GREEN'S SAVERS' HOME. I take this method of making known the perfect cure I have obtained from the use of your valuable medicine, the PAIN KILLER. I was urged by a friend to try it, and procured a bottle of Dr. Kernor's, Apothecary.

I had been afflicted three years with Neuralgia and violent spasms of the stomach, which caused a constant rejection of food. The doctors at Westminster Hospital gave up my case in despair. Then I tried your PAIN KILLER, which gave me immediate relief from pain and sickness; and I regained my strength, and am now able to follow my usual occupation of sailor. One bottle cured me.

Yours respectfully, CHARLES POWELL, Bridgeman's Place, Bolton.

SIR—I desire to bear willing testimony to the wonderful efficacy of that American remedy called Pain Killer, which I believe has no equal in this country. I have been afflicted with heart disease, and could find no relief till I got the Pain Killer, which soon made a cure. I am quite willing to answer any inquiries about my case. Yours, etc., FANNY SILVERS, Dudley, (Worcestershire), England.

GENTLEMEN—I can with confidence recommend your excellent medicine, the Pain Killer, for Rheumatism, Indigestion, and also Toothache, having proved its efficacy in the above complaints. Yours, &c., REUBEN MITCHELL, Bridgeman's Place, Bolton.

GENTLEMEN—I have very great pleasure in recommending your medicine, the Pain Killer. I was suffering severely a few weeks since with Bronchitis, and could scarcely swallow any food, so I made up my mind to try your Pain Killer, and after taking a few doses of it, was completely cured. Yours, respectfully, T. WILKINSON, Bolton, Eng.

P. S.—I have recommended the medicine to several of my friends, and, in every instance, it has had the desired effect. je25-23-1m

A Home Made Gorilla--A Lost Boy Grows Up to be a Wild Man of the Woods.

A correspondent of the Cleaveland Plaindealer, writing from Manitow Island, Lake Michigan, June 10th, states that in Lake Michigan, between fifty and sixty miles from Sleeping Bar Point, is a cluster of islands called the Manitow. There are four of them, and they have been used by the Indians as their homes during the fishing season for years.

When, in the progress of time, the white men filled the whole country, the Indians took their departure, and ever since the islands have been inhabited by lumbermen and fishermen. Early this spring, I, with others, took up my abode upon one of the islands, and intend to remain here all the season. Some days ago one of our party took his boat and started for the Little Manitow, one of our group of islands, about four miles distant from the one to the other on which we are encamped. He returned about three o'clock in the afternoon, and related that after he had landed upon the island he heard what he supposed was a man hallooing loudly as though in distress; that he proceeded to the spot from whence the noise seemed to come, and, when within ten or fifteen feet of it, he said he saw a form that had an appearance of a man, at least eight feet tall, entirely naked, with his body covered with hair.

His face had the appearance of intellectuality, his brow being quite high. His beard descended nearly to his stomach, and his hair was disheveled and coarse. As the monster saw the approach of my informant, he gave a loud shriek and at once fled. Knowing that it would be impossible to overtake him, my friend returned to his boat and came home.

After relating his story, we held a consultation, and decided to make up a party on the next day, return to the island, and hunt the monster up. At ten o'clock we landed on the island, and commenced our search. In choosing our positions, I took that which led me to the West, on the shore of the lake. I had not proceeded far when I beheld the unknown sitting upon the beach, washing his feet in the pure water of the lake. I approached him gently, and hoped to be able to capture him without trouble; but when within at least twenty feet of him, he heard me approaching, and, at once springing to his feet, commenced to run. I fired upon him with my gun, but failed to bring him down. I then endeavored to overtake him, but my efforts were fruitless. The rest of the party were not able to get sight of him, and it is as yet unknown where he succeeds in hiding. We start out to-morrow again in the hopes of catching him, and if possible, of finding out who he is or what he is.

There is a story afloat among the older fishermen of the island that some twenty years ago, a woman lost a child here of about four years, and this child is supposed to have grown up to be the wild creature above described.

A Southern Novel.

DOLORES: A Tale of Disappointments and Distress.

THE UNDESIGNED HAS READY for the Press, and will publish, early in September, if he can get a sufficient number of subscribers in the State of North Carolina.

DOLORES:

A Southern Peace and War Novel; embracing pictures of Domestic Life in the South and North, before, during, and since the War, with parallels between the People and Society of the two sections; containing a full and complete history of the Floating Journalism (or Bohemianism), personalities concerning the leading Metropolitan Newspaper-men, and other piquant matter; and comprising these features, as the mere illustration of a narrative, the plot of which has been pronounced to be very intricate in construction and intensely interesting and exciting in development.

Agents wanted in every County of the State, with whom liberal terms will be made. The book will be handsomely printed, and bound in cloth, and will cover four hundred and fifty pages, or more, according to demand.

PRICE: One Copy, $2 50—Ten Copies, $20 00 No doubtful subscriptions wanted. The money to be paid immediately before delivery.

The editor bespeaks the co-operation of his friends throughout the State. Fayetteville, N. C., June 29, 1868. [23-1f] Agent at Wilmington—T. D. MEARES, Jr. N. C. papers copying this advertisement will receive two copies of the work.
