SPECIAL MAGISTRATE'S COURT.
One case only before Squire McQuigg yesterday, that of Allen Gilmore, a colored man who had practiced his arts on a country damsel, and had secured and abused her affections. He was recognized in the sum of $100 for his appearance before the next term of the Superior Court, and was permitted to "go his way" for the present.

A SAILOR SUES HIS CAPTAIN.
Yesterday a bail warrant was issued for George Mitchell, Captain of the Schooner "Flying Scud," and he was carried before Squire McQuigg on the charge of not paying his Second Mate, J. W. Morgan, his wages. After a hearing of the particulars of the case, Squire McQuigg decided that the Mate was entitled to $26.00, a sum which the Captain was required to pay him, and then release him from his service.

THE OATH.—The following is the oath to which Inspectors are required to subscribe:
I do solemnly swear that I will support the Constitution and laws of the United States and the Constitution and laws of North Carolina not inconsistent therewith, and will faithfully discharge the duties of an Inspector, so help me God.
WHAT WILL BE DONE.—We have conversed with several of the members of the Board of Aldermen on the question of the velocipede, and they are of the opinion that the City Clerk will either have to abandon the rink, or to pay the increased insurance on the neighboring property. Many persons are interested in this subject and we trust the Board of Aldermen will not be guided by politics in its decision.

PARTRIDGES.—A great number of these elegant birds are constantly brought to our city, and we will state for general information, that the usual price is one dollar and a half per dozen. We saw a number of very fine ones yesterday sold at this price.

SPECIAL COURT yesterday tried four cases, and released, without cost, all but one.
Now that that the Grand Jury has resumed its sessions, we presume the court will find more to occupy its attention.

NUMBER OF PATIENTS.—The number of patients now in the City Hospital is about fifteen, and they are daily improving. The Hospital is, we learn, well kept, and the sick receive the kindest attention from the skillful physician who has charge of it.

DIED.—Lottie McKay, a colored woman, was carried to the City Hospital two or three days ago, badly afflicted with dropsy, and after much suffering died yesterday. Her history is not known, but from various circumstances, it is supposed her story, if truly related, would prove an interesting one to the curious.

RIDING ON THE VELOCIPED.—Yesterday afternoon, a number of young gentlemen were engaged in riding on the velocipede in the partly finished rink. The velocipede will be completed in a few days, and then we may expect to see quite a large number of young gentlemen exhibiting their skill.

ESTABLISHED.—We hear that Mr. J. Lorillard has determined to place a regular line of steamships between Wilmington and New York. The Volunteer is due next Monday, and the Fanita will follow it, thus making two vessels on the Lorillard line.

CONTINUED SICKNESS in our competitors' room compels us to lessen our local matter.

THE ANNUAL COMMENCEMENT of the University of N. C. will take place June 6th. We thought it had commenced some time since—commenced playing out.

Tobacco factory of G. W. Norwoods Esq., of Roxboro, was destroyed on the 12th inst. Loss, including tobacco and building, $40,000—no insurance.

Elegant brick residence of Mr. Moses A. Biedson, destroyed by fire yesterday morning. A small quantity of furniture was saved. It was insured in the Underwriter's Company for $12,000—considerably less than value. Mr. B. and family were, fortunately, absent from home at the time.

The North Carolina Real and Personal Estate Agency will have a drawing at one dollar a chance, at Tucker Hall, on the 22nd inst. Their purpose, they say, is more to illustrate the plan of the large drawing that is to take place hereafter, than for the profits.

The Eagle learns that the Grand Jury of Richmond County, last week, presented the Sheriff, Clerk of the Superior Court and Register of Deeds, for holding their office with insufficient bonds. We learn, also, that Judge Buxton enforces the stay law as to old debts.

We clip the following from the Argus: On Saturday, the 8th inst., at 2 P. M., a number of gentlemen, engaged in agriculture, assembled at the old Bank building to organize a permanent club. A temporary organization was made by calling Maj. S. W. Cole to the Chair, who stated, in a few remarks, the object of the meeting, E. S. McLevine and S. J. Edwards were appointed Secretaries. It was moved and carried that the Chair appoint a committee to report a constitution and by-laws. The Chair appointed H. W. Leichter, H. Knoles, J. N. Keibon, and D. McNeill such committee. The Chair also being instructed appointed Dr. E. F. Ashe, W. W. Winfree, and J. W. McGregor, a committee on permanent organization. Both committees to report at the next meeting, which, it was decided, should take place in two weeks, May 23d, at 2 p. m., at the same place.

We clip the following elegant paragraph from the address of Maj. W. W. Robbins, before the Memorial Association of Raleigh: Upon the duty of our arms we lost the privilege of self government. Strangers now dictate our laws. Strangers fill our offices. Strangers occupy our places at the council boards of the country. We are as aliens in our own land. Liberty's holy shrine opens no door to us unless we crawl as suppliants or basely forego ourselves. Strangers and servants bear rule over us. Our once resplendent and still fondly beloved South has taken her place in the list of crushed and bleeding nations, where the names of Israel and Carthage and Samaria and Erin stood before. And like these down trodden sisters in misfortune, the too has the proud consolation to know that even in defeat her glory shines out with an effulgence which dims the glory of the conqueror.

DEAR SIR: Yours of the 7th inst. is received.
If a merchant buys goods and exchanges the same for produce or other goods, I think there should only be one purchase estimated. The produce merely stands in the place of the "swapped off."
