A DAILY NEWSPAPER, PUBLISHED at Wilmington, N. C. The Star contains the latest Telegrams, Reports, Local News, General Intelligence, and Complete Reports of the Markets.

TERMS, IN ADVANCE. One Year... $3 00

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

“A good paper—take it.”—Warrenton Courier.

“An ably conducted, easy and lively newspaper.”—Solon Press.

“A paper sprinkled with conservative views.”—Greensboro Times.

“One of the sprightliest papers in the State.”—Washington Standard.

“A sprightly Daily, and well worth the subscription price.”—Greensboro Patriot.

“If you want a lively, wide-awake paper subscribe to the Wilmington Star—Concord Press.

“A sprightly and able conservative paper. One of the most readable of our exchanges.”—Raleigh Standard.

“One of the very best newspapers that visits our sanctum.”—Martins (S. C.) Star.

“A lively, pungent Daily. The editors are evidently an energetic and skillful caterer.”—Warrenton Indicator.

“If you want a bright, sparkling, lively and cheap daily paper, we can commend the Morning Star to our readers.”—Florence (S. C.) Gazette.

“A well conducted, independent conservative paper and well deserving of public patronage. It is one of the most readable papers in the State.”—Salisbury Old North Star.

“A sparkling, lively and clever sheet.”—Martins (S. C.) Crescent.

“A first-class Daily, and one of the sprightiest papers published by us.”—Goldboro News.

“Without mistake, one of the best Dailies received at this office, and may be truly designated a ‘five newspaper,’ containing the news, both political and commercial, in its nutshell.”—Lancaster (S. C.) Ledger.

“A capital little Daily, and one of our very best State exchanges.”—Raleigh Register.

“A sparkling little ‘Twinkler,’ worthy of all commendation. Its lightning flashes of wit, satire and logic are constantly scooping the national rag of Radicalism.”—Goldboro News.

“Unquestionably one of the best Dailies in the State, and a worthy recipient of the large and increasing patronage it is daily receiving. As a bright conservative paper, its firmament of the South, we recommend its editor, and wish for him and his little ‘Twinkler’ unbounded and unattainable success.”—Raleigh North Carolinian.

“This bright constellation of the heavens continues to illumine the political horizon, and nobly performs its office of guiding stars for the poor, downtrodden Southerner. The superior ability of its editorial staff is a sufficient guarantee of its success as one of the leading journals of the country.”—Bennettsville (S. C.) Journal.

“The liveliest paper we know of, full of news in a spicy and convenient form, and has an editorial staff who not only understand the art of epitomizing and paraphrasing to perfection, but who also wield sensible and piquant pens. If you want to invest $5 00 in a pleasant and profitable manner, send and get the Star for six months.”—Kenese (S. C.) Courier.

“One of the best, and indeed we may add, the sprightliest newspaper in the State. The Star shines conspicuously in the political constellation of North Carolina, and will be of great guarantee to its success as one of the best papers in the South, politics or astronomy.”—Edenton Transcriber.
