SIMILAR PRODUCTIONS, we promise a change of fare, both agreeable and salutary, and an intellectual treat of the highest order. The Great American War has AT LAST found a historian worthy of its importance, and at whose hands it will receive that moderate, candid and impartial treatment which truth and justice so urgently demand.

The intense desire every where manifested to obtain this work, its official character and ready sale, combined with an increased commission, make it the best subscription book ever published.

PAIN KILLER.

It is a balm for every wound.—Our first physicians use and recommend its use; the Apothecary finds it first among the medicines called for, and the Wholesale Druggist considers it a leading article in his trade. All the dealers in medicine speak alike in its favor, and its reputation is

A Medicine of Great Virtue, is fully and permanently established. It is the great FAMILY MEDICINE of the age.

TAKEN INTERNALLY, it cures Dysentery, Cholera Diarrhoea, Cramp and Pain in Stomach, Bowel Complaint, Painters' Colic, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, or Indigestion, Sudden Colds, Sore Throats, Coughs, &c.

TAKEN EXTERNALLY, it cures Boils, Felons, Bruises, Cuts, Burns, Scalds, old Sores and Sprains, Swellings of the Joints, Toothache, Pain in the Face, Neuralgia and Rheumatism, Chapped Hands, Frost-bitten Feet, &c.

PAIN is supposed to be the lot of us poor mortals as inevitable as death, and liable at any time to come upon us. Therefore it is important that remedial agents should be at hand to be used on emergency, when we are made to feel the excruciating agony of pain, or the depressing influences of disease.

Such a remedial agent exists in "PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER," the fame of which has extended over the whole earth. Amid the eternal ices of the polar regions, or beneath the intolerable and burning suns of the tropics, its virtues are known and appreciated. And by its suffering humanity has found relief from many of its ills. The effect of the Pain Killer upon the patient, when taken internally in cases of Cough, Cold, Bowel Complaints, Cholera, Dysentery, and other affections of the system, has been truly wonderful, and has won for it a name among medical preparations that can never be forgotten. Its success in removing pain, as an external remedy, in cases of Burns, Bruises, Sores and Sprains, Cuts, Stings of Insects, &c., and other causes of suffering, has secured for it the most prominent position among medicines of the day.

Beware of counterfeits and worthless imitations. Call for Perry Davis' Vegetable Pain Killer, and take no other.

A Sunday Bull Fight in Spain.

The great incident of Easter Sunday in Seville, Spain, this year was a bull-fight, at which the Duke and Duchess of Montpensier, with all their family, were present. A correspondent says:

"Before we left we saw six splendid bulls despatched, and they killed no less than eighteen horses, besides seriously injuring three picadores, one of whom, I fear, will hardly recover. One bull alone killed six horses, and on one occasion lifted both horse and rider at least three feet from the ground, tossing them one over the other—a dreadful sight. Indeed the treatment of the horses is the most cruel and—I hope I may be forgiven for saying it—the only disagreeable part of the affair, for all the rest is an exhibition of skill and courage which it is impossible not to admire. But it is astonishing how soon one gets accustomed to blood. When I saw the first horse gored and rolled over on to his rider it really made me feel quite ill, and when a second was sacrificed in the same way I thought I must leave my seat; but the third produced very little effect upon me at all, and I looked at the rest as calmly as my neighbors, who only recognized such incidents by cries of 'Bravo toro,' and shouts for music in his honor. Cnehares, the chief espada, long considered the first in all Spain, as now old, and was visited with much disapproval for what were considered some clumsy thrusts; but Lagartijo was a marvel of nerve and daring. He would draw the bull after him with his cloak, after he had been charged two or three times and had nimbly leapt aside, would suddenly stand motionless a yard before his nose, while the bull would look at him with a puzzled expression, as though doubting whether he should make another rush or no. On one occasion, Lagartijo saved the life of a picadore, who was lying helpless on the ground, by kicking the bull in the face, and when he came to kill the same animal, he drove his sword—a thin, straight weapon, a yard long—into the brute's back, up to the very hilt, with one clean thrust."

Outrage in Lexington, Va.—A Student Shot.

The particulars of an outrageous affair at Lexington reached here yesterday, which, as far as we have been able to ascertain, are as follows: On Friday night a young son of Judge Brockenbrough, aged about nineteen years, was escorting his mother home from church. The residence is some little distance out of town, and is reached by a narrow plank footway. About midway between the town and the house they encountered a negro man and two women. Some words occurred as to which should give way. Finally the women discovering the lady to be Mrs. Brockenbrough said politely that they did not know that it was her, and got out of the way for her to pass. The man, however, was obstinate and insulting. Young Mr. Brockenbrough said, as they passed on, that he would see him again. After accompanying his mother home he returned towards the town and meeting a negro asked him if he was the man who had insulted him. The negro replied that he was, and at the same time drew his pistol and fired. The ball took effect in the breast of Mr. Brockenbrough, and at first it was feared the wound would prove fatal, but at last accounts it was believed by the surgeon that no vital points had been touched, and that he would recover. Great excitement was caused by the affair, and some demonstrations looking towards summary vengeance were commended by the students, but were arrested by the interposition of cooler heads, and the negro was committed to jail. This villainous affair is the natural consequence of the teachings of the Radicals, scallawags and carpet baggers who infest the South and contaminate it by their loathsome presence. We hope that the sternest rigors of the law will be visited upon this assassin, as a just retribution to him and as a warning to others.—Lynch, Virginian.

A Newly-Married Suddenly Divorces Herself.

There happened here recently, between a newly-married couple from Kentucky, a rather startling episode, told briefly as follows. A young gentleman from the county of Madison, Kentucky, wooed and won the heart of a most estimable and handsome young lady of Fayette county. After several months' courtship, the ceremony was duly performed at the First Presbyterian church in Lexington, and the happy pair, with buoyant hopes, took the afternoon train for this city to spend the honeymoon. The hours, on rosy wings, flew swiftly by. The bridegroom congratulated himself upon the prize he had won, and, in blissful ignorance of "breakers ahead," arrived at the Merchants Hotel, where a suite of rooms had been engaged for the happy couple, and awaited their reception. After their arrival in the Queen City, and enjoying supper, the bride retired to her chamber, and the groom, a spirited young fellow, thought he would have a run with the boys and see the elephants a little while before retiring to the arms of Morpheus and his fair bride. The result of this little raid around town can better be imagined than explained; and we are surprised to say, instead of the groom, who is a zealous "Good Templar," returning "right side up," he was, to use a mild expression, jolly tight, and his newly-made wife refused to admit him, and persistently vowed that she would return home on the morrow; and, ringing the bell, alarmed the clerk, who provided an extra bridal chamber for one, and the groom was soon sleeping profoundly.

On the morrow, after having passed the night in profound slumber, all unconscious of having any wife, he was astonished to learn that she had deserted him. But such was the fact. She had returned to her parents, in Fayette county, where she still remains, refusing, thus far, to become reconciled to the man who could desert her on their first day of wedded life for the society of male friends.—Cincinnati Commercial.

Pedestrianism.

Edward Payson Weston, the living wonder of this pedestrian age, has just been backed by Mr. Goodwin for $25,000 a side, Messrs. Wm. E. Fredericks, S. G. Brock, Wm. B. Perkins, F. G. Carroll and G. M. Ball supporting Father Time, to walk 5,000 miles in 100 consecutive days. A purse of $25,000 will also be presented to Weston on accomplishing this monster feat. By the articles of the agreement he will not be permitted to walk on Sunday, thus leaving him only 86 days to walk, making an average of 58 1/2 miles per diem. He will also have to walk 100 miles in 23 hours five times, once in each thousand, or forfeit $2,000 for each time he fails. He will also walk fifty miles in ten consecutive hours, once in each thousand miles, making five times in all. In both of these events he will be allowed two trials. Mr. Weston purposes starting on or about the 18th of August, from Bangor, Maine, to St. Paul, Minnesota, and back to Buffalo, N. Y. During his walk he will be accompanied by six sworn judges. The first deposit of $5,000 a side was put up on Friday night.

The Negroes as Voters.

It is doubtful whether a State now in the Union would not to-day repudiate colored suffrage by an overwhelming majority were the question submitted. There is, therefore, good reason why the States so universally resist the Republican plans of reconstruction. If the comparatively few colored citizens of Connecticut are unfit to vote, so must be the thousands and thousands in the Carolinas. If Michigan and Minnesota, Ohio and Pennsylvania, cannot control the action of their handful of these unfortunate people at the ballot-box, and so must exclude them altogether, what can Alabama and Arkansas, Mississippi and Louisiana,
