FOUND DRAD .- A colored woman, by the name of Hannah Moore, who resided at the corner of Sixth and Princess streets, went to bed Saturday night in apparently good health, having made no complaint in the hearing of her friends of any indisposition, but on Sunday morning her body was discovered to be cold and lifeless. Upon hearing of the circumstance Coroner Allen on Sunday morning summoned a jury and held an inquest on her body. A post mortem examination, conducted by Drs. J. C. Walker and Will, G. Thomas, elicited the fact, that her disease was apoplexy, when the jury returned a verdict in accordance with this fact.

THE ROBESON OUTLAWS,-A Charleston paper states that a hand of outlaws, from North Curolina, are now in the Pedee Swamp, in Marlboro' County, S. C. These are supposed to be a portion of the band that recently infested Robeson county in such large numbers, robbing and murdering the people of that and adjoining counties. In this connection, we see it stated, a mulatto, calling himself Mannah Oxendyne alias Mannah Lowrey, was convicted of grand larceny by the Marlboro court and sentenced to the penitentiary, and that he conferred he belonged to the band of outlaws above mentioned. Thus, one by one, these outlaws are captured and are receiving their

ANNIVERSARY OF THE CREATION. &c .- Monday, the 6th of September (yesterday,) was according to Bible chronology, the anniversary of the creation of the world, being the commencement of the year A. M. 5681, and the first day of the Lunar month Tishri. That day and the succeeding one, being the first and second days of the month Tishri, are obverved as sacred holydays and days of memorial by all members of the Hebrew faith through out the world. The command for the obs vance is contained in Leviticus xxIII. 23,

24. 25. ATT TERRIFERENT BATTE AV. The day is also commemorative as the anniversary of another remarkable event n Bible History—i. e., as the day when the Almighty tried Abraham, to show how with unquestioning trust and faith in Him, he would at his command give up and sacrifice that which was his dearest earthly hope and joy, his only son, Isaac. This lesson, one of the sublimest examples of unquestioning and boly faith in God Almighty, is commemorated in Genesis, chap. xxII. In accordance with universal custom among those professing the Juish faith, the places of business of our Hebrew fellow citizens were closed yesterday and will remain so to day, to enable them to properly commemorate the events above al-

DISTURBANCE .-- About half past six o'clock yesterday afternoon, a disturbance, which came near terminating in a riot, occurred in one of the shops, on cond street, adjoining the store of Mr. Jas. B. Huggins. The disturbance was originated by a colored fireman named Stepen Ballard, who was in the shop freely indulging in that beverage very suing: aptly termed "bust-head." Officer Wolcott stepped into the shop for the purpose of discovering a friend of whom he was in Howard, Thomas Gurganis, Allen Herring, search, when Ballard, without the slightest provocation on the part of Mr. Wolcott, commenced abusing the latter, who Mathias, James Lewis, Richard Fennell, at once attempted to arrest him, but was JP Walker, P Fountain, O'M Lewis, ciation, to be organized at the City Hall met with such determined resistance by Thomas Johnston, J. California Corron.-We were shown last night, by Col. J. R. Davis, proprietor of the Purcell House, a stalk of cotton bearing the at ove name. It is a'new variety of cotton, and possesse many valuable qualities, prominent among which is its early maturity and immense yield. We are assured by the Colonel, on the authority of Dr. H. J. Holmes, a prominent physician of Atlanta, Ga., that this otton matures from three to five weeks carlier than any other species known. The stalk shown us was the finest specimen; for its age, we have ever seen. It was up August 7th. It was grown on the lantation of Maj J. F. Dennis, of Selms, Alabams. When sent to Dr. Holmes, in Atlanta, it had on it 53 full grown bolls, with a number unopened. Dr. Holmes expects to visit this city and will bring with him stalks of this cotton bearing newards of 500 bolls. With ordinary at tention, on the Mississippi river, from 24 to 3 bales can be grown to the scre without the aid of fertilizer; and it is sserted that , with good soil and fertiliter, from four to five bales can be gathered from the nore. The Business Portion of Goldsboro in Ashes-Loss $125,000 -Particulars. who no

We commence this article without any cap-tion, to-day, for under the present distressed circumstances, we are not in the right spirit to pen anything. But an imperative duty is involved upon us, as a faithful journalist, to chronicle events however sad it may weigh chronicle events however sad it may weigh upon our minds.

That beautiful portion of Goldsboro, generally known as the business part, is in ashes. Last Saturday evening, the 4th inst., most of our citizens had retired to rest after a weekly busy toil, little dreaming of the dreadful calamity that awaited them, 'ere the dawn of another sun. About 10 o'clock the alarm of fire was sounded and, within an hour thereafter, the most beautiful and largest business portion of our town was at the mercy of the flames.

The Wayne Hook and Ladder Company, with what little force they mould command, was upon the spot and alded all in their power. But force, as well as water was insufficient to subdue the element, and its liquid tongue of fames soon devoured the entire block of houses from the corner of Chestnut and West-Centre to Walnut Streets, completely destroying everything in that part of our town. At one time the element became furious and much anxiety was felt for the safety of the two hotels and the row of business houses on East Centre Street, but fortunately the element ceased its prey after having laid in ashee 17 places of business, the Masonic Lodge, the Wayne Boarding House, the Messenger and Post newspaper Printing Office and WeiFs Lumber Yard.

umber Yard. We are among the unfortunate, our pr and other materials have been destroyed and such of our type as we have saved are very much deranged. Still with the aid of our small Job Press, we hope to issue a small extra, probably, each day until we can secure another large press, which we hope will not be longer than two weeks from now, when the Messenger will again appear in its usual-size.

The losers by the fire were Messrs. Weil & Bros., loss $30,000; Wm. Robinson, $15,000; Einstein & Bros., $12,000; J. H. Privett, $10,000; Dr. J. M. Hunter, $3,000; W. W. Crawford, $3,000; Dr. W. H. Finlayson, $2,500; Mrs. M. A. Borden, $3,500; J. D. Waters, $3,500; Jno. H. Powell, $1,500; Rufus Edmundson, $1,500; J. H. Wages, $1,500; L. D. Giddings, $3,000; J. W. Gulick, $1,500; R. J. Gregory, $1,500; J. W. Morris, $1,500; J. A. Bonitz, $1,100; Dr. W. T. Robinson, $800; W. F. Kornegay, $700; and Mrs. M. A. Tompkins, $600.

There were other smaller losses which we could not gather upon in time to go to press. The entire loss will, probably, reach one hanpred and twenty five thousand dollars, of this as far as we can learn, only about $18,000 or $20,000 worth of property was insured.

Those insured were Messrs. H. Well & Bro., about $13,000; W. W. Crawford, $2,500 and Z. Einstein & Bro., from 3,000 to $5,000.

The fire originated in a warehouse attached to the rear end of Col. J. W. Morris's Bowling alley, and as no fire has been in that portion of the building since Spring last, it is strongly suspected to have been the work of an incendary. Ferret him out, by all means, and turn him, or them, over to "Judge Lynch,"—Mes benger Exten 60.
