GREENE'S SAILORS' HOME, Poplar Street, London, England. I take this method of making known the perfect cure I have obtained from the use of your valuable medicine, the PAIN KILLER. I was urged by a friend to try it, and procured a bottle of Dr. Kernot, Apothecary.

I had been afflicted three years with Neuralgia and violent spasms of the stomach, which caused a constant rejection of food. The doctors at Westminster Hospital gave up my case in despair. Then I tried your PAIN KILLERwhich gave me immediate relief from pain and sickness; and I regained my strength, and am now able to follow my usual occupation of sailor. One bottle cured me.

Yours respectfully,

CHARLES POWELL, SIR-I desire to bear willing testimony to the wonderful efficacy of that American remdy called Pain Killer, which I believe has no till I got the Pain Killer, which soon made a cure. I am quite willing to answer any inquiries about my case. Yours, etc.,

FANNY SILVERS, Dudley, (Worcestershire,) England. GENTLEMEN-I can with confidence recommend your excellent medicine, the Pain Kill er, for Rheumatism, Indigestion, and also Toothache, having proved its efficacy in the above complaints. Yours, &c., REUBEN MITCHELL, Bridgeman's Place, Bolton.

GENTLEMEN-I have very great pleasure in recommending your medicine, the Pain Killer. I was suffering severely a few weeks since with Bronchitis, and could scarcely swallow any food, so inflamed was my throat. I was advised by a friend to try your Pain Killer, and, after taking a few doses of it, was completely cured. Yours, respectfully,

T. WILKINSON, Bolton, Eng. P. S.-I have recommended the medicine to several of my friends, and, in every instance, it has had the desired effect:

The Democratic Party, in National Convention assembled, reposing its trust in the intel-ligence, patriotism and discriminating justice of the people, standing upon the constitution as the foundation and limitation of the powers of the Government, and the guarantee of the liberties of the citizens, and recognizing the questions of slavery and secession as having been settled for all time to come by the war, or the voluntary action of the Southern States in constitutional conventions assembled, and never to be renewed or reagitated, do, with the return of peace demand:

Fourth. Equal taxation of every species of property according to its real value, including bands and other public securities. Fifth. One currency for the government and

and the bondholder. Sixth, Economy in the administration of the portion of the country, and such wide-spread government; the reduction of the standing army and navy; the abolition of the freedmen's bureau, and all political instrumentalities designed to secure negro supremacy; simplification of the system and discontinuance of inquisitorial modes of assessing and collecting the internal revenue laws as will afford inci-dental protection to domestic manufactures, and as will, without impairing the revenue, impose the least burden upon and best promote and encourage the great industrial interests of the country. Seventh. Reform of abuses in the adminisration, expulsion of corrupt men from office; abrogation of useless offices; the restoration of rightful authority to, and the independence of, the executive and judicial departments of the Government; the subordination of the military to the civil power, to the end that the

In demanding these measures and reforms we arraign the Radical party for its disregard of right, and the unparalleled oppression and tyranny which have marked its career.

After the most solemn and unanimous pledge of both Houses of Congress to prosecute the war exclusively for the maintenance A Tale of Disappointments and of the Government and the preservation of the Union under the Constitution, it has repeatedly violated that most sacred pledge, under which alone was rallied that noble volunteer army which carried our flag to victory.

Instead of restoring the Union, it has so far as in its power dissolved it, and subjected ten States in time of profound peace to military despotism and negro supremacy. It has nullined there the right of trial by jury; it has abolished the habeas corpus, that most sacred writ of liberty; it has overthrown the freedom of speech and the press; it has substituted arbitrary seizures and arrests and military trials and secret star chamber inquisitions for the constitutional tribunals; it has disregarded in time of peace the right of the people to be free from searches and seizures; it has ontered the post and telegraph offices, and even the private rooms of individuals, and seized their private papers and letters without any specific charge or notice of affidavit, as required by the organic law; it has converted the American Capitol into a Bastile; it has established a system of spies and official espionage to which no constitutional monarchy of Europe would now dare to resort; it has abolished the right of appeal on important constitutional questions to the supreme judicial tribunals, and threatens to curtail or destroy its original jurisdiction, which is irrevocably vested by the Constitution; while the learned Chief Justice has been subjected to the most atrocious calumnics, merely because he would not prostitute his high office to the support of the false and partisan charges preferred against the President. Its corruption and extrava-gance have exceeded anything known in history, and by its frauds and monopolies it has nearly doubled the burden of the debt created by the war. It has stripped the President of his constitutional power of appointment even of his own Cabinet. Under its repeated assaults the pillars of the Government are rock-ing on their base, and should it succeed in Nowill meet as a subjected and conquered people amid the rains of liberty and the scattered fragments of the Constitution. And we do declare and resolve that ever since the people of the United States threw off all subjection to the British crown the privilege and trust of suffrage have belonged to the several States, and have been granted, regulated and controlled exclusively by the political power of each State respectively, and that any attempt by Congress, on any pretext what-ever, to deprive any State of this right, or interfere with its exercise, is a flagrant usurpa-tion of power which can find no warrant in the Constitution; and if sanctioned by the people will subvert our form of government, and can only end in a single centralized and consolidated Government, in which the separate ex-istence of the States will be entirely absorbed and an unqualified despotism be established in place of a Federal Union of co-equal States; and that we regard the reconstruction acts (so called) of Congress, as such, are usurpa-tions and unconstitutional, revolutionary and void; that our soldiers and sailors who carried the flag of our country to victory against a most gallant and determined foe must ever be gratefully remembered, and all the guarantees iven in their favor must be faithfully carried nto execution. That the public lands should be distributed as widely as possible among the people, and should be disposed of either under the preemption of homestead lands, and sold in reasonable quantities, and to none but actual octhe government. gard. Upon this platform the Democratic party appeal to every patriot, including all the conservative element and all who desire to support the Constitution and restore the Union, forgetting all past differences of opinion, to unite with us in the present great struggle for the liberties of the people; and that to all such, to whatever party they may have heretofore belonged, we extend the right band of fellowship and hail all such co-operat-ing with us as friends and brethren.

Resolved, That in the future, as in the past we will adhere, with unswerving fidelity, to the Union, under the Constitution, as the founda tion of our strength, security and happiness as a people, and as a frame-work of government equally conducive to the welfare and prosperity of all the States, both Northern and South
