

MORNING STAR. PUBLISHED WEEKLY. BY WM. H. BERNARD. OFFICE: 98 South Water St. Rates of Advertising: One square one day, 50 cents; three days, 1.50; one week, 3.00; one month, 10.00; six months, 55.00; one year, 100.00.

RAILROAD LINES. GENERAL SUPPLY OFFICE. WILMINGTON & MANCHESTER R. R. CO. WILMINGTON, N. C., May 10, 1868. O'AND AFTER MAY 10th PASSENGER TRAINS will run on the following schedule: EXPRESS TRAIN. Leave Wilmington at 4:45 A. M. Arrive at Florence at 7:30 A. M. Arrive at Kingsville at 11:30 A. M. Arrive at Lenoir at 1:30 P. M. Arrive at Weldon at 3:30 P. M. Arrive at New River at 5:30 P. M. Arrive at Goldsboro at 7:30 P. M. Arrive at Raleigh at 9:30 P. M.

MISCELLANEOUS. RUFF & HOWARD. You can do all your Cooking, save time, trouble and money, and avoid heating the house in Summer, by using a Kerosene or Gas Stove. Ask for the UNION (Kerosene) or VULCAN (Gas) STOVE. They are the best. Take no other notice. Send for Circular. Also Attachments for Lamps or Gas Burners, Nursery Lamps, Kerosene Glue Pans, Oil Cans, Kerosene Oil, Lamp Wick, and Grease, Larders, etc., etc.

HOTELS. Purcell House, WILMINGTON, N. C. J. H. DAVIS, of Mills House, Charleston, S. C. Coach, Carriage and Big Game Wagons always ready to convey Passengers to and from the Railroads. [July 14-17]

MISCELLANEOUS. JUST ARRIVED. Fresh in Store. N. C. HAMS. SPICED TRIPE. SPICED HIGS FEET. FULTON MARKET DEEF. In Half Barrels. FRESH CRACKERS—All kinds. FRESH O. C. BUTTER—Cheap.

Wood and Willow Ware. The Very Best Article of Ex. Family Flour. GENTS' KID GONGRESS GAITERS; GENTS LOW-QUARTERED Jersey Ties; Desirable Goods FOR SUMMER.

W. M. & J. C. STEVENSON, Owners of Front and Market sts. By the Air Line To-Day! GENTS' KID GONGRESS GAITERS; GENTS LOW-QUARTERED Jersey Ties; Desirable Goods FOR SUMMER.

SUNDRIES. 6,000 BUSHELS CORN; 5,000 SACKS SALT; 100 Hhds. MOLASSES and SYRUP; 20 Hhds. BACON; 200 Boxes CANDLES; 150 Cases LYE and POTASH; 150 Boxes (42,000) SOAP.

Groceries! Groceries!! HAVING PURCHASED THE STOCK OF CHARLES H. FRENCH, 10 South Front Street, I shall continue the GROCERY BUSINESS at that stand, and respectfully request a continuance of the liberal patronage heretofore bestowed on that stand.

MISCELLANEOUS. RUFF & HOWARD. You can do all your Cooking, save time, trouble and money, and avoid heating the house in Summer, by using a Kerosene or Gas Stove.

MYERS' 1,200 QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ON THE BIBLE. IT IS CONTEMPLATED THAT THIS work will be ready for delivery (D. V.) in the course of the ensuing month. The list of subscribers will close on 30th inst. Price to Subscribers, 50 cents; Publishing Price, 3.00.

SPECIAL NOTICES. W. H. Leppitt, Druggist & Chemist. Always on hand a full and select supply of PURE MEDICINES, CHEMICALS, DYE STUFFS, PERFUMERY, SOAPS, BRUSHES, FANCY ARTICLES, etc., etc. Prescriptions accurately and neatly compounded.

Read Some English Testimonials. GREEN'S SAVERS' HOME. I take this method of making known the perfect cure I have obtained from the use of your valuable medicine, the PAIN KILLER. I was urged by a friend to try it, and procured a bottle of Dr. Kepner's Apothecary. It had been afflicted three years with Neuralgia and violent spasms of the stomach, which caused a constant rejection of food.

GREEN'S SAVERS' HOME. I take this method of making known the perfect cure I have obtained from the use of your valuable medicine, the PAIN KILLER. I was urged by a friend to try it, and procured a bottle of Dr. Kepner's Apothecary.

GREEN'S SAVERS' HOME. I take this method of making known the perfect cure I have obtained from the use of your valuable medicine, the PAIN KILLER. I was urged by a friend to try it, and procured a bottle of Dr. Kepner's Apothecary.

FIRST GUN OF THE DRY GOODS CAMPAIGN. AARON & RHEINSTEIN. BEG LEAVE TO INFORM THE PUBLIC that they offer the HANDSOMEST STOCK of Foreign and Domestic DRY GOODS, BOOTS AND SHOES, HATS, CAPS, GENTS' FURNISHING GOODS, LADIES' and MISSES' BONNETS and HATS, Trimmed and Untrimmed; BONNET RIBBON, FRENCH FLOWERS, DRESS TRIMMINGS, &c., &c.

DRESS GOODS, WHITE GOODS. We have the largest and best assortment in the State, including all the most desirable styles of the season. We feel a surety in saying they are not excelled either in style or price by any in the market.

DOMESTIC CIGARS. A Choice Selection. From $2.00 to $12.00 per Box. "Pontet Canet," A MOST EXCELLENT CLARET. For sale by THOS. C. LEWIS, 8 Market Street.

CLEVELAND MINERAL SPRINGS. SITUATED IN CLEVELAND COUNTY, N. C., on the line of the Wilmington, Charlotte and Fayetteville Railroad, will be open for visitors on the first of June. WATERS—Chalybeate, Red and White Sulphur. Charge per day, 3.00; per week, 18.00; per month, 50.00; Children under 7 years, and servants, half rates. For further particulars address the Proprietors, Shelby, N. C. [July 14-1868]

MORNING STAR. PUBLISHED AT WILMINGTON, N. C., BY WM. H. BERNARD. Mailed, or delivered to subscribers in all parts of the City, at 50 CENTS for Six Months, or $1.25 for Three Months.

The Star Book Bindery. This complete establishment is in successful operation, and is daily turning out the handsomest specimens of work. Mr. T. H. Tillman, its manager, is unsurpassed as a skillful workman, and will guarantee satisfaction to all its patrons.

Female Heroism—A Noble Deed Performed by Two Sisters. The St. Michael's (Md.) Comet relates the following: As faithful chroniclers of passing events, it becomes our duty this week to record an act of feminine courage worthy of a place upon the historic page by the side of the records of time's most famous heroines.

Female Heroism—A Noble Deed Performed by Two Sisters. Oliver Green, a colored man living on the farm of Bennett Baggis, Esq., was crossing the creek near Mr. Baggis in a canoe, when it was struck by the wind, and Green was precipitated into the water beyond his depth. The spectacle was witnessed from the shore by two ladies—the Misses Seymour, daughters of the late Jere Seymour—who, seeing a fellow creature at the mercy of the waves, and in an imminent danger of drowning, prompted by the noble instincts of the sex, and forgetting danger and all else in the desire to save the life of a human being, got into a little frail canoe, so frail that a man would not have trusted himself in it in such a storm.

Female Heroism—A Noble Deed Performed by Two Sisters. Green, at this time, was nearly insensible, and the two ladies found their strength inadequate to the task of getting him into their boat, so one of them held on upon him, keeping his head above water, while the other rowed the canoe to the shore, to which they safely arrived, and in a short time the semi-drowned negro was restored to consciousness. That two ladies should thus place their lives in imminent peril to save life, and succeeded in spite of difficulties which would have appalled many a bolder heart, is worthy of public commendation. That the individual rescued was an obscure colored man, whose death would scarcely have been noticed, but adds to the nobleness and generosity of the act. All the circumstances of this case prove that we have heroines in our midst as brave as were any of those whose names, surviving oblivion, have come down to us through the olden traditions.

A Lamentable Affair. The usual quiet of Alexandria was disturbed yesterday by the occurrence of an accident resulting in the death of a young lady of that place, followed by the suicide of a young gentleman to whom she was engaged to be married. It appears that about 9 o'clock on Saturday evening the young lady, Miss Laura Schaffer, daughter of a confectioner, residing on King near Fairfax street, was engaged infilling a kerosene lamp, when by some means the lamp exploded, and the young lady was severely burned about the face and body. Medical aid was summoned, and though the physicians used every effort to save her life, she died at 11 o'clock yesterday morning, after hours of intense suffering. The saddest part of the affair is yet to be related. A young man named Charles Tennyson, who was engaged to be married to Miss Schaffer, hearing of the accident, called at the house and was horrified to learn that his betrothed was dead. He rushed from the house, and it is supposed, proceeded to drinking places and drank heavily of intoxicating liquors, with a view of drowning his grief. This supposition is founded on the fact that, when he entered a restaurant kept by his father on King street, he was nearly wild with liquor. He called for a glass of whiskey, and while the person in attendance turned to get the bottle, young Tennyson drew a pistol, and placing it at his head, fired, the ball entering just behind the right ear and passing upward. Physicians were summoned, and after adopting means to ease his pain, the sufferer was removed to his home. It is understood that he died at an early hour last evening.—Washington Chronicle, Monday.

The Democratic Platform.

The Democratic Platform. The Democratic Party, in National Convention assembled, reposing its trust in the intelligence, patriotism and discriminating justice of the people, standing upon the equal rights of the Government, and the guarantee of the liberties of the citizens, and recognizing the questions of slavery and secession as having been settled for all time to come by the war, or the voluntary action of the Southern States in constitutional conventions assembled, and never to be renewed or reargued, do, with the return of peace demand: First, Immediate restoration of all the States to their rights in the Union, under the constitution, and of civil government to the American people.

The Democratic Platform. Second, Amnesty for all past political offenses, and the regularization of the elective franchise in the States by their citizens, and the payment of the public debt of the United States as rapidly as practicable; all moneys drawn from the people by taxation, except so much as is required for the necessities of the Government, to be economically administered, being honestly applied for such purposes; and where the obligations of the Government do not expressly state upon their face, or the law under which they were issued does not provide that they shall be paid in coin, they shall be paid in legal tender notes of the United States.

The Democratic Platform. Fourth, Equal taxation of every species of property according to its real value, including lands and other public securities. Fifth, The curbing of the officeholder, the pensioner and the soldier, the producer and the bondholder. Sixth, Economy in the administration of the Government; the reduction of the standing army and navy, and the abolition of the military and all political patronages; the disbandment to secure negro supremacy; simplification of the system and discontinuance of inquisitorial modes of assessing and collecting internal revenue, so that the burden of taxation may be equalized and lessened, the credit of the Government, and the currency made good; the repeal of all enactments for enrolling the State militia into national forces in time of peace, and a tariff for revenue upon foreign imports, and such equal taxation under existing laws as will afford incidental protection to domestic manufactures, and as will, without impairing the revenue, impose the least burden upon and best promote and encourage the great industrial interests of the country.

The Democratic Platform. Eighth, Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native-born citizens at home and abroad; the assertion of American nationality which shall command the respect of foreign powers, and furnish an example and encouragement to people struggling for national integrity, constitutional liberty and individual rights, and the maintenance of the rights of citizens against the absolute doctrine of immutable allegiance, and the claims of foreign powers to punish them for alleged crime committed beyond their jurisdiction. In demanding these measures and reforms we are not a Radical party for the sake of right, and the unparalleled oppression and tyranny which have marked its career. After the most solemn and unanimous pledge of both Houses of Congress to prosecute the war exclusively for the maintenance of the Government and the preservation of the Union under the Constitution, it has repeatedly violated that most sacred pledge, and thereby alone was called that noble volunteer army which carried our flag to victory.

The Democratic Platform. Instead of restoring the Union, it has so far as its power dissolved it, and subjected ten States in time of profound peace to military rule, and negro supremacy. It has nullified the right of trial by jury; it has abolished the habeas corpus, that most sacred writ of liberty; it has overturned the freedom of speech and the press; it has substituted arbitrary seizures and arrests and military rule in place of the civil process; it has abolished the right of appeal on important constitutional questions to the supreme judicial tribunals, and threatens to curtail or destroy its original jurisdiction, which is irrevocably vested by the Constitution; while the most atrocious calumnies, merely because he would not prostitute his high office to the support of the false and partisan charges preferred against the President. Its corruption and extravagance have exceeded anything known in our history by its frauds and monopolies, it has nearly doubled the burden of the debt created by his own Cabinet. Under its repeated assaults the pillars of the Government have been undermined, and should it succeed in November next and inaugurate its President, we will meet as a subjected and conquered people amid the ruins of liberty and the scattered fragments of the Constitution.

The Democratic Platform. And we do declare and resolve that ever since the people of the United States threw up the gauntlet to the British, to the privilege and trust of suffrage have belonged to the several States, and have been granted, regulated and controlled exclusively by the political power of each State respectively, and that any attempt by Congress, on any pretext whatever, to deprive any State of this right, or to interfere with its exercise, is a flagrant usurpation of power which can find no warrant in the Constitution; and if sanctioned by the people will subvert our form of government, and can only end in a single centralized and consolidated Government, in which the separate existence of the States will be entirely absorbed and an unqualified despotism be established in place of a Federal Union of co-equal States; and that we regard the reconstruction acts (so-called) of Congress, as such, in their assumption of unconstitutional, revolutionary and void; that our soldiers and sailors who carried the flag of our country to victory against a most gallant and determined foe must ever be gratefully remembered, and all the guarantees given in their favor must be faithfully carried into effect.

The Democratic Platform. That the public lands should be distributed as widely as possible among the people, and should be disposed of either under the pre-emption of homestead lands, and sold in reasonable quantities, and to some but actual settlers, and at the minimum price established by the government. When grants of the public lands may be allowed necessary for the encouragement of important public improvements, the proceeds of the sale of such lands, and not the lands themselves, should be so applied. That the President of the United States, Andrew Johnson, in exercising the power of his high office in resisting the aggressions of Congress upon the constitutional rights of the States and the people, is entitled to the warmest sympathies of the whole American people, and in behalf of the Democratic party, we tender him our thanks for his patriotic efforts in that regard. Upon this platform the Democratic party appeal to every patriot, including all the conservative elements of the Union, to unite with us in the present great struggle for the liberties of the people; and

That in the future, as in the past, we will adhere, with unswerving fidelity, to the Union, under the Constitution, as the foundation of our strength, security and happiness as a people, and as a frame-work of government equally conducive to the welfare and prosperity of all the States, both Northern and Southern.

Resolved, That the Union established by the Constitution is a Union of States, federal in its character, composed of States, thereby united, and is capable of existing without the States, as its constituent parts, and heretofore the perpetuation of the Union is its duty, and depends upon the preservation of the States in their integrity, the Government of the United States being a Federal Republic, and not a consolidation of the whole people into a nation. Resolved, That the people of the Union, as cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the venerable teachings of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson, have ever been the cardinal doctrines of the Democratic party, and they are now reiterated with increased emphasis, under the solemn conviction that only by bringing back the administration of the Government to the people, and the maintenance of the government, as both were established by the Constitution, and as both, under the Constitution, have been espoused in the foregoing resolutions, in conformity with the