> IMPORTANT TO PRINTERS .--- The clear and beautiful impression we have peen enabled to present to our readers for the last few days, was secured by using > ink from the Agency of Mr. W. H. Bernard, Wilmington, N. C. Mr. B. furnishes this ink at manufacturers' prices, which makes it cheaper than it ordered from the manufactory direct. This Agency is conrenient, and a great accommodation to printers in this State and a great portion of South Carolina.

The inks are of a superior quality, as all can see who are in the habit of reading the publications from the office of Mr. B. Several of our exchanges are printed with this ink, and without exception, show great improvement since commencing its use.

A MAN ARRESTED FOR ABUSING ANOTHER MAN'S WIFE .- On the complaint of Willis Webb, on Tuesday, Daniel Venters was arrested on the charge of having cursed and abused his (Webb's) wife. The case was heard before Judge Cantwell yesterday morning, and judgment rendered against Venters in the sum of $100 and costs. A NOTED PRISON BIRD ATTEMPTS TO GIVE "LEG BAIL."-Peter Keenan. who was sent to prison on Tuesday, in defauit of bail, to await his trial before the next term of the Special Court, was yesterday taken from his quarters for the purpose of allowing him an opportunity to get so curity. Watching his chances, he suddenly broke from the custody of the po liceman in charge, and fled for dear life After a vigorous search, however, he was finally discovered concealed in a lot of hay in a warehouse on South Water street. where he was easily recaptured. This little freak of the irrepressible Peter having led to the conviction that "leg bail" was what he was anxious to give, he was taken back to jail.

AN AFFRAY .-- As a white man (name not known), who has been peddling books about the streets for some days past was passing the news stand of Mr. T. M Harris, on Front-street, yesterday after noon, he espied the military cap usually worn by the boys attending one of our city schools, on the head of Master Frank Agostini, and made some insulting allo sion to it, calling the boy a "rebel," &c The boy made some rejoinder, saying among other things that the word "rebel" had played out ; wherenpon the man who had been drinking, called the youth a d-d son of a b-h. OBSTINACY NEITHER PROFITABLE NOR POLITIC-PETER KEENAN AGAIN-Yesterday afternoon, pursuant to the order of the Marshal, the redoubtable Peter Keenan was taken from the guard-house for the purpose of exercising his muscle on the public streets. This, however, he peremptorily refused to do. The Marshal endeavored to convince him that it would be best for him to submit quictly and go to work like a man. But Peter couldn't ee it in that light, and declared he would ie in the guard house and rot first. He was politely informed, however, that he would not be allowed that agreeable privilege, as he owed the city $100 and the city couldn't afford to lose it, and that ifhe would not go to work of his own volition, he would be taken to it in a wheelbarrow. This threat dida't seem to have the desired effect, as the obstinate Peter declared that he was ready for the ride, as he would not walk, and he would see them all in a warm place before he would strike a lick of work after they should carry him to it.
