STILL ANOTHER.—To the already large list of swindlers who have lately visited our city may be added the name, or more correctly the nom de guerre of "Fred. Kent, New Orleans." Thus he registered his name at the Purcell House last Sunday, remained during the day and night, and departed on Monday, forgetting to pay his bill for the sumptuous fare to which he had been treated. After leaving the Purcell House, he stopped at the boarding house of a lady of our city, and there remained until Tuesday night, when the proprietress ordered him to leave, as he appeared not inclined to be an acceptable boarder, and placed to his restraint on a tongue naturally prone to falsehood. Since that time he has not been heard of, and we trust he has decided to leave a city that will congratulate itself on his disappearance.

CATHOLIC FESTIVAL.—This Festival will be opened Monday night in the City Hall, and will continue for several days and nights, opening at ten o'clock morning, and closing at eleven evening. We once more, at request, allude to the closing of the stores at sunset. A portion of the merchants abide by the agreement, and thus deserve commendation; a small part disregard their word, and thus add little to their reputation for generosity. TO-DAY.—The complimentary excursion to Senator Abbott was postponed yesterday until to-day, when it is intended to embark on a steamer and visit the "classic" shores of old Carolina. WM. H. PAYNE'S wife was still engaged, yesterday, in trying to obtain bail for her husband, but her laudable efforts as a wife failed without accomplishing more than unavailing sympathy for herself. LOCALS are compelled to exert unusual energy, in order to gather a very different number of items.

North Carolina in a Nutshell.—A mad dog was recently killed near Hillsboro. "Hon." D. Heaton, of Newbern, is seriously ill from hemorrhage of the lungs. One thousand acres of land recently sold in Northampton county for fifty dollars. The Protestant Episcopal convention for the Diocese of North Carolina met in Raleigh, yesterday. The cotton in the vicinity of Weldon, supposed to have been rotted by the recent cold spell, is popping up, and unless further damaged, a good stand will yet be had. A successful colored gambler was attacked by a party from whom he had won considerable money, in Leasburg, May, 9th. An alarm was given and the would-be robbers arrested. A gentleman named Wyatt, of Polk county, was bitten by a large rattlesnake several days ago. He ran his hand into a hollow to pull out a rabbit, and the snake bit it. He hastened home, drank a quart of spirits and is now entirely recovered—whether from the bite or "spirits," we are not able to say. In Granville, Warren, Wake and Franklin, the wheat crop was never more promising. The oat crop is rather poor. Cotton is sadly damaged in the two last mentioned counties. The prospect for a tobacco crop in Granville, the largest tobacco growing county in the State, is not at all flattering. There is an alarming scarcity of plants. The flies having destroyed two-thirds of them. There is also a great want of cotton seed to replant the fields that have been injured. —Sentinel.

DR. H. C. VOGEL, SUPERINTENDENT OF THE BUREAU SCHOOLS FOR NORTH CAROLINA.—Dr. Vogel was yesterday in our city, having arrived from Raleigh, for the purpose of visiting the Bureau Schools in company with Gen. Rutherford; and to decide what pecuniary aid each school needed. He ordered Gen. Rutherford to repair several buildings which were in a bad condition, and to charge the cost to the Bureau. Dr. Vogel is, also, Disbursing Agent of the Peabody Fund for this State and intends to render assistance to those schools most in need of appropriations.

A SPECIAL MEETING of the Board of Aldermen will be held this evening. SEVERAL EXCURSIONS will take place during the week. THE dust is certainly effectually "laid"—at least for the next few days. ROBBERIES are becoming very frequent in our city, and unless speedily stopped no man will feel safe either at home or walking the streets. WILMINGTON in point of producing fine strawberries will compare favorably with any city south of "Mason's and Dixie's Line."
